Sentenced To Two Years In Penitentiary

Fredericton, N. B., April 27.—Herbert Adams, of Campbellton, N. B., and Eugene Guimond, of Matapedia, Que., pleaded guilty to uttering a forged check for $250 and were sentenced to two years in the Maritime Penitentiary at Dorchester, N. S., by His Honor Judge Wilson here this afternoon. Their counsel, P. J. Hughes, made a strong plea for suspended sentence upon the grounds of their long war service, Guimond having enlisted in 1914 and having had three brothers killed in the war, while Adams enlisted in 1915.

All Canadians Are Forest Owners

Canada is in a unique position in regard to forests. Not only has she still large forest resources, but about 95 per cent of the land on which these forests stand belongs to the Dominion or to the people of Canada. Nor is this ownership merely nominal. The different governments receive from the lumberman a price per thousand feet when the timber is cut and a ground rental for every year the lumberman occupies the land. Thus, in addition to the benefit Canada receives from timber as a great basis of trade and manufacture, the taxes are reduced by the amount of this revenue. It therefore doubly behooves every Canadian to do all in his power to stop forest fires. Four sets may start a fire by throwing a lighted match from a smoking car, or a clearing fire may get away from a settler clearing his land, or a hunter or fisherman may leave his camp fire still burning when he breaks camp. Everyone should remember that every time these things happen and a fire starts every citizen in Canada is a loser. Those who care to pursue this subject further may secure free of charge a bulletin giving the statistics of forest fires by applying to the Director of Forestry, Ottawa.

Utilize Canada's Resources
Canadians are justly proud of their structural timbers—red pine, western soft pine, tamarack, hemlock, Douglas fir, etc. That the qualities of these timbers may be well known to Canadian builders, so that the importation of no better or even inferior timbers may be reduced the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior has issued a publication known as Bulletin No. 59, "Canadian Woods for Structural Timbers," giving the facts about these woods. This has been followed by Bulletin No. 60, "Douglas Fir: Its Mechanical and Physical Properties," which deals with wood from every point which is of interest to the structural engineer and builder. Those interested may secure these bulletins free upon application to the Director of Forestry, Ottawa.

The idea involved in the above heading is naturally that of making the prairies look more like home to people who have come from Eastern Canada and from other countries where there are many trees and so comfortable things and give an air of comfort to the landscape. More than that, in proper places, as along the borders of fields, trees are of great benefit to dwellers on the prairie. They form a wind-break against cold winds in the winter and against hot drying winds in summer, they prevent snow drifting deep about barns and outbuildings, and, as the wind-break and shelter-belt get older the thinnings come in handy for posts and rails, and even for fuel. It used to be thought that trees would not grow on the prairie, but since over fifty million tree seedlings and cuttings have been sent out to prairie farms by the Superintendent of the Dominion Forest Nursery Station at Indian Head and since at the request of western farmers about five million more of these tree seedlings are now going out every spring, it is evident that old idea is now thoroughly exploded. It is harder to grow trees on the prairie than in the formerly timbered country of Eastern Canada, but the methods which must be followed are now known and have been embodied in bulletins which may be secured free upon application to the Superintendent Forest Nursery Station, Indian Head, Saskatchewan.

Reprieve granted Men Sentenced To Death

Were Convicted of the Murder of a Bronx Subway Agent

Ossining, N. Y., April 29.—Four men convicted of the murder of a Bronx subway agent, who were sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison late tonight, were granted a reprieve by Governor Smith, four hours before the execution was to have taken place.

Announcement of the reprieve was made by Governor Smith at Albany over the telephone to Warden Lewis E. Lawes, at the prison. The four men are Joseph Milano, James Cassidy, Joseph Usefort and Charles McLoughlin. They were convicted of the murder of Otto Fialo, who was shot to death while attempting to prevent his assailants from robbing a subway station.

Milano is alleged to have made a confession to Warden Lawes who immediately telegraphed the confession to Governor Smith.

Lady Astor Starts "War"

London, April 26.—There is war between Lady Astor and Sir William Johnson Hicks. It is all over a particular corner seat in the Commons which each covets. Returning from illness yesterday, Sir William found his seat annexed by the only woman member, who, it seems, substituted her card for his, on the back of the seat. Hicks forthwith appealed to the Speaker, while the House rocked with laughter.

T. P. O'Connor who sits immediately above the disputed chair, interrupted to ask whether the rules were not subject to "the usual canons of good feeling" and asked "ought not consideration be shown to lady members. The Speaker ruled that Sir William technically is right, adding "I am sure that all the members will observe good feeling and consideration toward one another."

Sir William here amid increasing uproar ostentatiously removed Lady Astor's card, replacing his own. He told the Speaker that a long correspondence had been exchanged between himself and Lady Astor about the seat. He afterwards told me he didn't propose to publish the correspondence but he wanted it known that he definitely offered to permit Lady Astor to speak from the seat whenever she desired.

Asked her side of the story, Lady Astor said: "I wish he would publish the correspondence. It reflects much more to my credit than to his. Hicks has no more sense than to let me as well as him to occupy it. He's a day's sitting. I propose to occupy it the right whenever the opportunity occurs."
