Oxceton

VOL. XIII

W., JUNE 17, 1863. CARLETON PLACE,

No. 41

SABBATH READING.

Compensations. Let us be cheerful, Whatsoe'er betide Life is not all tearful, There's a sunny side. Vernal zephyrs banish Winter's frosts afar Midnight's spectres vanish

With the morning star. Every deep impression, With its chills and blights, Has a compensation. In the neighboring heights, Birds of plumage plainest Lift the sweetest song; Pangs that rack the keenest Seldom tarry long.

Oft the richest uses Come from humblest things. As the marsh produces Tribes of brilliant wings.
Larks at heaven's gate singing, Nestle in the corn; Mountains, proudly springing, Were in the valleys born.

Churn'd from ocean-chamber 'Mid the tempest's roar, See the precious amber Thrown upon the shore. So each stormy trial Yields us fruits of good Wisdom, self denial, Strength and fortitude.

Ravins once did cater, To Elijah's need; And a fish for Peter Tribute-money paid. There's a charming story, How the widow's cruise, Blessed by prophet hoary, Poured an overplus.

Sharper might have been Healing benedictions Mitigate the pain. See the Ark rise higher With the swelling flood, Ever drawing nigher To the Mount of God

'Tis a sight of beauty, When a noble heart Bravely does its duty, Though each fiber smart. Courage, faith, and patience, Principles divine, In the worst vexations, Like the rainbow shine.

A Promissory Note.

A lady having occasion to solicit the assistance for an aged couple, called, on their behalf, upon a wealthy neighbor with whom she had but little acquaintance. She had heard no very encouraging accounts of his liberality, for he was said to be one whose investments were made only upon good security. Nevertheless, as he was not at home upon her first call, she made a second visit, but with no better success. Not willing to be entirely disappointed, she mentioned the purport of her crrand to a member of the family, with the request that if he would contribute anything for this object he would send it to her residence. Several days elapsed, and she received no response to the application. Nothing daunted-the need was pressing-she resolved to call again. Recollecting the short sermon attributed to Dean Swift, she adopted a similar expedient. She wrote on a slip of paper

"He that hath pity on the poor, lendeth to the Lord; and that which he hath given will He pay him again. '-Proverbs xix, 17. ed, and the application was not acceptable. However, he very civilly invited the lady to walk in and be scated. The errand was soon told. An aged, respectable, honest, sober, industrious couple, by reason of their years, were really not able to earn a livelihood, and were crushed in spirit because they were not able to meet their last month's rent. The case was represented with all the earnestness which the speaker felt. But the tightly closed mouth, the eyes intently scanning nothing, as they looked out of the window, gave small promise of prepared this note, and if the security is not satisfactory to you, and you wish my name the note, and could not suppress a smile.

"But is this to be paid?" said he. "Oh!" replied she, "the time is not named; but if not paid sooner, it sure to be paid when all your other notes and your mortgages are of no value. If not repaid before, just when you are leaving them this comes to maturity. The drawer of that note never fails to keep note, and, handing it to her, remarked, "you are too much for me." He wished her to take back the "Promissory Note." declined, remarking that he might find it useful to refer to at some other time-N. Y.

Prayers for Donald Grant.

In the Highlands of Scotland punctuality at public worship is reckoned among the cardinal virtues. The people for genera-tions have been trained to reverence God's

Once in the season of barley harvest, when farm-help was scarce, Donald so overwrought himself on Saturday that his seat in the "ald kirk" was empty the next day.

He remained at home to recruit his powers as defeat, if only the right enemy evercomes shoulder in the firm, steadfast and unconscious as defeat, who had been rescued."

Next to victory, there is nothing so sweet: a time when every patriotic consideration quarter of a pound to kill a child in twenty. Who had been rescued."

Brazil now produces for exchange at the confidence of the world. It is a child in twenty. Who had been rescued."

Next to victory, there is nothing so sweet: a time when every patriotic consideration about the four hours. Plaster of Paris in that form as defeat, if only the right enemy evercomes shoulder in the firm, steadfast and unconstant the firm, steadfast and unconstant the firm and the firm wag in the parish, knowing Donald's besetting sin and fearing the effect of his example on others, resolved to nip the delinquency in the bud, and took the ease in his own

In the afternoon, when the pastor entered the pulpit, he found a note which was written: "The prayers of this church are requested for Donald Grant." The minister was taken by surprise, not having heard of his illness, but remembered, as also did the people, when the note was read, that his family pew was tenantless in the morning. After service, one asked another what ailed Donald Grant, but none could tell his neighbor; and all decided that some sudden illness had brought this request directly from the family.

The Sabbath passed, and Donald, refresh ed by many hours of sleep, and by the sweet breeze and the holy calm of his native hills, rose on Monday like a strong man to run a race. But scarcely had the sun begun to gem the dewy heather when, above the whetting of the sickle, he heard the stentorian voice of Sandy Graham, the village blacksmith:

"Hoot, mon, and are ye at it this early after the deathly illness of yesterday?"

It was in vain that Donald protested he had never been better. Sandy declared he was out of his head, and ought to be taken back to bed-he could see by the color of his face there was a high fever on him!

While he was yet speaking they were joined by Duncan M'Ivor and Malcolm Sterling, two large hearted neighbors, coming to sympathize in Donald's affliction, and to prefer their aid in reaping his barley; and before any explanation could be made of the puzzling matter, the loving old min-ister, staff in hand, had arrived with the

Donald persisted in saying he was never more hearty; when the pastor asked, "Why, theu, mou did ye forsake your seat in God's house, and implore the prayers of his people?"

"Aweel, aweel then," replied Donald in amazement, "I was awa' fra the kirk wi the aching o' my limbs fro' the week's work but I asked prayers o' no mon alive.' The joke was perceived, and the pastor reminded Donald that the man who absented himself from God's house for no better reason than his, ought to ask prayers if he

A Word to Mothers.

Each mother is a historian. She writes not the history of empires or of nations paper, but she writes her own history on the imperishable mind of her child. That tablet and that history will remain indelible en time shall be no more. That history coming ages of eternity. This thought should weigh on the mind of every mother, of training up her children for heaven and immortality.

The minds of children are very susceptible and easily impressed. A word, a look, a frown, may engrave an impression on the mind of a child which no lapse of time can characters, or write words, or names in the smooth, white sand, which is spread out so Not so the lines and characters of truth, or cold fingers erase, nor the slow moving ages of eternity obliterate. How careful, then, At this call the door was opened by the should each mother be of her treatment of gentleman in person. One look sufficed to her child. How prayerful, and how serious, show her that her message had been receiv- and how earnest to write the eternal truths shall be his guide and teacher when her voice shall be silent in death, and her lips no longer move in prayer in his behalf, in commending her dear child to her covenant

Sleep Overcomes all Men.

The most violent passion and excitement cannot keep even powerful minds from sleep.

Alexander the Great slept on the field of Arbela, and Napoleon upon that of Austerlitz. Even strips and torture cannot keep security, seemed rather to please him, for he would have considered the amount quite the night; and a sick miller, who had his mill stopped on that account, passed sleepless nights until the mill resumed its usual noise. Homer, in his Iliad, elegantly re-"Oh!" presents sleep as overcoming all men and hearts on the other side of Jordan. The should be policy also. It was named grasped a razor, and it was periodity rest of heaven will be the sweeter for the that it is a vexations thing for Reformers evident that he had murdered his wife and rest of neaven will be the sweeter for the vitative state of earth. The value of eternal rest to have to leave their farms and their busi- child, and then killed himself. The Cordebtor."

The Endless Rest.

This argument was irresistable. He took out from a well-filled portemonnaie a banknote, and, handing it to her remarked.

The value of eternal rest to have to leave their farms and their outs. The Corruptionists of time. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The Corruptionists of time. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The Corruptionists of time. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The Corruptionists of time. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The Corruptionists of time. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The condition tool. It is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave their farms and their outs. The corruption is a second to have the leave to leave the leave to leave the leave the leave to leave the leave to leave the leave to leave the leave to leave the leav house. His rest will be glorious. A rest from toil; a rest from sorrow. The very rest that Jesus himself enjoys. We shall rest not only with Him, but like Him—day and his house, so that it is considered not only wrong, but also disreputable, to lounge at home or to stroll over heathe and burn while others are honoring God in the sanctuary.

There lived in this region, some years since, an honest farmer, yelept Donald Giant. He was very wise for this world; and, while professing better things, he gave all his strength and energy to the six day's toil, so that when the Sabbath came he was uncliffed for the services of the sanctuary.

Happy is the man who has that in his soul which acts upon the dejected as April airs upon violent roots. Gifts from the hand are silver and gold, but the heart gives that which neither silver nor gold can buy. To be full of goodness, full of cheerfulness, full of sympathy, full of helpful hope, causes a man to carry blessings of which he is himself as unconscious as a lamp is of its own shining. Such an one moves on human life as stars move on dark seas to bewildered mariners: as the sun wheels, bringing all punctured with some blunt instrument like that of a bullet. The wound was probed and found to extend nearly through the thigh. Dr. Russell then inserted the forceps, and after some little difficulty, succeedceps, and after some little difficulty, succeeded in extracting a full-sized minnie rifle ball, trotted out on the day of election to carry with the cloth of the trowsers and drawers, the lukewarm or the backward to the polls. which had been driven in. On seeing the The Corruptionists tell us that they will ball, Mr. Woods at once exclaimed that he win eight or nine counties from us before ball, Mr. woods at once exclaimed that he had been shot by the sentry, but was unable to account for it, as neither he nor the to the party if they get a single one.—

the nead. As every garment is labelled corresponding with its proportionate size to the party if they get a single one.—

the nead. As every garment is labelled corresponding with its proportionate size to the party if they get a single one. sergeant with whom he was talking, nor any Globe. other person on the Esplanade at the time heard any report. Dr. Russell and Mr. McNider, of the building society, went to the guard-house, related the circumstance to the sergeant of the guard, and showed him the bail. The sentry's pouch was examined and found all right, and his rifle had no appearance of being recently dis-charged. The ball is supposed to have the Beauport been fired by some one on flats, or at Point Levi, and was nearly spent when it struck Mr. Woods' leg. Had it been fired from the distance where the sentry was standing, it must have killed him instantly; as it was Mr. Woods had a narrow escape, for the ball grazed one of the main arteries of the leg, which if severed, he would have bled to death in a few min utes. His escape is not less miraculous than the cause of his wound is singular and strange. Dr. Russell does not consider the wound dangerous. He has the ball in his possession.—Quebec Chronicle.

Ready, Aye Ready!

It is quite evident now that the Corrupthe tactics shadowed forth by their organ a few days ago, of nominating men to contest constituencies which, if the Reform votes be any sensible man who has had a taste of it, fully polled, they cannot by any possibility win. Had they abstained from putting with me. Ladies spoil their lovers by tanshould weigh on the mind of every mount and and render her deeply circumspect, and prayerful, and faithful in her solemn work prayerful, and faithful in her solemn work forward candidates in those counties where talizing them." their partizans are in a minority, a majority of Keformers from Upper Canada would have been elected to Parliament by acclamation. In pursuing the contrary course their object is evident. It is not only that mortal, unprepared into the presence of his efface or wash out. You walk along the sea shore when the tide is out, and you form half the constituencies of this section of the Province. Neither is it because they deas your fancy may dictate; but the returning tide shall in a few hours wash out and ing tide shall in a few hours wash out and efface forever all that you have written. somewhere, in one or two constituencies, fortune will favor them, and that they will pressions for the everlasting good or ill of your child, which neither the floods nor the storms of the coath can make the storms of the coath can make the coath can your child, which neither the floods nor the storms of the earth can wash out, Death's small mercies—for the desperate exertions after by Coroner Patterson, gave evidence they are now putting forth; and Reformers to the effect that death was instantaneous to tell the truth, will feel no small amount after the fall. The jury returned a verchance, unless the supporters of the government are over confident. We would remind of God on his mind—those truths which Reformers of the often repeated truth, that arises from despising an enemy. If we look at some of those constituencies which we know we can win if we try, we shall find strong vote therein, and we may depend upon it, if they see the least remissness upon our side, that they will take advantage of it success. However, one more effort—she drew out the "promissory note." "Mr. C., I off sleep, as criminals have been known to forward are weak in themselves, that they rather faster than was pleasant, the momentum of the momentum of the same track, both nearing each other forward are weak in themselves, that they rather faster than was pleasant, the momentum of the same track, both nearing each other forward are weak in themselves, that they rather faster than was pleasant, the momentum of the same track, both nearing each other forward are weak in themselves. out the "promissory note." Mr. C., I on sleep, as criminals flats been and forward are weak in themselves, that they only wish a borrow this money. I have give way to it on the rack. Noises, which at first serve to drive it away, soon become indispensable to its existence, thus a stage coach stopping to change horses, wakes all upon it, I will give it to you with pleasure."
Thus saying, she gravely rose, and laid the passengers. The proprietor of an iron the passengers on the table before him. The idea of loaning the money, and upon the lady's loaning the money, and upon the lady's there was any interruption to them during there was any interruption to them during the most part, would not hesitate to vote for the loaning the money its face if that nose would count one in a division. We that in all those constituencies where the anything with a nose upon its face. if that may, therefore count upon it as a certainty Corruptionists have set up a man, no matwhole party vote will be polled in his behalf. rest that Jesus himself relyty.

Thanks be unto God for the rest we now enjoy! Ten thousand thanks to God for the rest we shall enjoy with Christ! Wearied one, look away from the cause of thy present one, look away from the cause of thy present suffering, and remember there is a rest remaining for thee. A little while and thou shalt enter into rest.

Happy is the man who has that in his soul which acts upon the dejected as April withia our reach. It requires, now, only that we be as resolute and determined as dence, returned a verdict of "Wilful murwe have been in the past, that no stone be der" against the prisoner. oft unturned, that naught that men may do shall remain undone, and complete sucnadian allies, new and old, we shall be able Roman Ladies.

A writer on this subject remarks : -"The woman of Rome know nothing of those restraints which delicacy, modesty and virtue imposes upon the sex in Northern Europe A Roman lady who takes a liking to a for eigner, does not cast her eves down when he looks at her, but fixes them upon him long and with evident pleasure; nay, she gazes at him alone whenever she meets in company, at church, at the theatre or in She will sav. without ceremony to a friend of the young man's, 'Tell that gentleman I like him.' If the man of her choice feels the like sentiment, and asks, 'Are you fond of me?' she replies with the utmost frankness, 'Yes, dear.' The happy medium between American and Roman courtship appears to us the best. We hate excessive coyness, but do not like too much familiarity." We have heard an anxious lover, whose charmer, well pleased with witnessing the evidence of her power, was bent on keeping him upon the rack of unanything rather than the coquetry that second nature to American belles. "Ask

Fatal Accident. It is our painful duty to chroniele the fol-lowing sad accident, which has sent a fellow

At about 4 o'alock, p. m., on Tuesday last, a carpenter, named Robert Cody, who was employed on the new Hospital, at the Nunnery, now in course of completion, accidentally lost his balance, while on the top of the wall, and fell headlong, a distance of about fifty feet to the ground, fracturing his skull and otherwise seriously bruising his body. He was killed immediately. Dr. of chagrin at their success. They have no dict of "accidental death." The deceased was a sober industrious man, and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his untimely death .- Ottawa Union. An old lady, a resident of Providence who had never ridden in the cars, was per suaded by the combined efforts of her chilthat the corruptionists have nevertheless a dren. James and Mary, to accompany them on an excursion, she all the time saying ters little that the men the enemy has put on the same track, both nearing each other are well organized. It is ready to survey and knees, and, looking back, asked, "Jeems do they allus stop like that ?"

This morning one of the members of the family of Wm. Steele, of East Hartford, on on the floor with his throat cut, There are no weary needs or weary should be polled also. We well understand hand grasped a razor, and it was perfectly color left out.—Chatham Paper.

LAW OF PLEASURE. -The law of pleado shall remain undere, and complete success will be ours. We shall route the Corruptionists—horse, foot and artillery. They will be kept without a corporal's guard in the House, and with the aid of Lower Carrotte that the one almost immediately forgets having given and the other remembers eternally having received.

to carry out many of those reforms which we have so long sought in vain, and which the country so much needs. If ever there was measure in inches round the breast and present no unfavorable symptoms have apwaist; for trowsers the measure of waist: peared, and should none arise, he will waist; for trowsers the measure of waist: and for shakos, the number of inches round speedily recover .- Globe, the head. As every garment is labelled the tailor personally before hand. Every article is made of superior material—the cloth of which the tunics are made being equal to that worn by sergeants of the line. The trowsering stuff, all manufactured in Canada—at Chambly, Coburg and Streetsville—is of excellent quality. By the steamships Norwegian, Bohemian North American and Jura have been received 327 the wedded pair. There were in the room bales tunics, 381 cases shakes, 10 cases bustool, one plate, one spoon, a unity of bies and 50 cases containing officers' outfits. all the requisites, and the solitary bed was passing as currency at five cents each in the bies and 50 cases containing officers outlits.

all the requisites, and the solutions of North Carolina, remarks:—

The swords were manufactured in Birm of such dimensions that, if they chose to upper parts of North Carolina, remarks:—

"We have no such metallic basis for our curingham, and finished and imposed in London. On one side of the blade the embasedon. On one side of the blade the embaseing shows the letters "V. R." surmounted by the crown; on the other the words "Ca-treatise on the duties of husbands and wives nada Militia," for infantry, and "Canada toward each other. No visitor was permitt-Rifles," for rifle companies. Pouch belts, ed to go near them; and they had only a were manufactured in London. The design on the breast plate is a semiin gilt; on the shake plates a beaver in were excellent friends in a few days; and the centre in gilt, on a bright ground sur- very few could stand out for more than a certainty as to the extent of her affection for him, say, that to him this Roman frankness would be enchanting—he would have ingham, and bear the design of a wreath scarlet, resting upon a- silver ornament. The shakos and busbies were made in London, the tunies in Limirick (Ireland), but manufactured in Leeds (England.)

> child some eight months old was found dead inion that the babe had come to its death by being "overlaid by a cat, and its breath d-awn away by that animal." A little girl it appears, saw the cat on the child's breast,

A RIVER OF OIL .- We were not a little interrested to observe last Friday in the interrested to observe last Friday in Wallaceburg, that the Sydenham river was literally flowing with oil from Enniskillen oil wells. For days it has flowed down from that region, often to the depth of two inches upon the surface of the water. The oil besmears everything in the stream, and renders the water unfit for any use whatever. The only redeeming feature in the ever. The only redeeming feature in the region and varied hues with the stream and the surface of the water. The great mass of men laborers who were the surface of the water unfit for any use whatever. The only redeeming feature in the righ and varied hues with going to his room, found his chamber deluged with blood, and Mr. Steele lying dead which the river is colored. The rainbow in occurrence in the rich and varied hues with making off to the States, the writer fancied His all its beauty never gave forth more vividly ter how small his personal claims are; their wife was in the bed with her throat cut the primary colors than you will see there from ear to ear, and an infant six months on the water. The people, however, think and in order effectually to beat him, it is necessary that the whole of our party vote dead, but the child was still warm. Steele's They would choose to have the

A woman up in Vermont has been bound over for trial on a charge of spreading the small pox. She sent her children to school while afficted with the disease.

A WIDOWS USE OF THUNDER, Every time a thunder storm came on she miscular Case—A Man Shot on the support of the Esplanade Yesterday.

Missignated A Westerday with a sergent of one of the benches and the support of the Esplanade yesterday in the ramparts of the Esplanade yesterday in the support of the Es

MATRIMONIAL DISPUTES IN SWITZER-LAND .- In Berne they have a novel mode of dealing with matrimonial disputants. Divorces were freely granted, says Bishop Horne, but first the applicant had to go through a curious test. A small room was prepared, in which husband and wife were put—the door being then closed, to remain so for six weeks, except it should be set in North motion at the argent and united request of silver plated and shako plates for officers, junitor as he pushed their food through a hole in the door. The bishop states that the test was attended with the most wholepircle of maple leaves encircling the beaver some results. In most cases the parties rounded by a circle in gilt, with the words fortnight. Another very gratifying circum-

SOLDIER KILLED ON THE PLAINS .of maple leaves encircling the beaver. A soldier of the 17th regiment, named Rich-The tuft shako ball for officers of infantry is ardson, was absent at roll call tast night, of worsted two thirds white and one third and a picket was sent in search of him; but their endeavors to ascertain his whereabouts were unsuccessful, until some time don, the tunics in Limitick (Ireland), but this forenoon, when, in securing the bush, the cloth for the tunics and shakes were which is infested by a gang of lawless, disnied him to the field. As soon as he saw sipated, debauched men and women, they discovered his cold and lifeless body. The DEATH FROM A CAT.—A very curious medical gentleman, after a minute examin- sportsman, radignant at the absurdity of the case recently was brought to the notice of ation of the corpse, declared that death had professor, told him of it in very plain terms.

Coroner Ranney in New York. A young been caused by strangulation. No clue can "My good friend." exclaimed the doctor in at present be obtained as to the perpetrators great astonishment, "who would have im by its mother, a Mrs. Kleinhem, it was of the crime. We hope that our police will apparently well and hearty when put to sleep a few hours before. The Coroner's jury, after hearing testiment, gave it as their opacters .- Quebec Go zette.

EMIGRATION.—The Montreal Transcript says :- "We have seen a letter addressed to Hall. with its nose to its mouth. She drove it the Emigration Agent here, dated Cork, off, but it is presumed the beast again re- May 9. The news of the loss of the Anglo turned, and remained until life was extinct. Saxon had then reached, and had created a Sudden Death.—Yesterday a little be Sudden Death.—Yesterday a little bethis fresh disaster will be a heavy blow to fore noon the inhabitants of our village and the line, and will injure the route very much. gether.—Nashville Union, neighborhood were painfuly startled by the The Inman steamer took out 590 emigrants neighborhood were painfuly startled by the report of the sudden demise of our esteemed and respected townsman, the Rev. Elisha Landon. Mr. Landon appeared in his usual health, and about 11 o'clock was out hoeing in the garden, when suddenly seized with appeared to the suddenly seized to have the suddenly seiz with appoplexy and dropped down dead.
Such an unlooked for event has created a deep impression, and every one feels as if a and post to their last man. In such as event it requires but a few Reformers here and there in a township to stay away on the polling days to loose the Riding. It material round a curve the Boston express train was round a curve the Boston much rather that the people would come here than go to the United States. But when such facilities were given and such inducements held out by the American Government, the writer feared that Canada

Canada was better without, and a great many were leaving, with feelings anything but well-disposed toward the Queen's Gov-

The Polish struggle still loses none of its intensity, and though a lull in the public expectancy of intervention was at first created by the publication of the notes of the Wesed by the publication of the notes of the Western powers, the old feeling of insecurity and the conviction that Europe will become involved on account of Poland is gaining ground. The dreadful atrocities which the Muscovite soldiers are perpetrating upon the Poles who fall into their hands, as well as would run into Mr. Smith's (he was a widower,) and clasp her little hands and fly around till the man was half distracted for fear she would be killed, and the consequence was that she was Mrs. John Smith before three thunder storms rattled over her head.

Miss Lovely says that males are of no no. on Wednessen had struck ight of two ug the ovilifful murof pleasother is Gregets makers makers and on the limit of the kind in America, and supplied for the kind for th farm at Chatsworth, the buildings and machinery for which will be in readiness the coming season. The contractors will employ 1,500 acres in the cultivation of the beet-root.

Don't put your watch under your pillow a man should never 'sleep upon his watch. HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN .--Cotton, but recently vaunted by the South as the king of commerce, is now called by the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, an "idle pro duct.

The Lynchburg Virginian commenting upon the statement that tenpenny nails are grains of corn representing five cents and quids of tobacco co-representing the decimal. The Richmond Enquirer says :-- "Our tables, our clothes, our very liberties, must be put on a war footing in all things." Another turn of the screw on the South ONE OF THE FATHERS.—There is now a Cincinnati a German aged, seventy-one years, who is the father of twenty children. the youngest being but six months old. He has now seven sons in the Federal army.

Why, Tommy, dear, where did you get "I heard you say when papa died," he replied, "that now he has gone we must look above when we wanted anything, so I went up and got this slate off the roof. I wish I had a frame for it.

A university doctor desiring to see a bird "My good friend," exclaimed the doctor, in agined that those ignorant birds would have

In Toronto on Monday an elderly man named C. J. Bernott, who resides at Owen Sound, was relieved of his pocketbook, containing some $654, while on a small "sprce" in the vicinity of the City

The Richmond Whig sarcastically says that Bragg has been "installing Governors

A few days since a town crier took in PRAISE AND ABUSE.—Public applause is ever jealous of its own verdict, and thus the men who have been most abused have been generally those who have been most praised Living is cheep in Japan. You can buy a first class house for thirty dollars; hire a servant for fifty cents a month, and live comfortably for two cents a day, or fourteen cents a week. What a country for young

(once the sole proprietress of a taffy shop,)
—Yes, as yez say, I find that this fashionable life comes purty hard on us foulks as has niver bin used to it, at-all-at-all, and

I long for a good old-fashioned dish of pork and beans, so I does. It is not known how useful the art of photography has been in the production of cheap and perfectly accurate fac similes of documents, and how easily they are reduced to microscopic dimensions, so that the giant sheet of the London Times has been photographed upon a piece of paper but one eighth of an inch square—and even then each letter is perfectly legible under the microscope. An Irishman in describing America, said "I am told that ye might roll England thru it an' it wouldn't make a dint in the ground;

cre sett, ao froi bad vossall.