

THE FARM AND THE HOUSE.

EPIZOOTIC IN HORSES.

This disease is that which swept over the entire country and proved so serious in the fall, though probably in a milder form. Nearly all the horses of this and other cities are affected with it already, and it is certain to spread to the country very soon.

A writer in the Ohio Farmer advises the simplest treatment possible. Keep the horses in a warm, comfortable, clean, and well ventilated stable, blanketed in wet, cold weather; feed well with oats and sweet hay (corn is too heating), with a good bran mash once a day; the only medicine needed is to thoroughly rub the throat with some good liniment if it should become much swollen, and be very careful not to let them take cold.

The aim should be to keep the horse in as strong heart as possible, and Nature will soon work out the disease. The usual term of this distressing and destructive malady is from twelve to twenty days.

USEFUL RECIPES FOR THE SHOP THE HOUSEHOLD AND THE FARM.

Varnish brushes should never be allowed to touch water, as it not only injures the elasticity of the hair, but a resinous substance is formed in the hilt of the brush, which can never be thoroughly removed, and which will work out little by little when the brush is used, destroying the glassy surface which otherwise might be obtained.

Paint intended for outside work, which will not be protected by varnish, is mixed as follows: Crush the color if in lumps, and mix to a stiff paste with linseed oil, boiled or raw—the latter is preferable; then, if a dark color, add brown Japan or gold size, in the proportion of half pint to a gallon of oil; in a light color, use patent dryer in similar quantities.

A large stick of cypress timber will rot off cypress tenons, or tenons of any other kind of timber (if put together when the cypress is green), if kept under shelter. Cypress will dry rot itself, if over 15 or 18 inches square; and green oak of any kind 12 inches square, will rot a pin 1 1/2 inch pin of the same wood, or a dry of any other wood, if dry, and driven tight to exclude all air.

Horses will work much more easily, and lose less of their effective force, by working abreast, than when they are placed in single file. If four horses are to draw a load in one wagon, it is better to have a long double whiffletree, with a span of horses on each side of the tongue, than to have one span placed before the other.

A skilful sawyer, in sawing a log into scantling, which he knows will spring, will first mark off the ends into cuts; and then, after sawing once through on one side of the log, will saw a slab off the other side, and finish in the middle. By this means the lumber will be about as true as if the timber were not inclined to spring at all.

Chimneys are excellent lightning conductors. In view of which, it is recommended: "First, that they be kept clean; then, that all the grates in a house be connected by means of a strong wire, such as is used for telegraph purposes, with a piece of metal in the earth, or with the iron gas or water pipes.

A silver egg was once prepared as a present to a Saxon queen. Open the silver by a secret spring and there was found a yolk of gold. Find the spring of the gold, and it flew open and disclosed a beautiful bird. Press the wings of the bird, and in its breast was found a crown, jeweled and radiant. And even within the crown, upheld by a spring like the rest, was a ring of diamonds, which fitted the finger of the princess herself. Oh, how many a promise there is within a promise in the Scripture, the silver around the gold, and the gold around the jewel; yet how few of God's children ever find their way far enough among the springs to discover the crown of his rejoicing, or the ring of His covenant of peace!

It is a fact that God's care is more evident in some instances of it than in others to the dim and often bewildered vision of humanity. Upon such instances men seize, and call them providences. It is well that they can; but it is gloriously better if they could believe that the whole matter is one grand providence.—George Macdonald.

Grace cannot be severed from its fruits. If God gives you St. Paul's faith, you will soon have St. James's work.—Toplady.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

Not many years since, certain miners, working far underground, came upon the body of a poor fellow who had perished in the suffocating pit forty years before. Some chemical agent to which the body had been subjected—an agent prepared in the laboratory of nature—had effectually arrested the progress of decay. They brought it up to the surface, and for a while, till thoroughly exposed to the atmosphere, it lay—the image of a fine, sturdy young man. No convulsions had passed over the face in death—the features were tranquil; the hair was black as jet. No one had recognized the face; a generation had grown up since the miner went down into the shaft for the last time. But a tottering old woman who had hurried from her cottage at hearing the news came up, and she knew again the face which through all these long years she had not forgotten. The miner was to have been her husband on the day after that on which he died. There were no dry eyes when the gray-headed old pilgrim cast herself upon the youthful corpse, and poured into his deaf ear many words of endearment unused for forty years. It was a touching contrast—the one so old, the other so young. They had both been young these long years ago, but time had gone on with the living and stood still with the dead.—London Herald.

CHOPPING AND SWEARING.

A late distinguished President of one of our Western Colleges was one day walking near the college with his slow and noiseless step, when a youth, who had not observed his approach, while engaged in cutting wood began to swear profanely in his vexation. The doctor stepped up and said, "Give me the axe;" and then very quietly chopped the stick of wood up himself. Returning the axe to the young man, he said, in his peculiar manner, "You see now the wood may be chopped without swearing."

The reproof was effectual, and led, there is reason to believe, to an entire abandonment of the impious habit. A good many other things besides chopping can be done without swearing quite as well as with it; and the breath wasted in blasphemy and impiety, might better far be spent in prayer and praise to Him who gives us every blessing, and who spares from a thousand ills.

THE LORD BLESS MY PENNIES.

A little girl, six years old, was desirous of putting her pennies in the missionary-box with others. When saying her evening prayers at her papa's knee, she hesitated a moment, and then added: "Lord, bless my two pennies, for Jesus' sake! amen." After the child had gone to bed, her father asked his wife: "What made Gracie say that?" "She has prayed thus every night since giving her pennies to the missionary-box," was her mother's reply. Do you pray, "God bless my two pennies" when you give your mite for Sabbath's school work? If not, pray earnestly for the blessing, and you will soon find that prayer will do more than your pennies.

Some one suggests that more seats should be placed in the vestibules of the Churches for the benefit of the young men who come to walk home with the young ladies without wishing to attend divine service themselves.

CURE OF EPILEPSY; OR, FALLING FITS.

BY HANCOCK'S EPILEPTIC PILLS.

Persons laboring under this distressing malady, will find HANCOCK'S Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing Epilepsy or Falling Fits.

The following certificates should be read by all the afflicted; they are in every respect true, and should be read by any one who is not afflicted himself, if he has a friend who is a sufferer, he will do a humane act by cutting this out and sending it to him.

A MOST REMARKABLE CURE.

Philadelphia, June 28th, 1867.

SERV HANCOCK, Baltimore, Md.—Dear Sir: Seeing your advertisement I was induced to try your Epileptic Pills.

I was attacked with Epilepsy in July, 1866. Immediately my physician was summoned, but he could give me no relief. I then consulted another physician, but I seemed to grow worse. I then tried the treatment of another, but without any good effect. I again returned to my family physician, who was cupped and bled several different times, was generally attended without any permanent symptoms. I had from two to five fits a day, at intervals of two weeks. I was often attacked with my arms and legs stiff, and I was unable to walk, and I was often attacked with a severe headache, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the back, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the chest, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the stomach, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the head, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the neck, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the shoulders, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the hips, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the knees, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the ankles, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the feet, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the hands, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the fingers, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the toes, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the joints, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the muscles, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the nerves, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the brain, and I was often attacked with a severe pain in the spinal cord, and I was
