Ottawa, August 17th, 1926.

Dear Mr. Meighen,

I got your wire on Sunday, re: the constitutional articles in the Handbook, but Senator Robertson did not return to the city until today.

One hundred thousand copies of the clauses in the Handbook dealing with the Constitutional question have been reproduced and are now being distributed. If you think a wider distribution should be arranged for, perhaps you would wire me on receipt of this.

Senator Robertson will be out of town from Thursday, for two or three days.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.

The Rt. Honourable Arthur Meighen,
c/o Mr. F.R. MacMillan,
Saskatoon,
Sask.
