Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine in warding off this trouble. They regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus prevent the dreaded summer complaints. They are an absolute safe medicine, being guaranteed to contain neither opiates nor narcotics or other harmful drugs. They cannot possibly do harm—they always do good. WHO MAKES THE PROPOSAL?

According to Smoking Room Authority, it is the Woman Who Generally Suggests Marriage.

The contented soliloquy of the after-dinner group around the smoking room fire was disturbed by the noisy dropping of a magazine.

"A silly love story, all sentimental speeches," explained the reader. "Seems very unreal to me. But I suppose I can't judge of these things. No man knows, for instance, how another proposes."

"Men never do propose," growled the misogynist sprawling in the remotest of the armchairs. "Ninety-nine women out of a hundred take the proposal for granted, and I'm ready to bet that not one of you proposed to your wife."

There was a brief silence as each man musingly turned the dim pages of his memory. Then one man laughed and said: "Now, when I think of it you are quite right in my case. I didn't propose to Alice. She was one of a large, lively family, and all the brothers and sisters were my friends. Gradually it happened that Alice was my partner at golf or tennis more often than any of her sisters. When I announced that I had been made junior partner in my firm, Alice's mother kissed me and said: 'I'm so glad, Tom. Now you and Alice can be married at last.' So we were—and a jolly good thing it was for me."

"When you think of my quiet little wife," said Brown, the boisterous, masterful one of the group, "you might imagine that I clubbed her into submission; but, as a matter of fact, she married me. We had known one another from childhood, and one day when she saw me she said, 'You have a button off your coat and you are going to have influenza. I'd better marry you when you get well again just to keep you in order.' That's all the proposing that took place in our case. But what about Grayson there? A man who earns his living by writing short stories must surely have said something poetic when he proposed."

"I didn't," said Grayson, as he refilled his pipe. "I was helping Kitty to distribute favors at her sister's wedding. 'I suppose we'll have to go through this horrible fuss some day,' I groaned. 'Yes, I suppose we shall,' she said."—Continental Edition of the London Mail.

Pittsburgh Touches France.
War orphans and other needy children of France are made self-supporting and at the same time restored to health at the Pittsburgh Farm school at Fontainebleau, France. The school was established through the donation of $42,000 by the public school children of Pittsburgh. A three-year course in agriculture is offered. The Pittsburgh Junior Red Cross has appropriated $15,000 to aid in the erection of dormitories housing 60 children of this school.

Fifteen other agricultural schools in France have received contributions from the Junior American Red Cross, most of the money being devoted to improvement of the living quarters of the students. These schools are mainly supported by the French government, and teach scientific farming and common-school branches to boys of twelve to seventeen years, who would otherwise have to enter workshops and factories.

Holland's Electrical Development.
Reports from Holland show that electrical development is progressing rapidly there, including plans for electrifying the entire railway system of the country. While this project has not been definitely decided upon, a commission, appointed to study electrification in the United States and other countries, has reported favorably, recommending a system operated by a 1,500-volt direct current. The province of Zeeland, heretofore lacking general electric service, is to be supplied by a concern financed jointly by the communities and the provincial government. The commission estimates that the cost of similar service for the whole country would be approximately $2,280,000, of which $400,000 has already been subscribed. The plan is for a gradual extension of existing service.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Booth Tarkington's Youth.
Young Booth Tarkington was never a conspicuous success as a financier, remembers this writer whose works have won him rank as one of America's most brilliant novelists. "Up to the time I was thirty I earned a total of exactly $67.74," says Mr. Tarkington. "And that included money I received for a prize essay at college and 7 1/2 cents for shoveling snow, when I was eleven years old. The reason for the half a cent is this: Another boy and I shoveled the snow and received 15 cents for the job. This we divided; 7 cents each; then bought a stick of candy with the extra cent and split the candy. First I intended to be an artist, not writer."—From the Argonaut.

Booze Eats Lining of Sewer.
Prohibition authorities will be asked to pay for repairs to the city sewers of Storrville. The city claims that confiscated liquors, hooch and jacks brandy, poured into the sewer by the officers, removed the lining of the sewer for a distance of 804 feet.

The liquor was disposed of in this manner by Marshal Massey and Assistant Marshal Pierce on orders of Federal Commissioner Arnold. City officials, who happened to be examining the spot, discovered the damage.—Los Angeles Examiner.

THE ADVOCATE

No Appetite

Nervous exhaustion leads to distaste for food. The nerves of the stomach are weak, digestion fails and you become generally upset and out of sorts.

The secret of complete restoration is in getting the nervous system fully built up.

Mrs. R. Cheney, 208 Richmond St., Chatham, Ont., writes:

"I was troubled with indigestion, which caused me many sleepless nights. I would be in terrible distress at times, and would get no relief for two or three hours. For sixteen months I ate nothing but Shredded Wheat biscuits, as I dare not eat anything else. I did not know what to do, as I had tried so many different remedies, as well as doctors' medicines, without gaining permanent relief. Finally I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and while on the second box noticed that I was improving. I continued the treatment until I am now fully restored, and have returned to my regular diet. My husband has also taken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results, so we are glad to recommend it to others."
