

The Montreal Gazette, the organ of the Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee, gives the following particulars respecting the Union Scheme which has been agreed upon by the Delegates:

"Governors of various Provinces to be appointed by the Confederation Government, by whom their salaries are to be paid."

"Reported that laws of local Legislatures to be subject to approval of Confederation Government."

"The property qualification of members of Assembly to remain as now, and franchise not altered for the present."

The Toronto Leader confirms this. It says:

"Local Governors to be appointed by the Confederation Government during the pleasure of the Confederation Government to pay their salaries. The laws passed by the local Legislatures to be subject to the approval of the Confederation Government, and liable to be vetoed."

Our readers can see from this that the Local Legislatures will be only expensive sham."

With reference to the sayings of our Delegates, our space compels us to be very brief. We perceive by the Canadian papers that a wonderful change has come over the spirit of the dream of more than one of our Delegates. At the dinner given by the Quebec Board of Trade, Hon. Col. Gray said: "The dream of my youth and my manhood had been, that he might one day be a citizen of a great nationality stretching from Vancouver to Halifax. (Cheers.) This dream he firmly believed would soon become a reality." (Cheers.)

At the dinner in Montreal, Hon. Mr. Whelan said: "Whatever might be the public opinion in Prince Edward Island—and public opinion runs adversely to the question—he would enter with conviction, and labor strenuously to inculcate and advance this great object, which had been his dream for a long time, and without which these Colonies could never attain to that proud position to which they were entitled." We think it was only the night after he was appointed one of the Delegates that the honorable gentleman was favored with his snugly dream.

At the same feast Hon. Mr. Haviland, in speaking of Prince Edward Island, remarked: "In that small Province they had, last year, a surplus revenue of $3,400. Small as they were, they were prepared to take their share of the burden on their shoulders."

"Prepared to take their share of the burden on their shoulders." ("Very fine," Mr. Haviland; or, in the more poetic language of Shakespeare, we may say, "Most excellent," "faith.") All powerful people some of our Delegates? We wonder from whom they received all their powers. To the electors of P. E. Island we say, gentlemen, look out, your Delegates will not scruple to sell your liberties—that is if we may judge from the speeches which are attributed to them, and from the facts which are being divulged from day to day in the Canadian papers.

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE ISLAND DELEGATES AT QUEBEC.

Our Delegates appear to have very favorably impressed the Canadians. The Montreal Gazette pays them a very high compliment, and particularly to Mr. Whelan, whose talents without doubt, command respect and respect in any community. The following is the Gazette's compliment:

"The group which sat to the right and left of Colonel Gray, the gallant chief of the Prince Edward delegation, fairly represented every class in that tight little Island. Col. Gray himself, a colonist by birth, and one proud and jealous of his birthright, connected by family and regimental ties, with some of the first military reputations in the Empire, was, for his fine personal qualities, and especially by all those who remembered what an admirable presiding officer he made at Charlottetown, a noble specimen of the Islander."

Mr. Palmer, in all subjects connected with his own profession; Mr. Pope in point of general and local information; Mr. McDonald and Mr. Haviland; Mr. Coles and Mr. Whelan, compared favorably with the general composition of the Conference. The latter gentleman, Mr. Whelan, is said to be one of the best public speakers in the Lower Provinces; he certainly is one of the best writers, as the pages of the Charlottetown Examiner sufficiently testify."

D. O'M. Reddin, Esq., (President of the St. Dunstan's Temperance Society) lectured in St. Andrew's Hall, Pownall Street, Monday evening, before a moderately large audience, on the evils of intemperance. After the lecture, which was short and to the point, a number of gentlemen present offered some remarks in favor of temperance principles, which filled up the time until ten o'clock, when the meeting was dismissed.

We are indebted to a friend in Montreal for a late copy of the Montreal Gazette, which contains the speeches delivered by Hons. Messrs. Whelan Gray and Haviland at the Ball given to the Delegates in that city on 28th ult. The names of the guests are also given, and among others familiar to us is that of Mrs. Wentworth Stevenson. In connection with this we are requested to state that the cause of this lady's delay in returning to the Island, has been occasioned by her having been a guest of the Delegation Party, while in Montreal. We believe she will most probably return with some of the party in the course of a week or so.

Mrs. Thomas Reilly is at present on a collecting and canvassing tour in Prince County in connection with this office. On his return, in the course of a fortnight or so, he will visit portions of Queen's and King's Counties on the same business. We trust our friends will not forget our honest claims at the present time.

The Rev. D. W. Cahill, D. D., the celebrated controversialist, lecturer, and preacher, died at Canby Hospital, Boston, on the 28th ult. He arrived in the United States in December, 1859, and it is estimated that over one hundred thousand dollars were realized since that time from his Sermons for charitable and religious purposes. He was seventy-one years old at the time of his death.

We have received from the office of the Queen's Printer a copy of the Report of the Visitors of Schools for the year 1863-4. We may have some remarks to offer on this document—which is voluminous enough for all useful purposes—when we shall have a little leisure time on hand.

The new Wesleyan Methodist Church in this city is to be opened on Sunday next, 13th inst., as will be seen by referring to our advertising columns to-day.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—"Reviewer" will appear next week.

A colonial contemporary—the Halifax Acadian Recorder—gives the following biographical sketch of the late Duke of Newcastle, whose death was briefly announced in a telegram contained in our issue of the 2nd inst.:

"Our telegram this morning announces the death of the eminent statesman—Henry Pelham Clinton, Duke of Newcastle, and late Secretary of State for the Colonies. The deceased nobleman was in his 84th year and in state of health, and had a reputation in a few in the British Empire. At the age of 22 he was elected a member of the House of Commons for Nottingham, and subsequently held office in the first and second Peel Ministries, at one time as Chief Secretary of Ireland. In 1851, by the death of his father, he succeeded to the title of Duke of Newcastle, entered the House of Lords, and became a member of Earl Aberdeen's ministry, from which he retired in 1854. In 1859, he entered Lord Palmerston's ministry, and was appointed Colonial Secretary, which position he retained to a late period, and from which he was obliged to retire in consequence of the disease which has stricken him down."

In all these positions the deceased nobleman distinguished himself for his ability, sagacity, and energy; and the entire population of the British realm held him in venerated estimation.

Those who remember the Duke on his visit to America with the Royal Prince, remember him as being rather tall and of commanding personal appearance. The expression of his countenance denoted great intelligence and firmness, mingled with much courteousness and affability. Generally speaking, his manners, public and private, were marked with a great degree of honesty and boldness.
