

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Dublin. By twenty-three votes to three the Dublin Corporation have rejected a motion to present the Queen with a congratulatory Jubilee address.

The Rev. Thomas O'Dwyer, P. P., Ennis, died on March 15th. The deceased was a man of large experience and ripe age of eighty-two years, of which fifty-four were spent in the sacred ministry.

On March 10th, a deputation of the parishioners of Avoca, county Wicklow, waited on the Rev. William Dunphy, P. P., Naui, county Dublin, and presented him with a farewell address consequent on his leaving the parish of Avoca to take charge of the parish of Naui, after a residence in the former of over 16 years.

It is said the "honor" of knighthood is about to be conferred on Alderman Scott, J. P., of Cork. Mr. Justice Johnson, in his address to the Grand Jury of the County of Cork, on March 14th, commented favorably upon the general freedom from serious crime of the largest county in Ireland.

The Rev. Rev. Canon Walsh, P. P., Co. Wick, died on March 14th, in the seventy-third year of his age. Mr. Clancy, Sub-Sheriff of Dublin, has sent Father Keller a cheque for £10 for the family of Hanlon, who was banished to death by the police.

On Sunday, March 13th, in Tipperary town, Mr. John Dillon, M. P., addressed a large assembly of the members of the Premier County and the County Limerick on the subject of the imminent coercion and the benefits which the landlords are likely to derive therefrom.

The Rev. Michael Kelly, C. C., of Ballinacorney, died on March 14th. Father Kelly was for many years curate of Ballinacorney and the neighboring parish of Nationalist, and was an ardent Nationalist in politics.

On March 13th, at a meeting of the tenants on the Hillas estate, the "Plan of Campaign" was adopted. Father O'Connell, P. P., presided. The Rev. Chairman, in addressing the tenants, referred to the callous indifference of the landlords and hesitating to go far back as 1850 for a reduction of rents.

The ring of the genuine metal was in the speeches uttered, and the resolutions passed at the monthly meeting of the Protestant Home Rule Association, held in Dublin on March 14th.

example of this corporation was got up in the House of Lords to displace the Limerick men; but they kept on averring. Now we see that Sir Robert Buller has, at the dictation of the excellent Castlereagh, written them a polite letter in reference to their demand for a proper representation on the board of governors, in which he states that the Castle has at present "the question of the attendance of governors of all district lunatic asylums in Ireland under consideration," and that the claim of the Limerick Corporation will be very carefully looked into.

It was a pleasing spectacle on St. Patrick's morning, to see the Catholic soldiers of the Leinster Regiment marching to Mass to the Dominican Church, Limerick, headed by their band—brass and reed. They were many hundreds strong, and marched in most harmonious measure to the music. On their return from Divine Service, the bands played national airs.

The new Sub-sheriff for the County Clare (Mr. J. MacMahon) made his first seizure of cattle a few days ago, when he took possession of a very large number of cattle, which were driven to the "pound," at Ennis. The next day it was found that he had seized cattle belonging to another person, who threatened him with an action if he did not return them immediately.

Sir Charles Lewis tried to look on indifferently over his glasses at the Irish Party vigorously applauding his political rival, in Derry, on St. Patrick's Day. The Nationalist procession was attacked in a cowardly manner. The police allowed a crowd of the Orange party to assemble at the corner of Fountain street, and this party kept waving emblems at the processionists as they passed.

The village of Iriahstown, the birth place of the Land League, was on March 17, the scene of a great demonstration held to emphasize local indignation at the action of Mr. E. J. Daly, solicitor, Ballinrobe, who evicted ten of his tenants in that townland.

Lord Oranmore, has, uncollected, not only given his tenants an abatement of 20 per cent on their judicial rents, but has given them seed potatoes wherewith to crop their lands.
