DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

Don't forget to-night's double-header!

Help the orphans!

You'll get your money's worth all right witnessing Claude Hall and his contrite crew trying to do the "come-back" stunt.

The B.I.S. figure that they can duplicate the Wanderers' feat. They reckon that their worst days are over, and the H. D. Reid trophy looks good to Bertie.

Member how dee-lighted fans were with the last junior game? Well the St. John's and St. Paul's lads go to it to-night. They also have to play this preliminary to see who gets in the finals at Mount Cashel.

Getting Ready for the Dance. Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard To get her fair daughter a dress. When she got there, the cupboard was bare And so was her daughter—F. Guess.

Many friends of George Fortier of the Grand Falls team, will regret to learn that a pitched ball by Sebati Foran smashed his ear-drum last week, causing permanent deafness.

the orphans, and the fans are right behind them in their laudable efforts.

Lipton has got the TEA; they might as well let him have the CUP.

Cubs maintain they lost out by having to play three fields—the infield, the outfield, and—Rex.

FROM AN OLD FRIEND OF THE GAME.

Halifax, 16th July, 1920. Many thanks for your kindly remembrance in the shape of a Season Ticket to the Baseball games at St. John's, and I hope that before the end of the season I may have the opportunity of using it.

I am glad to note that the press is giving encouragement to the game by devoting considerable space to it and hope that the younger boys are becoming interested, as it is only through them that the game can hope to flourish.

I note there was a "tempest in the pot" and that the Umpires felt themselves ill-used by Harvey Thomas. I should have thought that our old friend the Umpire-in-Chief with his 7 years' experience behind him would not have taken the matter seriously; and taking into consideration the size of our friend H.T., would have been able to have looked over his head without realizing that he was there.

I would like you to puzzle over the following knotty problem, turning over this letter and reading the answer:—

Base-runner on third starts for home, coacher running alongside him asks for a loan of $10.00. Umpire declares runner out. Why?

Answer.—Under the rules, if the base-runner from third is "touched" by the coacher, the Umpire may declare him out.

With best regards to all.

Yours very truly,

A MONTGOMERIE.

TO A FIVE SPOT.

Crinkle, crinkle, little bill.

Goodness gracious, you look ill; Are you losing all your power?

You look weaker every hour.

Now that prices are so high, I'm so tired that I could die; I just circulate all day, No one dares put me away.

When the evening board is set, With the fruit of father's sweat; My small voice is hushed and still— I am in the butcher's till.

And no matter where I go, People disregard me so; I don't seem to count for much, Amongst the profiteers and such.

Bill, take heart, your luck may change, I'll admit the times are strange; Though you're weak I love you still, Crinkle, crinkle, little bill.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL.—The football match last evening between the C.E.L. and Collegians was fairly well attended. A good exhibition was given, the C.E.L. defeating the Collegians by 3 goals to 1. Mr. Fred Brien acted as referee.

Oh! it's all very well For the carmen to tell Of the joy of a long tight pull.

But for high class thrill Let me swat the old pill For a home-run clout with the bases full.

Sir Edgar Bowring has presented a magnificent silver trophy for annual competition at the Church of England Garden Party. In addition, the Sports Committee is presenting a beautiful set of 10 gold and silver medals. So buckle on your armour, boys, for next week. The proceeds of the preliminary games go to the Garden Party funds.

One hundred dollars of Wednesday's Garden Party receipts go to the Methodist Orphanage as a donation from the baseballers.

The lads are sure doing their bit for Lovers' Lot.

Do you like the idea of "cosy corners for carressing couples?" The rector of a church in New York has made his church very popular by offering the room behind it as a "lovers' loft."

Young couples who come to his church, and would like to have a chance to talk and hold each other's hands before or after the service, may retire to this room, and if they talk in undertones they won't be heard by any of the other couples in the room, because it is big and spacious, with sofas and palms and screens, which give the effect of seclusion.
