COL. PICQUART, THE HERO

FRENCH OFFICER WHO EXPOSED
THE DREYFUS PLOT.

Suffered Disgrace and Imprisonment in Defense of an Innocent Man—Steps By Which He Discovered That Col.
Esterhazy Was the Real Traitor—Col. Henry's Part in the Greatest Conspiracy of the Century.

Thirteen years ago Alfred Dreyfus had not been heard of. Twelve years ago he was the best known, the most hated, man in France. For eleven years the world talked of him as the martyr of the century. To-day he is a hero.
Stored to honor and rank in the army of France, he, though a Jew, has followed the injunction of Christ. "I want no revenge, no indemnity, only my honor." Not only to Dreyfus, but to France, has honor been restored. To this happy outcome no one contributed more than Georges Picquart, who, forced from the army because he would not join the "syndicate of treason," returns to it a brigadier general.

One day in 1894 a scrubwoman in the German embassy in Paris picked up a scrap of paper. She read enough of it to know that some one in the French army was communicating with "the enemy." She took the paper to the French War Office. Du Paty de Clam was put on the case. He detected a resemblance between the writing on this paper and that of Captain Dreyfus, the only Jew in the general staff. Du Paty de Clam disliked Jews.
He reported to General Mercier, Minister of War, who was looking for a chance to make a "grand stand play," that Dreyfus was a traitor. Mercier ordered Dreyfus' arrest and when the court martial was about to acquit him dramatically appeared and submitted a batch of forgeries, upon which Dreyfus was convicted. He was degraded

GEORGES PICQUART.

publicly and sent to Devil's Island, apparently for life. But Lieutenant Colonel Picquart came to the head of the intelligence bureau of the general staff.
He soon became convinced that Dreyfus had been wrongfully condemned.
He went to General Gonse, his superior, and told him that Colonel Count Esterhazy was the real traitor. Gonse advised him to keep his mouth shut.
Picquart was the youngest lieutenant colonel in the army. His military career had been splendid; everybody predicted his rapid rise. Like Dreyfus, he was an Alsatian, but he was not Dreyfus' friend; he was of another race, another faith. To ignore Gonse's advice was to invite ruin, but Picquart could not be silent when injustice was being done. He denounced Esterhazy from the house-top. He was superseded by Colonel Henry, but continued to accuse Esterhazy. He was for this dismissed from the army and thrown in to jail.

Esterhazy demanded a court martial "to clear his honor." It was a farce, of course. Esterhazy was exonerated, but by this time many Frenchmen were beginning to suspect that Dreyfus was innocent. The Matin got hold of a copy of the "bordereau" found in the German embassy and published transcripts from it, besides specimens of Esterhazy's writing. The chirography was identical in both.

Colonel Henry forged more documents, which the staff got General Ca-vaignac, then Minister of War, to read to the Chamber of Deputies. Then Henry went to jail and killed himself. Pic-quart spent ten months in prison. When he emerged he renewed his fight for justice. Zola came to his aid and was driven from France, but the ghost of Dreyfus would not down. He was brought back from his tomb and retried at Rennes, where Picquart was his foremost champion. Dreyfus was convicted of treason "with extenuating circumstances" and pardoned. Still Picquart was not satisfied. He would be satisfied with no less than absolute justice. Now he has won. Henry is dead, Cavaignac is dead, Esterhazy is a fugitive. Du Paty de Clam has disappeared. Mercier is disgraced. Gonse only recently made a last desperate attempt to rehabilitate himself by challenging Picquart. His shot missed.
Picquart fired in the air. The "syndicate of treason" is no more, while Pic-quart stands before the world as the perfect type of French chivalry, a modern Roland.

Greek Athletics.

The recent Olympic games aroused such interest in Athens that two wealthy Greeks, Messrs. Bogrovits and Tsankakis, have given $60,000 to the Government for the building of a gymnasium at Athens. The building and equipment will be personally superintended by Crown Prince Constantine.
The Swedish system of gymnastics will be largely followed, and if present plans are carried out, officers of the Swedish army will be employed as instructors. During the first three years the running expenses will be defrayed by the two founders.

Three Minutes' Sunshine a Year.

Arrangements were made to take a sunlight photograph at the bottom of the shaft of a mine 2,000 feet deep at Sombrette, in Mexico. The town is on the tropic of Cancer, and the sun's rays at the meridian on June 21 fall vertically and illuminate the shaft brightly to its lowest depths. The sunlight lasts about three minutes and then disappears for a year.

FRUIT GROWERS ASSOCIATION.

Representative Meeting of Delegates From Widely-Separated Places.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—A large and representative meeting of the Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association, including representatives from Forest, Chatham, Simcoe, Oakville, St. Catharines, Oshawa, Newcastle, Trenton, Mississauga, Walkerton, was held in the office of A. B. Cowan, secretary of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association, in the Manning Chambers yesterday. The object of the association is of a wholly commercial nature, and is designed to obtain reliable information with regard to the fruit crop, not alone in Canada, but in the United States and Europe; secure information as to sales, and the marketing of fruit, and to bring the members in closer touch generally with each other.

The officers were elected: A. E. Sherington, Walkerton, president; D. Johnston, Forest; W. H. Dempsey, Trenton, and Robert Thompson, St. Catharines, vice-presidents; and A. B. Cutting, Toronto, secretary.

Reports gathered from the representatives present were, generally speaking, of an encouraging nature, and while the apple crop is regarded as a good one, a resolution was unanimously endorsed, calling upon the members and growers generally to exercise reserve in disposing of their stock. The opinion was freely expressed that good prices will prevail for Canadian apples.

POPE ISSUES ENCYCLICAL.

His Holiness Deals With Situation of Church in France.

Rome, Aug. 15.—The text of the Pope's long-expected encyclical to the archbishops and bishops of France concerning their future conduct in view of the enactment of the law providing for the separation of church and state appeared in The Osservatore Romano yesterday.

It refers to the previous encyclical condemning the general principles of the law and says the time has now arrived to indicate what should be done to defend and preserve religion in France.

While condemning as iniquitous the separating church and state in France, the Pope counsels against sedition or violent action, and says firmness will give better results than violence. United action, he says, can be learned from those who have imposed the stigma of this criminal law upon the nation.

Pope Referred to Canada.
Rome, Aug. 15.—Among the visitors yesterday the Pope received the Very Rev. P. G. Blanche, apostolic vicar of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, who found him perfectly well and strong. The pon-tiff spoke lengthily about Canada.

SOMEBODY'S NEGLIGENCE.

Held to Be Responsible for the Red River Fatality.

Winnipeg, Aug. 15.—The coroner's jury enquiring into Saturday's fatality last, has returned a verdict declaring that "a considerable number of piles have been driven in the river for lumbering purposes, and that in some cases they are unmarked and form a serious menace to the navigation of the said stream.
We believe the parties responsible for the care and maintenance of the said piling to have been negligent in not marking these obstructions in a manner sufficient to warn boats navigating the river on their location."

"We consider it unfortunate that none of the young people who met their death seems to have had any knowledge of the art of swimming, and in that connection would draw the attention of this city to the importance of acquiring this knowledge."

FELL THROUGH BRIDGE.

Traction Engine Was Too Heavy—Driver Badly Hurt.

Ayton, Aug. 15.—As William Newton was driving his traction engine and was tank over a bridge at Alsfeld, Township of Normandy, the bridge gave way, going down with a crash, carrying with it the whole outfit, to a depth of twelve feet.

Newton is badly hurt. His leg is broken in two places, and he is badly bruised and scalded by water leaking from the engine.

It took some time to release him from the wreck.

Gets Out on Habeas Corpus.

New York, Aug. 15.—Charles E.
Brown, formerly an examiner of silks in the Government customs service, in this city, was ordered released from Sing Sing prison on a writ of habeas corpus.

Brown was recently brought back from Canada, where he had fled after giving bail, and was taken direct to prison.

His counsel claimed this was in violation of the extradition treaty.

The Canadian Government refused extradition on the conspiracy charge, but extradited Brown on an amended charge of being a fugitive from justice.

An Electric Smelter.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—It is understood that a big steel firm of Pittsburgh is preparing to put up an electric smelting plant at some point in Canada where water-power and ore are available.

Six months from now an electric smelting plant, capable of turning out 20 tons of pig iron a day, will be in operation in California. It is being installed by Dr. Herault of the company who erected the experimental station at Sault Ste. Marie.

Twelve Horses Burned.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—At midnight in a fire in a stable in the rear of 30 Catharine street twelve horses were burned.
They were owned by George Roche, 196 John street. The loss is placed at $2,000.

Wins Cambridge Scholarship.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—H. F. Dawes of the University of Toronto won the Cambridge scholarship of Gonville and Caius College.

Following the arrest last night of three division inspectors of the Brooklyn River Transit Co. on charges of assault in the third degree, the company shut off entirely all of its surface lines leading to Coney Island.

ARREST TRAMP FOR CRIMES.

Owen Sound, Aug. 15.—John Paterson, a tramp, 52 years of age, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of brutally assaulting Miss Louisa Jones her last Thursday evening. He is a repulsive looking man.

Patterson has been wandering about this vicinity for the past few days, and it is said was seen around the scene of the crime on Saturday evening.

He is simple-minded. He denies all connection with the assault. He states that he had a dispute with his aged father, a well-to-do farmer residing near Burlington, Ont., and left home and took to tramping about the country.
He wears a plaid smock precisely similar to that of the character who lurked about the scene of the crime very suspiciously on Saturday evening.

Miss Louisa Jones is still an irresponsible mental condition, and has given the police no clue as to the identity of her assailant. Her father is an ex-C.P.R. official and the family once lived in Parkdale, Toronto.

Another arrest will be made ere long by Constable Thompson at Desboro, a village a short distance south of Owen Sound. A middle-aged man who claims to be a salt water sailor, is suspected of being the culprit and will be arrested on suspicion.

FIELDING ELECTION PETITION.

All Day Occupied With Arguments and Decision Reserved.

Liverpool, N. S., Aug. 15.—The trial of the election petition of Cowie v. Hon.
W. S. Fielding, commenced yesterday morning before Chief Justice Weather-be and Judge Russell.

Attorney-General Dr. Macleod, for the respondent, occupied the forenoon in an argument to the effect that the court had no jurisdiction, following the same line as that in which the Halifax election petition was dismissed. W. B. Ritchie, K. C., occupied the afternoon in argument, answering Mr. Drysdale.

The court reserved decision till this morning.
