GALES FERRY, Conn., June 8.-The Yale crews this afternoon waited for the water, which had become rough during the day, to calm down, and did not go out on the river until late. At six o'clock the 'varsity and freshman eights went up the river for three miles, the freshmen leading, and the same order was kept on the return, no attempt being made for speed. It was given out that the reason of Captain Livingston's removal from the freshman eight was owing to his poor physical condition. It was also stated that a captain would not be elected to replace Livingston even if he was not returned to the boat.

The meetings of the 4th annual con-4 the temperance problem was of a more vention of the 7th district of United complex nature than many supposed.

It was a manifestation of the power of the kingdom of evil. The individual drunkard made the salooon a power for evil in the home, in the school, in business or politics and even reached the church. It would be better to make a flank attack. There must be an application of the gospel of Jesus Christ to the individual life. The home must be built up in Christian principles. He had heard that some men had taken to drink because cooking was bad. Mr. Kierstead said that the home should be made attractive to the father. The children should have Christian influence thrown around them during the formation period of life. The speaker thanked God that he had been brought up in a Christian home. Our schools should not only furnish teaching for the intellect but also moral and religious teachings. Mr. Kierstead showed that drunkenness made poverty and poverty made drunkards, hence it became an economic question. The working man

SPURNS BIG FEES; DEAF CHILDREN GURED

CHICAGO, June 6 .- Spurning the gold of millionaires, Dr. Albert Jansen of Berlin, one of the greatest eye and ear surgeons in the world, operated vesterday out of pure mercy and without price on two unfortunate waifs of the tenements. The famous surgeon's skill for which the wealthy men and women of Chicago have begged and pleaded in vain with offers of fortunes, and what was given finally for nothing, resulted in two cures. The children, who had been deaf, were made to hear. Dr. Jansen came across the seas to attend the recent sessions of the American Medical Association. The children upon whom Dr. Jansen operated and to whom he restored their hearing are William Simpson, 8, and Marion Stuhler, 3 years old The children had been deaf from

It was impossible for the parents of these children to gain an audience with he Berlin surgeon, but they wrote him two pathetic letters, in which they told him of the great affliction.
