

- Q. Did you speak to him?
A. No sir. I just walked into the guard room.
- Q. Do you know the name of your escort?
A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know the name of the Sgt of the guard?
A. I don't remember, sir. He was in the Essex Scottish, I think.

FIFTH WITNESS D-76466 S/Sgt Miller NL, SIS, Cdn Provost
PROSECUTION Corps, CMHQ, having been recalled and still under oath, is examined by the Judge Advocate:

- Q. Where were you in the morning of the 10th when you saw Stanley coming from the CO's Office?
A. In my car.
- Q. How close did Stanley pass from you?
A. From here to the wall.
- Q. Who was the escort?
A. I don't know who he was, sir.
- Q. Do you know who the guard Sgt was that day?
A. No sir.
- Q. Did you take him over to the Office yourself?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. In the car?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. What was the first thing you did in the office?
A. We came in and Mr. Painting was there.
- Q. Do you remember offering him a chocolate bar?
A. No sir.
- Q. Did you offer him a cigarette?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. You offered him nothing else?
A. No sir.
- Q. In fairness to you, Staff, Stanley says that what happened was this. You put this paper in the machine. You typed in paras 1, 2 and 3 before you said anything to him at all and as a result of what he said to you you added the 4th para which was then added in?
A. No sir. It is just as he gave it to me.

President of the Court

In considering the objection which has been made by the Defending Officer the Court has considered it necessary to require the evidence of another witness, the escort who took Stanley from the CO's office to the Guard Room. We are trying to get the escort who had the accused that
