

By-laws of the Corporation how to be made and for what purposes.

IV. And be it enacted, That any majority of the members of the said Corporation, at any meeting thereof held or called in accordance to the By-laws of the Corporation then in force, shall have full power and authority to make all such By-laws for the government of the Corporation, the management of its affairs, the admission of new members, the meetings of the Society or of its Directors or Officers, the fixing of the annual or monthly or other contributions to be paid by members, the election or appointment of Managers, and a Secretary, Treasurer and other Officers, and defining their powers, and for the guidance and conduct of such Managers, and Officers and of the members of the Society, for establishing the conditions on which any person shall remain a member, and for regulating the relief which Members shall receive in sickness, old age, or infirmity, and generally all such By-laws as may be requisite for the well-working and efficiency of the said Corporation for all lawful purposes for which the said Association was instituted; Provided that such By-laws shall not bind others than members of the Society, and shall not impose for any contravention a higher penalty than 5
