Regulations
as to Students
now matriculated.

XXVI. The said Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Fellows, may make such special regulations as to them shall seem just, with regard to the examination of Students who have matriculated in the said University before the passing of this Act, and with regard to the completion by them of the prescribed course of instruction, but in so far only as relates to the first Degree to be taken by any such Student after the passing of this Act, after which they shall be subject to the same regulations as other candidates. 5 10

One Degree
in Divinity
may be granted to Students who might obtain it under 12 Vict.
c. 82.

XXVII. The said Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Fellows may grant one Degree in Divinity to any person who without this Act would, under the Act first mentioned, have been entitled to obtain such Degree, and may make such regulations as to them shall seem just with regard to the examination of such persons and the conditions upon which such Degrees shall be obtained; but no other Degree in Divinity shall be conferred by the said University. 15 20

otherwise
ordered.

XXVIII. Until it shall be otherwise ordered by the said Chancellor, Vice Chancellor and Fellows, the present Professors and Lecturers of the said University, shall, upon the passing of this Act, and by virtue thereof be respectively Examiners in the same branches of knowledge in which they are now such Professors and Lecturers, and with the same salaries as they now enjoy and the other officers and servants of the said University shall in like manner continue to hold their offices, salaries and emoluments until it be otherwise ordered as aforesaid. 25 30

They may be required to give instruction to Students now
matriculated.

XXIX. The said Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Fellows, may authorise and require any of the Examiners to give instruction and lectures to the Students now matriculated in the said University, during such time as may, in the opinion of the said Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Fellows, be requisite to afford to such students a fair opportunity of taking one degree after the passing of this Act; but no such Examiner being now a Professor or Lecturer in the said University, shall receive for such instruction or lectures any allowance beyond his present salary. 35 40

Affairs of the University to be economically
administered.

XXX. The said Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Fellows shall regulate the expenses of the said University with as strict a regard to economy as may be consistent with its thorough efficiency, and shall endeavour so to fix the salaries and allowances of the Examiners and Officers hereafter to be appointed, as that the same may be respectively fairly proportioned to the extent and 50
