

9. All persons included in the prohibition of this Act shall upon arrival in Canada be sent back to the country whence they came. Returning immigrants to country of origin.

10. The Attorney General of Canada shall make regulations for the return of the aforesaid persons to the country whence they came, and shall furnish instructions to the commission, board, or persons charged with the execution of the provisions of this Act, as to the time of procedure in respect thereto. Regulations therefor.

11. The expenses of the aforesaid person not permitted to land, shall be borne by the owners of the vessel in which he came, and any vessel, the owners of which refuse to pay such expenses, shall not thereafter be permitted to enter or clear from any port in Canada; and such expenses shall be a lien on such vessel. Expenses.

12. The Attorney General of Canada, when he is satisfied that an immigrant has been allowed to land contrary to the prohibition of this Act, shall cause such immigrant, within one year after his landing, to be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, at the expense of the owner of the importing vessel, or, if he entered from an adjoining country, at the expense of the person previously contracting for his services. Duty of Attorney General as to returning immigrants.

13. It shall be deemed a violation of this Act to assist or encourage the importation or immigration of any alien, by promise of employment through advertisements printed or published in any foreign country; and any alien coming into Canada in consequence of any such advertisement shall be treated as coming under a contract, as contemplated by this Act, and the penalties hereby enacted shall be applicable in such case. Advertisements in foreign country.

14. Any person who brings into or lands in Canada, by vessel or otherwise, or who aids in bringing into or landing in Canada any alien not lawfully entitled to come into Canada, shall be guilty of an indictable offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty for importation of aliens.

15. All aliens unlawfully coming into Canada, shall, if practicable, be immediately sent back on the vessel by which they were brought in. The cost of their maintenance while on land, as well as the expense of the return of such aliens, shall be borne by the owner of the vessel; and if the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel refuses or neglects to return them to the port whence they came, or to pay the cost of their maintenance while on land, he shall be guilty of an indictable offence, and shall be liable to a fine of not less than three hundred dollars for each offence, and such vessel shall not be allowed to clear from any port in Canada while any such fine is unpaid. Duty of owner, etc., of vessel. Penalty.