

Col. may have been there, I am going to suggest that Crouch says there was a driver. What would you say about that?

A.134 I wouldn't deny it.

Q.135 You think it was a W.D. vehicle?

A.135 It was, definitely.

Q.136 Would you deny that Col. Corbett was in the car at that time?

A.136 I wouldn't deny it.

Q.137 You say that you had originally intended to go to Haxted House that morning?

A.137 Yes.

Q.138 You stopped at Haxted House that morning?

A.138 Yes.

Q.139 Why did you stop if you had made up your mind not to go in?

A.139 We hadn't decided.

Q.140 When you were in Orchard House did you determined to go to Haxted House?

A.140 We made no definite decision.

Q.141 What prompted you to stop at Haxted House?

A.141 I don't know.

Q.142 The point is, you were going to London. Was the decision made after you had come from Edenbridge?

A.142 No, we made the suggestion at Haxted House on Christmas morning.

Q.143 When did you pick up the batman?

A.143 After we came back to the Mess.

Q.144 It was sworn by Mr. Corbett that the batman was picked up on the way to Edenbridge?

A.144 I don't think so.

Q.145 Do you remember a conversation that occurred in the Mess the night before that you may have had with any of the officers to the effect that you girls were free over Christmas?

A.145 I remember saying we were free after parade on Christmas morning.

Q.146 If you had to get back at ten o'clock why didn't you go direct to Haxted House because you did not arrive back at the Mess the second time until around ten o'clock. What time did you usually have to be back during the week?

A.146 9:30

Q.147 Why until ten o'clock that particular night?

A.147 Because it was Christmas Eve.

Q.148 As I remember the evidence yesterday, Miss Crouch was marked absent from 11:45. You say that you were given only a slight
