RADIO STATION WLWL

The Paulist League, 425 West 59th St., New York.

The Paulist League has just com-pleted the best radio station that can be built today, at a cost slightly below one hundred thousand dollars.

It is equal in every respect to the best station in the country. As to quality it has no superior; as to power it is one of twenty stations in the United States that can use five thousand watte. It will broadcast thousand watts. It will broadcast on a wave length of 288.3 meters. On Thursday, September 24th, at 8.80 p. m., the station opened with an address by His Eminence, Cardinal Patrick Hayes. Programs will follow regularly. As an in-dication of what station WLWL proposes to do we are enclosing an outline of the program that will be followed for the next few months.

South since the formation of the Free State. Industrial depression in the North is acute. The Belfast Minister for Finance says "the position as we see it today could hardly be worse" in the Six Counties. The two main industries, the linen trade and ship-building, are suffering greatly. It is reported that the North has about lost all its market for linen in the is reported that the North has about lost all its market for linen in the United States, and that it is unlikely to recover it. The present depression in shipbuilding has never been equalled. The enormous yards on Belfast Lough have been working on short time for two years.

You can't help enjoying this new Picture Pazzle. Let's all join in and have a jolly good time. No matter what your age is or iss', if you like to solve puzzles, try your hand at this one-It is different to any you have tried before. It is really not a puzzle at all, for all the objects have been made perfectly plain, with no attempt to disguise or hide them; mone are so small but the poorest eyesight can see them. Get a penell and paper and see how many "T-Words" you can find. Doesn't make any difference whether you are six or sixty years old. Here is a chance to study and "brush up" a little, just different. Yes, all join in-old folks, middle age and young rolks. See who can find the most "T-Words." You'll have bar-rels of fun finding "T-Words."
