

All Over New Brunswick

CARLETON. WOODSTOCK.

WOODSTOCK, Jan 21—The funeral of the late Wm Kennedy took place today from his residence, and was largely attended.

Mr. James Hooey has removed his portable mill to Norton, Kings county.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' and Dairyman's Association will be held at Jacksonville on Tuesday, February 7, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Price, widow of the late John Price of Bedford Settlement, died at her home on Tuesday. She leaves one son and six daughters.

WOODSTOCK, Jan 25—The funeral of the late R. K. Jones took place from his late residence at 2:30 this afternoon. The large concourse of people that followed the remains to the grave showed the esteem in which Mr. Jones was held.

The funeral was held under the direction of the Masonic order of which Mr. Jones was an honored member. The order of procession was as follows:—

WOODSTOCK LODGE, F. & A. M. Coaches with Mourners. Burial Service at 2:30. Town Council and Officials in Team. County Councillors. Officers in Foot and in Team. The remains were interred in the Methodist cemetery.

Rev. Mr. Wiggins assisted by Revs. Rutledge, Marr and Phillips conducted service at the home. The ceremonies at the grave were according to the Masonic ritual.

A special meeting of the County Council is called for Thursday, February 2, to elect a secretary-treasurer to succeed the late deceased R. K. Jones.

KINGS CO.

SUSSEX, Jan 21—Frank W. Sherwood, who is now located at Chadron, Neb., son of Station Agent Sherwood, is expected home today. His sister, Miss Gerie Sherwood, has been very ill for some week.

The funeral of Mr. Oliver Haley who died on Wednesday, will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Haley, who conducted a carriage factory here for a number of years, died from the effects of a paralytic stroke received about a year ago. He was a much respected citizen, and leaves a wife and three children to mourn their sad loss.

The roads are now in splendid shape, and in consequence a very great quantity of cordwood is being hauled into town.

It is rumored here in military circles that if Lt.-Col. Domville should accept retirement, that Major Montgomery Campbell will be appointed to the command of the 8th Hussars.

Rev. H. H. Noble, assisted by Mr. J. W. Britton, of Westfield, N. S., has during the present week been holding a series of special services at the F. C. B. church. Large congregations have been present, and much interest taken in the meetings.

Mr. Britton, who is an excellent singer, will conduct that branch of the services at the F. C. B. church on Sunday. Dr. J. J. Day was quite badly injured on Wednesday evening while playing hockey. He received a cut over the eye by being struck with the puck, which required several stitches.

Miss Minnie Rossman, daughter of Trackmaster Rossman of Moncton, is visiting Sussex, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert.

E. F. Robinson of the "Sussex Record" is confined to his home with quite a bad attack of La Grippe.

S. F. Nichols, of Montreal, who is a first class plumber and steam expert, arrived here last week with his family, who will join him shortly, will make Sussex his home. He is now in charge of Mr. H. H. Dryden's plumbing department.

NORTHUMBERLAND CHATHAM.

CHATHAM, Jan 23—At the annual meeting of the Royal Arcanum the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:—

Rev. W. Wilkinson, chaplain. John S. Benson, M. D., regent. W. E. Gould, secretary. Geo. Watt, treasurer. Wm. Wilson, collector. Wm. Green, pastor.

The general meeting of the Chatham parish S. S. Association met in the basement of St. Luke's church Thursday evening. Quite a large number were present, and the following interesting programme was carried out:—

Opening exercises—President. Minutes. Secretary-treasurer's report. Hymn. Application of lesson—Mr. D. P. McLachlan. Hymn. The International Star—Rev. G. Young. Hymn. Open Conference—What Discourages a Teacher, and How to Overcome It—Miss Wright. Closing exercises.

ST. JOHN. HARDINGVILLE.

HARDINGVILLE, Jan 21—T. S. Simms & Co.'s saw mill and factory are now in running order. Logs are being brought to the mill very rapidly. The manager has secured Mr. Harry McPhee as sawyer.

Mr. Alex. Handow has left here and gone to the United States. He was secretary of the Sunday school here and will be much missed.

WESTMORLAND. MONCTON.

MONCTON, Jan 25—Fifteen of the twenty large freight engines, ordered by the I. O. R. from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, have arrived here, and the other five are expected this week.

The city council has prepared estimates amounting to over $51,000 for 1899, compared with $45,000 last year.

John Nelson, champion professional skater of the world, gave an exhibition in Victoria rink tonight. He skated a mile in 2:43, breaking the rink record.

The Moncton curlers tonight decided to go to Fredericton while on their St. John trip.

MISS MAND KYLIE is visiting friends at Woodstock.

THE DEATH OF Mrs. Clayton, relict of the late Samuel Clayton and mother of the Rev. D. Manser, occurred at Mr. Amos Shields, St. Marys, on Sunday morning, January 22. Interment took place at the Baptist cemetery, Nashwaak Village, January 24.

THE ENTERTAINMENT, which was to have been held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, by the Women's Aid Association, was postponed on account of bad weather until Tuesday next, January 31st.

AT THE CLOSE of a vote of thanks was moved by W. I. Goodwin and seconded by E. D. Ward, a collection was taken for the purpose of securing furniture for the recently remodelled vestry.

INVITATIONS are out for a lecture to be given in the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL. KINGS COUNTY COUNCILLORS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION.

HALFINGTON STATION, Jan 24—The Kings county municipal council met in annual session at ten o'clock this morning, with a full body in attendance with the exception of Coun A. H. Upham, of Upham, and Coun G. Randall, of Springfield, who are out of the country.

Dr. Chas. McLean, of Norton Station, took a seat in the council in the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. B. Hatfield to the position of high sheriff.

Coun Jas. A. Moore was appointed chairman pending the election of a permanent chairman. The council proceeded with the usual routine of business.

The principal business transacted was appointments to fill some vacancies in the different committees.

By Coun F. Spry, seconded by Coun H. M. Campbell, was elected with the usual routine of business.

The report of the valuator of 1898 was laid on the table for future consideration.

The afternoon session opened with the finance committee in the lobby.

Moved by Coun Perry, seconded by Coun McLeod, that the auditor of the year 1898 be assessed for the sum of $426, and the auditor of 1899 be assessed for the sum of $426.

Coun H. J. Fowler read report of building committee; principal items being a new well dig and a set of pigeon holes for the use of secretary-treasurer.

Report adopted and carried.

Mrs. McKell, who was visiting her father, Mr. James Piquard, has returned to her home in St. John.

Mr. Daniel Babbitt left on Wednesday afternoon for a fortnight's visit to Boston.

Miss Mand Kylie is visiting friends at Woodstock.

THE DEATH OF Mrs. Clayton, relict of the late Samuel Clayton and mother of the Rev. D. Manser, occurred at Mr. Amos Shields, St. Marys, on Sunday morning, January 22. Interment took place at the Baptist cemetery, Nashwaak Village, January 24.

THE ENTERTAINMENT, which was to have been held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, by the Women's Aid Association, was postponed on account of bad weather until Tuesday next, January 31st.

AT THE CLOSE of a vote of thanks was moved by W. I. Goodwin and seconded by E. D. Ward, a collection was taken for the purpose of securing furniture for the recently remodelled vestry.

INVITATIONS are out for a lecture to be given in the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL. KINGS COUNTY COUNCILLORS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION.

HALFINGTON STATION, Jan 24—The Kings county municipal council met in annual session at ten o'clock this morning, with a full body in attendance with the exception of Coun A. H. Upham, of Upham, and Coun G. Randall, of Springfield, who are out of the country.

Dr. Chas. McLean, of Norton Station, took a seat in the council in the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. B. Hatfield to the position of high sheriff.

Coun Jas. A. Moore was appointed chairman pending the election of a permanent chairman. The council proceeded with the usual routine of business.

The principal business transacted was appointments to fill some vacancies in the different committees.

By Coun F. Spry, seconded by Coun H. M. Campbell, was elected with the usual routine of business.

The report of the valuator of 1898 was laid on the table for future consideration.

The afternoon session opened with the finance committee in the lobby.

Moved by Coun Perry, seconded by Coun McLeod, that the auditor of the year 1898 be assessed for the sum of $426, and the auditor of 1899 be assessed for the sum of $426.

Coun H. J. Fowler read report of building committee; principal items being a new well dig and a set of pigeon holes for the use of secretary-treasurer.

Report adopted and carried.

Mrs. McKell, who was visiting her father, Mr. James Piquard, has returned to her home in St. John.

Mr. Daniel Babbitt left on Wednesday afternoon for a fortnight's visit to Boston.

Miss Mand Kylie is visiting friends at Woodstock.

THE DEATH OF Mrs. Clayton, relict of the late Samuel Clayton and mother of the Rev. D. Manser, occurred at Mr. Amos Shields, St. Marys, on Sunday morning, January 22. Interment took place at the Baptist cemetery, Nashwaak Village, January 24.

THE ENTERTAINMENT, which was to have been held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, by the Women's Aid Association, was postponed on account of bad weather until Tuesday next, January 31st.

AT THE CLOSE of a vote of thanks was moved by W. I. Goodwin and seconded by E. D. Ward, a collection was taken for the purpose of securing furniture for the recently remodelled vestry.

INVITATIONS are out for a lecture to be given in the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL. KINGS COUNTY COUNCILLORS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION.

HALFINGTON STATION, Jan 24—The Kings county municipal council met in annual session at ten o'clock this morning, with a full body in attendance with the exception of Coun A. H. Upham, of Upham, and Coun G. Randall, of Springfield, who are out of the country.

Dr. Chas. McLean, of Norton Station, took a seat in the council in the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. B. Hatfield to the position of high sheriff.

Coun Jas. A. Moore was appointed chairman pending the election of a permanent chairman. The council proceeded with the usual routine of business.

The principal business transacted was appointments to fill some vacancies in the different committees.

By Coun F. Spry, seconded by Coun H. M. Campbell, was elected with the usual routine of business.

The report of the valuator of 1898 was laid on the table for future consideration.

The afternoon session opened with the finance committee in the lobby.

Moved by Coun Perry, seconded by Coun McLeod, that the auditor of the year 1898 be assessed for the sum of $426, and the auditor of 1899 be assessed for the sum of $426.

Coun H. J. Fowler read report of building committee; principal items being a new well dig and a set of pigeon holes for the use of secretary-treasurer.

Report adopted and carried.

Mrs. McKell, who was visiting her father, Mr. James Piquard, has returned to her home in St. John.

Mr. Daniel Babbitt left on Wednesday afternoon for a fortnight's visit to Boston.

Miss Mand Kylie is visiting friends at Woodstock.

THE DEATH OF Mrs. Clayton, relict of the late Samuel Clayton and mother of the Rev. D. Manser, occurred at Mr. Amos Shields, St. Marys, on Sunday morning, January 22. Interment took place at the Baptist cemetery, Nashwaak Village, January 24.

THE ENTERTAINMENT, which was to have been held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, by the Women's Aid Association, was postponed on account of bad weather until Tuesday next, January 31st.

AT THE CLOSE of a vote of thanks was moved by W. I. Goodwin and seconded by E. D. Ward, a collection was taken for the purpose of securing furniture for the recently remodelled vestry.

INVITATIONS are out for a lecture to be given in the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

THE SACKVILLE, Jan 25—Rev. J. L. Beattie, of Halifax, delivered his lecture entitled "From Halifax to Halifax via England" in the vestry of the Methodist church here last night. A good crowd was in attendance notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The speaker held his audience for nearly three hours, and cries of "go on" were heard when he intimated his intention of closing his remarks.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL. KINGS COUNTY COUNCILLORS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION.

HALFINGTON STATION, Jan 24—The Kings county municipal council met in annual session at ten o'clock this morning, with a full body in attendance with the exception of Coun A. H. Upham, of Upham, and Coun G. Randall, of Springfield, who are out of the country.

Dr. Chas. McLean, of Norton Station, took a seat in the council in the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. B. Hatfield to the position of high sheriff.

Coun Jas. A. Moore was appointed chairman pending the election of a permanent chairman. The council proceeded with the usual routine of business.

The principal business transacted was appointments to fill some vacancies in the different committees.

By Coun F. Spry, seconded by Coun H. M. Campbell, was elected with the usual routine of business.

The report of the valuator of 1898 was laid on the table for future consideration.

The afternoon session opened with the finance committee in the lobby.

Moved by Coun Perry, seconded by Coun McLeod, that the auditor of the year 1898