Local and General

Market square is being cleared of rubbish and gravelled. This is a great improvement, as in its former state the square presented a very unsightly appearance.
Our attention has been drawn by several citizens to the fact that the telegraph and telephone poles around town are even more of an eyesore than they need be. It would add greatly to the appearance of our streets if the various companies concerned would see that these poles are given a coat of paint.

Social and Personal

Mr. Chas. P. Racine, who has been visiting at the Methodist Parsonage, returned to Montreal on Saturday evening. Miss Weddall, also a guest at the Parsonage, returned to Fredericton on Monday morning.
Mrs. Eva Thomas, Waweg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Scott.
