J. STORY.

"That's going too far," as the Boston man said when his wife ran away to San Francisco with another man.

At the mariage of an Alabama widow-er one of the servants was asked if his master would take a bridal tour. "Dunno, sah; when old misses's alive he took a paddle to her; dunno if he take a brille to de new one or not."

VERY SENRIELE.—Horse dealers who are supposed to know what effects their interest, purchase "Darley's Condition Powders and Arablam Heave Remedy" by the dozen, and feed it to their horses for the purpose of improving their condition, which it always dozs; others should profit by their example.—Remomber the name, and see that the signature of Hard & Co., is on each package. flowers, all of the one shade that is already becoming monotonous. The chips are yery fine, and the preference for yellowish white is marked, for although colored chips—brown, gray or blackars imported untrimmed, not one colored bonnet is found among the large importations of trimmed bonnets for models. The new rough finished, yet glossy straw bonnets are very handsome and are brought out in the best shapes. From three to five are the correct calling hours. The duration of the first call should be short—about ten or fitteen minutes. It is quiet permissible to speak to any one in the room without an introduction. When paying a formal call of this description, a card—asse is taken, but it is not new usual to take cards from it while in the room. For instance, if your husband does not accompany you, but sonds his cards instead of giving them to the lady of the house, you leave two on the hall table—one being for the lady and the other for the

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Frotoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vidalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures 'a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vidalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed uponderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarchea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Stitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from tweak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and intallies cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
