

THE
Seventh Annual Report
OF
ST. GEORGE'S
DISTRICT VISITING SOCIETY.

1847.

THE VISITERS of this Society, encouraged by the liberal support which it has hitherto received from a generous community, beg leave, at the opening of the New Year, to present his their Seventh Annual Report.

The amount received towards the relief of the Poor of this parish has not diminished, and it has been judiciously extended in the several Districts among the poor, the sick, and the needy.

The families have been visited, their wants and sorrows investigated, and such partial relief given, as the limited funds of the Institution would admit.

The Visitors in endeavouring to discharge the trust reposed in them, can, with pleasure state, that whilst they have been enabled to add a little to the comfort of others, and sympathize with them in the time of trial; their visits have generally been received with gratitude, and attended with many beneficial results. The population of the Parish is daily increasing, and
