

Diocesan Synod.

The opening services of the Synod commenced yesterday morning with a Celebration of the Holy Communion in the Cathedral, at 7.30, the Bishop being assisted by Revs. Canon White, Dr. Smith and Canon Bolt; a large number were present.

Matins was said at 10, and Evensong at 7.30 at which the Rev. C. Ernest Smith, B. D. D. C. L., was the preacher and delivered an able and eloquent sermon to a very large congregation.

Immediately after service the members of the Synod assembled at the Synod Hall, and upon the Bishop taking the chair the Veni Creator was sung and the opening prayers with the Apostles Creed recited. The Synod being declared opened the Roll was called, after which the following officers were elected:—

Clerical Sec.—Rev. Canon Bolt, M.A. Lay Sec.—Mr. C. S. Pihlstedt.

Readings—Rev. J. Brinton and Mr. H. W. LeMessurier. Messrs. J. E. Adams, E. M. Bishop and Messrs. W. R. Stirling and R. G. MacDonald were appointed to prepare a synopsis of the proceedings for the daily papers.

The Revs. Dr. Smith and C. V. C. Cogan, formerly of this Diocese, were invited to seats on the floors of the House.

The Bishop then delivered his address, an address sparkling with gems of elocution and eloquent diction and one which exceeded any of His Lordship's previous efforts. Although lengthy, from exordium to peroration, the Bishop held the undivided attention of the large gathering present.

It would be impossible to do justice to this admirable address in a synopsis such as this, suffice it to briefly refer to the matters touched upon by His Lordship.

Reference was made to the life and progress of the Church in the Homeland and this Diocese.

The political and industrial unrest in England and elsewhere and the attitude of the Church in such matters were dealt with, and the Bishop outlined the duty of the clergy in the struggle between labor and capital.

The Bishop referred to the Dis-establishment and Dis-endowment of the Church in Wales, and stated that it would be a blow not only to the Church but to Christianity in general.

Touching references were made to the passing of Canons Dunfield and Temple and of the loss sustained by the Synod in the death of Sir James Winter whose experience was always at the disposal of the Synod whenever required.

The upkeep and beautifying of the cemeteries were referred to, and suggestions made as to what should be done in this respect.

He commented severely on the indifference of the clergy with regard to Statistics, and read a letter from the Registrar General Doyle bearing upon the same subject and suggested that the Synod should deal with it.

The work of Missionary Stewart and his assistant, Mr. Hester, in far off Ungava was not forgotten, and the Baptisms of 32 Eskimos, converts from Darkness to the Light of the Gospel was fittingly referred to.

At the conclusion of his address the Bishop upon the request of the Synod consented to its publication.

The following Bills were introduced and read a first time:— To be read a second time to-morrow:— Canon Bolt—A Bill to amend Chap. 7—Cons. and Rules.

Hon. R. Watson—A Bill to amend Chap. 24—Cons. and Rules.

Rev. P. Smart—A Bill to amend Chap. 16, 17, 20—Cons. Rules.

The hours of meeting will be in the afternoon from 2.30 to 5.25, and evening from 7.30 to 10. No sitting on Saturday.

The Executive Committee report will be read at this evening's session, and the new committee elected on Friday evening.

On motion of Canon White and Mr. J. Outerbridge no afternoon session will be held to-day.

After the Benediction by the Bishop the House adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet again this evening at 7.30.

HEALED A HUNTING SORE.

Where Other Remedies Failed.

One of the most difficult things in the world to get rid of is a running sore either in man or beast.

Mr. Chas. Pells, of Philadelphia, Jefferson Co., N. Y., was beginning to think the running sore on his horse could not be healed, until he started to use Egyptian Liniment. He tells the result:—

"I had a horse afflicted with a running sore for ever a year. I tried every remedy I could hear of, but none of them seemed to have any effect, and every one told me the sore could not be healed. I then determined to give Douglas' Egyptian Liniment a trial, and am pleased to say that a few applications entirely healed the sore."

The way Douglas' Egyptian Liniment removes all unhealthy matter from scalds, burns and festering wounds, and restores sound healthy flesh is simply wonderful. Keep a bottle handy, 25c. at all Dealers. Free sample on request. Douglas & Co., Napanee, Ont.

An Imposing Funeral.

The funeral of the late Wah Hung, a native of China, and a laundryman, took place at 2.30 p.m. yesterday from the Mortuary Rooms of Undertaker J. T. Martin who had charge of the obsequies. The remains were enclosed in a handsome rosewood casket which was covered with floral tributes. The deceased was a member of the Methodist denomination and was interred in the General Protestant Cemetery. Rev. P. R. Matthews who was present at the funeral conducted the burial service at the graveside, and during its progress many of the mourners were much affected.

Reported Missing

At 7 p.m. yesterday his daughter came to the Police Station and reported to Guard Ryan, that her father, Mr. Jas. Purchase of LeMerchant Road, was missing. He left his home Monday morning, and up to the time the report was made had not returned. His wife and family were very anxious about him as they could not locate him at the house of any friend in the city. The man worked as a blacksmith with the Reid Nfd. Coy. One of the police officers believed that he saw him yesterday on Water Street, but was not positive as to this.

Auto Accidents.

In coming down Water Street near Knowling's yesterday afternoon, one of the hind wheels of Mr. B. Jobs auto came off and the occupants had to leave it. In the evening at 7.50 Mr. Gibb Parsons brought along a small truck in another auto, placed it in position which the wheel occupied and secured it with ropes and towed it to his garage where repairs will be given it.

Killed by Fall.

People who arrived from that section recently, say that at Confolts last week a boy was the victim of a fatal accident in Garland's store there. He fell from a high loft striking the floor below on his head, suffered from concussion of the brain and was dangerously injured internally. He never regained consciousness and died two hours after the accident occurred.

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS

And find out if you have kidney disorders—Also make this test. Have you pains in the back over the kidneys? Have you urinary disorders? Do you suffer from severe headaches, dizziness or defective eyesight? Is the skin dry and harsh? Are you failing in health and strength and suffering from rheumatic pains or swelling of the limbs? These are a few of the symptoms of kidney disease, and here is the test. If the urine after standing for twenty-four hours is cloudy, milky or has particles floating about in it, or if there is a sediment in the bottom of the vessel, your kidneys are diseased.

There is no time to lose in beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They will help you more quickly than any treatment you can obtain, and that is one reason why they are so successful and popular.

LONDON, June 25. Intense embitterment has been engendered by the forcible feeding of the imprisoned suffragettes, who declared a hunger strike while in jail. This was reflected by an extraordinary scene yesterday afternoon in the Commons, when Lansbury, Socialist, denounced Asquith and the Government in such terms that he was ordered to leave the House by the Speaker, who threatened to have him ejected, except he went out voluntarily. Healy, Nationalist, had appealed to the Premier to release the women, to which Asquith replied "they could leave the prison on undertaking not to repeat the offences. Lansbury projected himself at the Treasury Bench, shouting his fist in the face of Asquith and other ministers. With his face a few inches from that of Asquith, Lansbury screamed, "You're beneath contempt; you know women can't give such an undertaking; it is dishonourable to ask them to do so. Talk about Russian atrocities, eh! Why you (the Govt.) fell down in history as the torturers and murderers of innocent women. You ought to be driven out of office." The speaker finally secured quiet, and ordered Lansbury to leave. He replied, "I am not going out while these contemptible things are torturing and murdering women." He yelled this out in loud voice, and appeared much excited. When the speaker warned him he would be thrown out, unless he went out by his own accord, the labor members gathered around him and induced him to be quiet.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, This Morning. Intense embitterment has been engendered by the forcible feeding of the imprisoned suffragettes, who declared a hunger strike while in jail. This was reflected by an extraordinary scene yesterday afternoon in the Commons, when Lansbury, Socialist, denounced Asquith and the Government in such terms that he was ordered to leave the House by the Speaker, who threatened to have him ejected, except he went out voluntarily. Healy, Nationalist, had appealed to the Premier to release the women, to which Asquith replied "they could leave the prison on undertaking not to repeat the offences. Lansbury projected himself at the Treasury Bench, shouting his fist in the face of Asquith and other ministers. With his face a few inches from that of Asquith, Lansbury screamed, "You're beneath contempt; you know women can't give such an undertaking; it is dishonourable to ask them to do so. Talk about Russian atrocities, eh! Why you (the Govt.) fell down in history as the torturers and murderers of innocent women. You ought to be driven out of office." The speaker finally secured quiet, and ordered Lansbury to leave. He replied, "I am not going out while these contemptible things are torturing and murdering women." He yelled this out in loud voice, and appeared much excited. When the speaker warned him he would be thrown out, unless he went out by his own accord, the labor members gathered around him and induced him to be quiet.
