Some Opinions.

By RUTH CAMERON.

"Does it pay?" "Yes, it does pay to pay one's bills, because the creditors profit by that action. But does it pay for a girl—for instance—to behave respectfully? I so into an eating house and sit and eat my dinner quietly—because I have to eat in order to live. Others spend every cent they have—and haven't—on pretty clothes, manicuring, hairdressing, etc., and flirt with every man in the place. They are getting a lot of fun out of their dinner. They are liked and petted and helped everywhere. I am respectable—and humdrum. Nobody cares a hang for me!

"I wonder what Molly and the Cynic and the Lady-Who-Always-Knows-Somewhat have to say to that?" So writes a letter friend.

"But They Don't Marry Her"

I showed the letter to the Cynic. He said: "Yes, I know what she means. There certainly seems to be an attraction about the girl who has a reputation for being a little bit fast. Men always flock about her. But," he finished, "they don't marry her."

I showed the letter to the Lady-Who-Always-Knows-Somewhat.

"Poor child," she said. "She's probably in one of those dreadful black moods that we sometimes have—especially when we are young and don't realize that things never stay so black. I wish she had signed the letter, so I could write to her and tell her that it does pay. You have your self-respect and that's the biggest thing in the world—though you sometimes lack perspective and think it isn't. Some day she'll meet the right man and then she'll be so glad she didn't flirt with every man in the place."

I wonder What He Meant!

I showed the letter to the Author-man.

"I say," he said, "that reminds me of a quotation." And he whipped out his bill-finder, that he keeps full of his latest finds, and read: "To withstand steadfastly the allurements of life, yet pass no censure on those who yield to them, denotes a gentle breadth of character, far removed from the complacent self-esteem of the 'unco-guid.'"

What Molly Thought.

Lastly, I showed the letter to Molly.

She pondered upon it. "It is hard," she said finally, "to see silly over-dressed, selfish girls getting all the fun and admiration, but—"

"But what?" said I.

"But don't you think that sometimes a girl blames her lack of popularity on the fact that she is straight, when it really is just because she isn't bright and amusing, because she lacks life and charm?"

"That might well be so," said I.

So now my letter friend need wonder no longer what Molly and Co. think about this matter.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen—I had my leg badly hurt, the pain was very severe and a large swelling came above the knee. I expected it would be serious—I rubbed it with MINARD'S LINIMENT which stopped the pain and reduced the swelling very quickly. I cannot speak too highly of MINARD'S LINIMENT.

Your Boys and Girls.

For the woman who can sew the best investment she can possibly make of her time is to buy one piece of smooth fine English nainsook or long cloth and herself cut and make the six little slips her coming baby will need. The simple well known Bishop pattern is probably the best.

This style of dress is gathered at the neck and sleeves into little bands of narrow embroidery or beading and finished off with a tiny lace.

The whole should come to less than fifty cents for each garment, and if neatly made by hand he has a dress that would cost about three or four dollars to buy all made.

These six slips will do for night and day, and will be enough, although it is well to have a best dress for the baptism and for the showing off which every poor baby must endure. One white petticoat for this best dress is plenty, as the slips are worn directly over the flannel skirt.

The Real Friend in a Large Bottle.

The greatest friend to sick people is the one that helps them toward health. But nearly every human friend had heretofore suggested a different means of regaining lost health due to nervousness, overwork, debility and worry. Now there are dozens of friends right here in your own town who will agree that the best friend to their health is Zoetic—the health tonic.

This already famous remedy for "nerves" and their consequent ailments is a combination of glycerophosphates—the actual elements of the human body—with Cod Liver Oil and delicious tonic wine. A short two weeks of faithful trial will put you fair and square upon the path of bounding health. We know this so absolutely that if you cannot report real progress at the end of that time we will refund the purchase price. You who suffer and suffer and suffer should not delay beyond to-day. Sold by T. McMurdo & Co., Sole Distributing Agents for Newfoundland.

LIGHT, HEAT, COMFORT!

The proprietor of one of the best known multiple shopping systems is credited with saying, "Give me any old shop, in any old street, and I'll guarantee to make it in twelve months the most widely known and best frequented shop in the district." He was asked to explain. Holding up three fingers he said, "I believe in the trinity of LIGHT, WARMTH, COMFORT. I should dazzle the moths until the candle drew them, I should bring them into a warm, comfortable shop, filled with a soft, pleasing radiance, and the rest is—well, mere child's play."

Mixed metaphors, perhaps, but expressive. Now we can more than imagine the kind of shop this well-known individual would open, for we pass it in almost every town—always a landmark to the street. No one fails to notice it. There is an indefinable air of welcome and invitation as one stands for a moment on the pathway and lets one's gaze travel inside it. The subdued, restful lighting effect that so charms because of its very unobtrusiveness, the absence of dark corners, the intangible feeling that if one would stop inside one would be sure of experiencing a delicious sense of warmth and comfort and cheerfulness—all these are part of its appeal. Truly a shop with an individuality.

We cordially invite all progressive business men to visit our showroom and see our latest Lightings and Heating Appliances, by the adoption of which the ideal outline in the above extract from a London paper may be easily secured. Our new RADIO X. Lamp and GAS-TEAM Radiators fill all light and heat requirements.
