MR. LANGFORD BOWS HIS THANKS

To the Electors of Simcoe:

Ladies and Gentlemen,-Your hearty support at the polls which has resulted in my election as deputy reeve, deserves most sincere acknowledgment and thanks. I look upon the result as an emphatic endorsation of my past record and of the policy I have advanced through the press regarding municipal affairs, rather than as a personal victory.

Among the many congratulations received Monday evening, none were more appreciated than those of my running mates Alderman R. Cropp and Mr. Geo. A. Curtis, both of whom conducted a contest above criti-

Canadian corps postal service meets it. Each division has a railhead post office and is supplied in normal times with two ton-and-half lorries. In such an emergency as at present the number is four and the extra two have each a capacity of three tons. From railhead the mail is taken by lorry to divisional and brigade "dumps." Here it is delivered to mail orderlies of battery, battalion and other units. It goes by G. S. Wagon or limber to battalions and batteries, where it is forwarded by ration parties to the men in the firing line. Before the Christmas rush 1,000 unit bags was a normal incoming mail for Canadians here. Since De-cember 6, the total has averaged be-tween 3,200 and 3,500. It will likely reach 4,800. It was at one brigade post office this morning, which handled 279 outgoing registered letters and parcels in one day last week, while the daily average was 100 and stamps had been sold during the period to a total value of no less than 1,200 francs. The registration fee is two pence with an extra charge of a penny an ounce for all letters over four ounces. In addition to its registration work and its stamp sales, this post office has sold postal orders to a total value of over 1,150 francs with the week.
