Every Year She Suffered

Read of Mrs. Ryder's Relief from Eczema—A BRIEF STORY Still another letter for the liquid wash for eczema, from a sufferer who had chronic attacks —covering her face—winter after winter. Mrs.
Jas. H. Ryder of Pleasant Point, St. John Co., N. B., tells of the many dollars spent with doctors and other remedies, of her suffering and disfigurement, winter after winter, and of her relief with one bottle of D. D. D.
If you have not been reading the weekly letters from Canadian sufferers, come in and we will tell you of what D. D. D. has done right in your own neighborhood. We don't hesitate to guarantee that the first bottle will give you relief of your money back. Stop that itch at once. $1.00 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

CANADIAN BANK CHARTER EXTENDED TEN YEARS

Clause five of the Bank Act, which provides for extending the charters of Canadian Banks for a period of ten years has passed the Committee of the House of Commons. The clause was adopted following the defeat of the Progressive amendment to limit the extensions to one year by a vote of 65 to 27. The Progressives present voted solidly in favor of the amendment.

An amendment to clause 5 of Bank Act, providing that the charters of Canadian banks be extended for one year, instead of ten years as provided by the bill precipitated a lengthy debate in the House of Commons. The bill was taken up in committee shortly after the House assembled and the amendment which was moved by A. Speakman, Progressive member for Red Deer, was not long delayed. Subsequent debate which was confined largely to Progressive members in support of the amendment brought forth some strong criticisms of the present banking system. There was no suggested in the measure as presented to the House for burglaries on a larger scale than had already been committed, declared J. S. Woods-worth, Labor member for Centre Winnipeg.

A financial monopoly had grown up in Canada which was legalized by the Bank Act. Mergers and interlocking directorates concentrated the financial powers of the country in the hands of a comparatively small number of men, he maintained.

T. W. Bird, Progressive member for Nelson, asserted that there was an unholy union of Liberals and Conservatives to block discussion of the bill. He accused Hon. W.
S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, of inconsistency, stating that he had deferred the last revision of the Bank Act in 1909-19 for one year.

Mr. Fielding took the ground that the bill had received the most careful consideration in committee.
The committee had decided that Mr. Speakman's amendment was unwise, and that the bill should be dealt with at the present session.
Hon. A. K. MacLean, Liberal member for Halifax, who was chairman of the Banking Committee said that the Maritime Provinces were not in favor of further delay.

Robert Forke, (Progressive leader) predicted that whatever might be the result now, there would be changes in the Bank Act in ten years. "I am perfectly sure of it," he said.

He emphasized that the farmers as a class were neither Radicals nor Bolsheviki, but, he added "I for one, am alarmed to see the banking institutions of our country converging into the hands of a few people."

POINTS OUT WAY TO TERMINATE LABOR TROUBLE

St. Louis—If employers would spend as much time cultivating the ship, respect and good will of labor as they do fighting labor organizations there would not be a labor problem, Sherman Rogers of New York told the delegates to the fourteenth annual convention of Rotary International here.

"We waste too much time talking about the labor agitator," the speaker said. "He can only be recognized as the logical friend of the worker where the management has refused to extend its friendship."

"I was in the Seattle shipyards working as a helper in 1917 when Charles M. Schwab made his tour of the American shipbuilding institutions. We'd heard he was a labor hater.

"The first instant the great steel man looked us over it was apparent to every man in the bunch that Mr.
Schwab really liked him. He stepped on that platform, Charles M.
Schwab, autocrat, millionaire magnate. He stepped off that platform thirty minutes later, friend Charles.
In that short thirty minutes he had destroyed the hatred that agitators had been building for 15 years.

"The world is built on ideals.
Labor wants to be square. If labor follows the wrong leader it is not because they want to misunderstand but because the right leader has been asleep at the switch and hasn't given them a chance to understand him.

"There are three sides to every question—your side, the other fellow's and the right side. I don't believe there was ever a question in either modern or ancient history where either side to the dispute was 100 per cent right.

"Ninety-five per cent of men, whether they wear broadcloth or overalls, want to play the game square. Lack of contact means lack of understanding.

"The employer has spent a lot of time selling his honesty, his fairness and personality to the banker, the wholesaler, the retailer and the public. How much has he spent trying to sell that same personality, honesty and fairness to his workmen? Solving a labor problem is not a mysterious affair. It is simply a proposition of using common horse sense."

HELP FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Mrs. Holmberg Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Viking, Alta.—"From the time I was 15 years old I would get such sick feelings in the lower part of my abdomen, followed by cramps and vomiting. This kept me from my work (I help my parents on the farm) as I usually had to go to bed for the rest of the day. Or at times I would have to walk the floor.
I suffered in this way until a friend induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very satisfactory results so far and am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends. I surely am glad I tried it for I feel like a different person now that I don't have these troubles."

Letters like this establish the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking it.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills in this country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials prove this fact.

If you doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for Mrs.
Pinkham's private text-book and learn

OFFICERS HAD LIVELY TIME NEAR BLACKVILLE

As a result of raids made by Inspectors Stewart, Manderson and Quartermaster in the Parish of Blackville, Ethen Dempsey, Tom Sullivan and Frank O'Harrar were brought to town and lodged in the County jail for manufacturing liquor contrary to the provisions of the Inland Revenue Act. At Sullivan's house the inspectors had a lively time in endeavoring to save enough of the liquor as evidence as the lady-of-the-house saw them coming and had the bottles in a bag which she was frantically beating to pieces on the platform of the house. The officers however, secured enough spirits and mash for evidence and accordingly arrested the male members of the family.

They were brought before Judge Lawlor and Dempsey pleaded guilty of having mash suitable for the manufacture of spirits in violation of the Inland Revenue Act. Sullivan and O'Harrar pleaded not guilty.
