SERG. ROBERT A. STUART

Sergt. Robert A. Stuart, 2nd Battalion C.E.F., son of Sheriff and Mrs. R. A. Stuart, born at St. George, N. B., in 1878, killed in action, in France, May 3rd, 1917.

He leaves a wife, who was Miss Alice Ingersoll of Houlton Me., father, mother, two sisters and three brothers: Miss Nellie, at home, Mrs. K. Mowat, Bowell River, B. C.; Walter, Waltham, Mass.; Heber, Baltimore, Md.; and Frank, of Ottawa, Ont.

A staunch member of the Episcopal Church, since the age of sixteen years, and Chorister of All Saints Church Choir for several years.

He was a partner in the firm of R. A. Stuart & Son, and President of the St. Andrews Board of Trade, in which he took a deep interest.

Feeling the call to her sons of the Empire, engaged in a life and death struggle for Justice and World Freedom, he enlisted as a private in the 64th Battalion, in Sept. 1915, drilled at Camp Sussex until late in the Fall, moved to Halifax for Winter Quarters, and went Overseas, early in March 1916, to France, after a few months' training in England; and was drafted into the 2nd Battalion (Canadian) B. E. F., of which he was proud to be one of the "2nd"; altho, the originals are very few, we have some fine new blood."

Under same date, he wrote, "You, from what you read in the papers, can put two and two together. I have been into the very heaviest of the fighting, on three different trips up, and have come out of the fray in first-class shape. You may have read about our Battalion doing great work about the 1st September. The Battalion which went over the parapet and made the first break. We have been going ever since. I do not wish you to let mother know about this, as I have always tried to write so that she might not have any unnecessary worry."

The following account of the brilliant dash, appeared in the St. Cross Courier, later.

"Fifteen minutes of most brilliant fighting. Dash of 'Iron Second' on which started Canadians on Road to Courcellette. The first fight of the Canadians on the Somme is going down in history as one of the gems of Canadian war performances."

"One of the officers could write, and he has set down a story of the afternoon dash which started the Canadians on the road to Courcellette, and Regina Trench, under command of Colonel 'Dolly' Swift, of Quebec."

"Only one Unit, the famous 'Iron Second', Ottawa Battalion, was involved. The thousand men went over the parapet at four o'clock in the afternoon, of a bright, sunshiny day. A moving picture camera took them as they jumped into No Man's Land, in their dash for the German salient trench, four hundred yards out. The men disappeared into the smoke which the bombardment of their own heavy guns, in the rear had hung over the German trench."

"In about fifteen minutes, the camera caught two hundred Germans, with their hands up, bursting out of the smoke into which the Canadians had jumped. At the same time word came back that the job was done; that four hundred yards of jutting trench had been taken and was being securely consolidated."

"In that fifteen minutes, the German casualties totalled six hundred, while in the attack and the twelve hours' resistance of counter-attacks the Canadian losses were but 250."

The following letter received recently by Sheriff Stuart from his son if of pathetic interest:

Dear Father, As the time is coming when we may all be called to venture a little more than is good for a whole skin, I think I may, with out breach of orders, tell you some of past doings. You will remember the Canadian drive, when we took blood—and vicinity? That was my baptism in respect to me as Town Treasurer, within 10 days, and a like discount of two and one-half per centum upon payment within 20 days and more than 10 days after the first publication of the said notice, after which time no discount will be allowed.

MARRIED

A quiet military wedding of much interest, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bismark Dick on Thursday, May 17th, at 3.30 p. m., when their second daughter, Edith, became the bride of Lieut. Lyndhurst Brewer, of Fredericton. Rev. J. G. Weddall officiated.

The bride was tastefully dressed in white satin with silk, chiffon, and pearl trimmings. Her veil was in Juliet style with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses, and maldenhar fern. To the strains of the Silver Bell Wedding March, rendered by Miss Lella Dick, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the parlor, the bride being supported by her father, who gave her away.

Mrs. Aubrey Mowatt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore white silk with shadow lace and amethyst trimmings and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr. Aubrey Mowatt assisted the groom. The parlor was beautifully decorated in evergreen and flags, and the bridal party stood beneath an arch of flags. The color scheme for the hall decoration was green and white, and that of the dining room, red, white, and blue.

Lieut. Brewer is one of a very patriotic family, having four brothers and his father in khaki. He is the son of H. T. Brewer, of Fredericton, and a nephew of Col. F. A. Guthrie, of the 16th Infantry Battalion, and has seen active service with the "Fighting 20th". He was once wounded, and returned home to join the 236th Battalion.

The bride's travelling costume was of mustard color poplin, with a black hat. The happy couple left by C. P. R. for Halifax on their honeymoon, amid showers of rice and confetti. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Mr. Bateman Wentworth was probably the oldest citizen of Deer Island, and one who was beloved, honored and respected for his christian integrity, kindness of heart, and exemplary life, being a deacon of the U. B. Church at Fairhaven for several years, when position he honorably filled, always present at church services until failing health prevented. Although he had some memory and influence live on. The last years of his life were spent at the home of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wentworth and children, who did all that tender love and kind acts can do to smooth the pathway of the sick and cheer the many weary hours. The funeral service was conducted from the church on Monday p. m. by Rev. Mr. Watson.

Many beautiful flowers covered the casket. Of the immediate family, one son, John B. Wentworth, of Fairhaven, and four daughters, Mrs. Noyes Doughty, of Fairhaven, Mrs. Andrew Ross, of Eastport, Mrs. Geo. Chaffey, of Eastport, and Otto Jensen, of North Lubec, and a number of grandchildren, and other relatives survive. Interment was in the family lot in the cemetery at Fairhaven.

"Fine words border no parsnips" is a quaint old law and that is why I advertise a trial of the Remington Typewriter. It is not what I say about it but what it does that's increasing its sales.
