Paper Schedule Agreed to.

The paper schedule was agreed to, as amended by the finance committee with the exception of the paragraph on the wrapping paper, which was passed over at the suggestion of Senator Hughes in clarge of the schedule.

The sundries schedule was taken up, and the paragraphs on braids, brooms, brushes and buttons agreed to. Senator Bristow protested that the reduced duties on brooms was another discrimination against products in which the farmers were interested.

Senator Cummins protested against the reduced duties on the cheaper grades of buttons, claiming that the rates proposed would put the Iowa manufacturers out of business.

Smarter Than Men? It is admitted that a woman knows how to buy more for a dollar than a man does,

Let the average married man do the household shopping for a week and see how the cost of living will jump.

Women are more constant readers of advertising than men. Women read advertisements because they appeal to their innate sense of values. They take pride in get-ting the most for their money.

They like to shop—and before actually visiting the stores they read the newspapers to see what the stores have to offer. Yet mere man "throws out his hest" and prates of his superi-

During the afternoon Senator Ashurst delivered a general defense of the bill. He denied that it was a studied discrimination against the farming class.

An amendment to the foreign meat inspection clause was proposed to the finance committee today by the bureau of animal industry, which suggested the original clause providing that an inspection of foreign meat equal to the inspection of foreign meat equal to the inspection of American meat should be "sufficient." The amendment is designed to clarify the clause by providing that such foreign inspected meat shall enjoy the same rights and privileges as accorded American meats inspected under the inspection law of 1906.

London, Aug. 25—Rumors which have been current of a truce between the militant suffragettes and the British government seem to find support in a letter written today by Mrs. E. Pankhurst, the suffragettes leader, to her followers, advising them to take a holiday for the present She says:

"I am gathering up strength for a renewed battle when the holiday season is over. I hope that every one of you will also take advantage of the present lull in political sativity to take the rest and change you have all so trichy deserved."

So rapid was the progress in consideration of the free list that Democratic leaders were led to predict an early passage of the bill, insisting it would be ready for a vote by the middle of next week.

In the midst of this progress, however, that the sentence of death had to be sustained.

Sheriff R. B. H. Davidson received word this afternoon that all appeals had falled. The scaffold is being erected.

Watt is bearing up well and is gaining fesh. He does not appear to worry as the day of his death approaches.

Rev. E. H. Ramsay, Pushytarian minister, says that Watt is a converted man and is fully prepared to meet his God. No confession has yet been made. It is understood that no person, with the scaeption of the officials, will be present at the execution.

Prev raw wool was among the proposals in the free list, approved by the senate in committee of the whole, but this will come up again on substitutes officed in the senate proper. Free meat, cattle, sheep, swine and wheat were passed over at the request of Senator McCumber, of North Dakota.
