phonebook has 'nice cover'

The continuing saga of the missing phonebook has been terminated. The Student Directories are now available in the main hall of SUB.

You haven't forgotten about your Student Directory, have you: Word is out that it is on its way.

First year Law students, don't expect your pictures in the phonebook. Medical students have a possibility of being in it though. Due to various faculty mixups in some cases a whole group of pictures is missing.

John Mason, phonebook editor, describes the operation this year as "screwed", in that it was messed up before he had a chance to rectify it. The photographers gave him the pictures with such varying margin sizes that $2000 worth of labour went into cutting and pasting.

Even though from one-quarter to a third of the pictures are missing, the names, addresses, and phone numbers will be there (if we're lucky). And Mason says that if nothing else, "We'll have a nice cover."

ARE YOU A UNITARIAN WITHOUT KNOWING IT?

FREE COURSE IN UNITARIANISM MAY ANSWER THAT QUESTION.

In a questioning society many of us wonder about the "eternal verities". Does that church down the street have all the answers? Does dogma and creed end the matter of religious belief? UNITARIANS don't think so! UNITARIANS still are searching for answers to the whys and wherefores of life. If you'd like to find out how we search, join us in a three-session course on Modern Unitarianism, led by R.W. Brownlie, B.S., M.Div., beginning MONDAY November 20 at 7:30 p.m. UNITARIAN CHURCH OF EDMONTON, 12530 - 110th Avenue. Call 454-8073, 9 a.m. to noon to register.
