Berlin, Nov. 5. 1908.

Dear Mr. King;

I received your most welcome reply today, and was pleased to learn that you appreciated my good wishes, and will grant my request to send me your portrait, which I will accept with gratitude and will hold as a treasure.

It is my heart's fondest wish that you will be bless'd with good health, to be able to fulfill all the duties of your honourable
