

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., MAR. 24, 1916.

Editorial Brevities.

In one place in Russia, as a result of prohibition, the villagers bought out of their savings a moving picture apparatus and a new fire engine. It would be difficult to persuade them that prohibition is not good for them.

"Keep the home fires burning till the boys come home" should be the watchword of those left behind. To be convinced of our true sympathy and support will go a long, long way toward buoying up the spirits and strengthening the arms of those who are representing us in the great fight.

A German newspaper recently observes that since the Entente Allies would not sue for peace when the olive branch was extended they must now pay more dearly for it. Well, they are willing to pay, but they will also dictate the terms of peace. The German newspaper is playing the game of bluff.

Apparently the final figures for the Canadian wheat crop for 1915 are in, and they are certainly amazing, the cold integers being 413,475,500 bush. This leaves all our former rivals and immediate superiors, Argentina, India and France, far in the rear, and only two countries in all the world ahead of us, these two being vastly superior to us in population, namely, the United States and Russia.

March is this year maintaining its reputation as a month of storms. The snow-storm of this week was one of the worst of a bad season and the roads all over the country are in a wretched condition. There have been no trains from the west since Wednesday afternoon. Thursday's morning train from Halifax reached Wolfville at about two o'clock on Friday morning and there has been no train either way since. Present weather conditions in Nova Scotia have no parallel in many years.

The Wolfville detachment of the 219th Highlanders is daily increasing in number. Nearly two hundred men have so far been enlisted and he town already has assumed quite a military appearance. These men will probably remain with us for the next two months and steps should immediately be taken to furnish them with proper and healthful recreation. We would suggest that as a beginning in this direction a suitable room be secured and so fitted up as to provide facilities reading and writing and social amusements. Other measures for their entertainment will suggest themselves from time to time.

Assembly on Wednesday of last week rejected the motion to give "the three months' hoist" to the Bill providing for the bringing of Halifax city under the operation of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act and sent the Bill to the committee of the whole House. The three members for Halifax alone voted to give the Bill the three months' hoist. Yesterday the Bill passed the committee of the whole House and was reported up for its third reading this afternoon. The only amendment adopted was one providing that the Act go into operation in the city of Halifax on June 30th next.

"King Rene's Daughter."

The famous cantata, "King Rene's Daughter" will be given by the Glee Club of Acadia Seminary under the direction of Miss Newey, in College Hall, April 14th, 1916.

This is the best musical attraction of the year. The choruses are exceptionally fine, the solos beautiful, the chorus well balanced and well trained. Watch for fuller announcement.

Lieutenant-Colonel F. H. Oxley has been appointed postmaster of Halifax, a position vacated by the death of F. W. Hainright. Colonel Oxley is a business man and knows what the business needs of Halifax require. The fitness of the new appointee will be generally recognized.

MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP

The proof of Mother Seigel's Syrup is in the taking. That is why former sufferers, whose vitality was being sapped by Indigestion, say it is just excellent for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Thanks to Mother Seigel's Syrup, they are now strong and well.

IS EXCELLENT FOR

If you are afflicted by Indigestion or other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels take Mother Seigel's Syrup regularly a few days, long enough to give it a fair chance to make its beneficial influence felt. Then note the improvement in your appetite, your strength, your general condition.

HEADACHES, BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION.

This valuable Syrup contains three times as much as the best.

Germany's Egyptian Fate.

Strive as she may, Germany is caged. Her incessant hammering will only exhaust and paralyze her and hasten her doom. She tried first for Paris, and failed; then for Calais and London, and failed; then for Petro and India, and failed. During all this time she has steadily been losing her foreign possessions until, at the present time, there is but one foreign colony, dominion, or protectorate under her flag.

When she had to admit that she could advance no further against Russia she turned to the one remaining forlorn hope—that of forcing her way through Asia Minor to the Suez canal, Egypt and India. This would give her touch with the outside world and enormous supplies, very badly needed, besides being a hard blow to the allies and a great advantage to the prestige of Germany in the world's markets. But, to do this they must first win over Bulgaria and then fight their way through Turkey and Serbia. So, after a long diplomatic contest, Bulgaria was won to Germany's side and to her own doom. Came then the long and terrible battles lying waste the whole of Serbia. At the start of that campaign serious activity against Russia stopped, the czar took over command of his entire army and the grand duke Nicholas was sent to the Caucasus, which was then, to the layman, an unimportant post and might, erroneously, have been considered a rebuke. Here the grand duke's exceptional military genius has shown forth again. He has come in through the Caucasus, driving the Turkish Caucasian army ahead of him—except the tens of thousands he has slaughtered or taken prisoners. He is heading up through Asia Minor toward Constantinople and getting directly across the route of any possible Egyptian invasion. In the mean time, England has placed a large army in Egypt all along the Suez canal, to be doubly sure.

Between them, the allies are now tightly closing and sealing the only possible opening left to their enemies, and our steadily contracting steel ring is practically complete. Our enemy's doom is inevitable though it will take a while yet.

Fires have occurred with startling frequency throughout Canada of late, and nearly always their origin remains a profound mystery. Since the destruction of the parliament buildings at Ottawa, several factories engaged in the manufacture of materials for the Allies have either been destroyed or badly damaged by fire, and in nearly every case the owners declare the fire was of an incendiary origin. The other night a large steamer nearly ready to sail. The loss is over a million dollars, and the dock where the vessel sank cannot be used for some considerable time at least, and need of all dock room is said to be very great just now. The other night an immigration building was burned in Halifax, and again the origin of the fire was a mystery. In this case a large quantity of red Cross materials were destroyed and at least one human life lost. The police and military authorities should exercise greater precautions than usual these times and the owners of all industrial establishments engaged in the manufacture of war materials should themselves exercise the greatest possible care in protecting their property.

An Acknowledgment. The following letter which has been received by Mrs. Chambers, the president of the local Red Cross Society, will be of interest to many of our readers: Canadian Field Comforts Commission, Moore Barracks, Shorncliffe, March 24, 1916. To the Secretary of the Red Cross, Wolfville, Nova Scotia: DEAR MADAM,—We received from your Society during January and February nine boxes containing personal parcels, which we have forwarded to the addressees given; and also one box containing sixty-six pairs carpet slippers. Thank you very much for this splendid donation to our fund. We also received from Wolfville a box of personal parcels marked from post office box 374, but we are not sure if this came from you also. With best wishes, Yours faithfully, MARY PLUMMER, Lieut. Canadian Field Comforts Commission.

Prohibition in Manitoba. By a majority of from 20,000 to 25,000 Manitobans on Monday of last week passed the Manitoba temperance act, which closes all bars, wholesale liquor places and clubs from June 1st next. The campaign, in which both sides spent money freely, is said to have exceeded in bitterness and intensity any political campaign ever fought in a province where political fights have been as keenly contested as any where in Canada. Orators were used on pulpits and platforms, small fortunes were spent in newspaper advertising by both sides and tons of literature were distributed. Both sides paid close attention to the economic aspect of the problem and the question of how prohibition would affect business entered largely into the result. Alberta will go dry on July 1st next and Saskatchewan will vote on the question in December. In Ontario there is to be a referendum vote ere long. It certainly looks as if the greater part of Canada would be under prohibition before many years.

Would-be Officers. Eggs for Setting!

Millia headquarters report a deluge of applications from all parts of the country for positions as paymaster, chaplain or quartermaster with one or other of the expeditionary units. While, of course, many of the applicants, for one reason or another are not fitted for any other position and may be thus excused for seeking an non-combatant place, it is becoming somewhat tiresome for the authorities to have easily to turn down politely scores of such applications. Consequently the information is sent out to the press that there is little use of any one applying for such positions directly to the Department. The number of applications now on file is as follows: PATRONAGE SOLICITED. Miss D. C. Mitchener. For Sale! That dwelling and lot on the North side of Prospect Street in Wolfville, owned and occupied by Mrs. C. W. Burbridge. For particulars enquire of Mrs. Burbridge on the premises, or H. M.
