Girls' Friendly Society.

At the Synod Hall, last night, an entertainment, marking the conclusion of the meetings of the institution, was held by the members of the Girls' Friendly Society and was largely attended. It took the form of a lantern lecture, and in a very entertaining manner Lady Horwood, Secretary of the Society, explained the various views, which illustrated scenes in England, the Continent of Europe, Africa and the West Indies. These comprised pictures of all the capitals and other cities. During the evening there were choruses by the girls who were trained by Miss N. Rendell, and these were beautifully rendered. Mr. W. Gray manipulated the lantern in a most satisfactory manner. The Society is now put to great inconvenience for want of a Hall or Lodge and it is likely that one will be built in due course.

Almeriana will proceed to Montreal from the Old Country and ply in the St. Lawrence-Liverpool trade, in conjunction with other steamers of the Furness Withy Line.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to correct two statements made in the quotation from the "Toronto Saturday Night," re "Religions in Canada," published in the Evening Telegram.

From the reading of this extract one would be led to believe that the people known as the Christadelphians were believers in the "spirit world." Allow me to say that such is not the case, but entirely the reverse, they being staunch believers that man has not an immortal soul, but is mortal naturally, inheriting this nature from Adam; that at Death he is dead, ceases to be, in Solomon's words, "He knows not anything," until the resurrection takes place, at the return of Christ.

Statement No. 2. "We support," infers that they are in support of the Dominion. I beg to say that they do not in any part of the world receive any support whatever from any state, but are absolutely self-supporting in every particular.

Yours truly,
"CHRISTADELPHIAN."

Presentation.

Miss Murphy, of the Royal Stores Dressmaking Dept., was taken by surprise on Friday last when the young lady employees presented her with a real English leather suit case and an illuminated address, it being the eve of her departure for Boston. Miss Murphy replied in suitable terms, thanking them for their kind token of esteem. Miss Murphy left for the Morwenza on Saturday evening, taking with her the assurance of esteem in which she had been held by all concerned who wished her the same success in the land of her adoption.

Running Short of Provisions.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Owing to the prevailing ice which has blocked the harbors for four consecutive weeks, we were shut off from communication and many of the places were running short of provisions. But to contradict a statement which was lately rumored around, about the people starving here and the menacing of a person for something to eat, I beg to tell the publisher that it is false. As regards the people surrounding him, the statement was made from the writer borrowing a tub of butter from his wife during his absence as the stores here were out of the article referred to at that time, and the possibility of getting it from any other place was practically beyond my reach owing to ice blockades. The people here were far from starving and could have held out for a fortnight or three weeks longer. I shall warn the writer to keep a silent tongue in future, if not he will find himself up against iron bars. Thanks to Providence we have been blessed with a N.E. wind which has freed most of the harbors and given us a chance of getting our mails, etc., once more. Indeed the gloomy circumstances of many of our small places were very sad and looked as if starvation would be the result. The winter stocks were almost exhausted, and before the spring stocks could be secured, the ice became so impact that the chances of getting anything was impossible. The s.s. Susu has paid us another visit which is the first since the 14th of March. Although the ice has hampered the mail service somewhat of late, yet we are impressed with the idea that the steamer could have got around before if the captain felt inclined to gratify the people's wishes. We do not give Capt. Horwood much credit for causing us such long delays, because he could do a much better work in this line if only he would impress upon himself that he is the people's servant and not the Government's. Capt. Horwood is indeed a very obliging man, yet he requires more ability and earnestness in his work. There is an old saying that "an ounce of ability with a pound of earnestness will accomplish a great deal more than a pound of ability and an ounce of earnestness," and I believe it. Let us hope that Capt. Horwood will see this in a clear light, and give us better satisfaction in the future than he has done in the past.

Sincerely yours,

PRIOR.

SPRING Skin Troubles

Mothers who have used Zam-Buk know how it cures Spring Skin Troubles in Children or Adults. Mothers who have not yet tried it should note these facts—Zam-Buk was unknown ten years ago, yet such is its merit that to-day it has become the standard salve in the homes of four continents! Zam-Buk is purely herbal; contains no poisonous coloring matter; is used by leading medical men; used in the British Army and Navy; used by all best fitted to know the needs of the skin. Make it your family balm!

Mr. J. C. Bates, of Burks Falls (Ont.), says:—"Zam-Buk cured my three children, who were all broken out in sores to such an extent that it was pitiable to see them. These sores had defied all remedies previously applied, but I am glad to say Zam-Buk healed them."

Miss S. C. Hamilton, of Alliston (Ont.), says:—"My face and hands were one mass of pimples and blotches. These would itch, and when rubbed, broke out into sores. Whenever I put water near the affected parts it caused a stinging sensation and much pain—just as if I had been scalded. Nothing that I applied seemed to do me any good until I tried Zam-Buk. That gave me relief, and a few weeks of the Zam-Buk treatment resulted in a perfect cure."

Zam-Buk cures pimples, skin eruptions, cuts, burns, bruises, piles, festering sores, ulcers, blood-poisoning, eczema, ringworm, bad leg, discolored skin, and all skin diseases and irritations. Rubbed well into the parts affected, it cures neuralgia, rheumatism, and sciatica. All Druggists and Stores sell it at 25c. box, three for $1.25, or send free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

At The Casino.

A warning to jealous husbands, was the text of the comedy at the Casino last evening. The tendency to laugh at the misfortunes of others was illustrated last night, in an able manner, by this talented company. A druggist, named Twitters, marries a young wife who has been married before to a man who has found it necessary to change his name on several occasions, thus leaving his widow a variety of names which leads to a lot of very funny complications. Mr. Henry Denton plays the role of Twitters in such a side-splitting manner that it proves him to be a comedian of great execution. He sustains the burden of the comedy on shoulders which proved to be broad, and won a reputation which will not be forgotten, and which leads us to expect more good work from him. Miss Barleon, as his wife, was natural and pleasing. Mr. Reed, as the commercial traveller, who caused Twitters' jealousy, was brisk and manly. Mr. Wright, in a low comedy role as Twitters' assistant and general factotum, was as clever in low comedy as in light. Mrs. Barr was very amusing and entertaining as the housekeeper who resented interference in her special privileges. Miss Elvira, the wife's friend, was bright and winning as usual; and George Barr, in the role of a countryman, added to the fun. The play in rehearsal for Thursday, Friday and Saturday is a tabloid of "The Lure of the Golden West" something different from former offerings and showing to great advantage the talent of the company.

SECOND SALT CARGO.—The s.s. Daleby, Capt. E. S. Clarke, arrived here at 3 p.m. yesterday from Santa Polo, with 5,000 tons salt for Job Bros. & Co. The ship came out in 17 days and had fair weather all through. She is a ship of 3,600 tons gross, built in 1900 and this is her first visit to St. John's.

S.S. Eagle Here With Ranger in Tow.

The S. S. Eagle, Capt. E. Bishop, towing the S. S. Ranger, Capt. Kneel, arrived in port shortly after last midnight. The former reports for 18,000 seals, 5,000 of which are old, and the Ranger hauls for 2,500 bedlamers. Capt. Bishop reports that he was into the whitecoats on March 14th and 17th. Out of the two patches he got 13,000. No more young harps were taken. The Eagle then steamed away in quest of the old ones and met with fair success. On Friday last, April 18th, the Eagle came alongside the Ranger and Capt. Kneel reported his ship to be crippled and unmanageable, she having her main shaft broken. The mishap occurred on Thursday, April 17, while the vessel was trying to butt through the ice. The Eagle took the Ranger in tow and brought her to port. While towing the hawse broke three times, latterly off Wesleyville, as reported yesterday.

The Ranger was in company with the Kite in the early part of the voyage jammed until the young harps took to the water. Capt. Kneel spoke to the Kite on April 6th. The Kite has 900 old seals and her prospects are bright. The Diana, Bloodhound and Erik were seen but their catches not reported. It is likely all three vessels will see the close of the voyage.

Fishery News.

The Board of Trade yesterday had a letter from Mr. T. Soper, of Channel, dated the 12th inst., saying that 1,871 qtls. of codfish had been caught there to that date while the previous week 615 qtls. were landed. At Connaigre Bay the catch was 681 qtls. and for the week ended before the letter was sent 80 qtls. Scarcity of bait and the presence of ice prevented better work being done.
