Bishop Renouf Visits Bonne Bay and Innismara.

(Western Star.)

On Sunday, the 10th July, His Lordship Bishop Renouf left St. George's by train en route for Bonne Bay. He remained at Peirle's until Monday evening, when he continued his journey north by the S.S. Stella Maris. At midnight the Stella Maris reached Bonne Bay, where the Pastor, Rev. W. Brennan, received His Lordship.

On Tuesday afternoon a meeting was held in the Parish Hall, where a beautiful address was presented His Lordship from the people of Bonne Bay. The address, which was read by one of the school children, was presented with a bouquet of flowers. After His Lordship's reply the parishioners were introduced to him individually.

On the following morning the Bishop celebrated Mass and immediately afterwards many children from Woody Point and the surrounding districts were confirmed. Bonne Bay, pretty at all times, presented a more than usually pleasant aspect on this occasion. Decorations were in evidence everywhere, the arch at the Church between two cedar-like poplars attracting special attention. During the afternoon His Lordship received many visitors, the inhabitants without distinction calling to pay their respects.

On Thursday Mass was again celebrated before a large congregation. The afternoon was spent by the Bishop party in visiting Lomond and other settlements around the arms.

Confirmation Along the Coast.

The S.S. Home left Bonne Bay on Friday morning with the Episcopal party on board. Confirmation was held in passing at Cow Head and Bartlett's Hr., both of which places received His Lordship with the usual sign of greeting and welcome. The Home reached Ferrolle in the evening with all its decorations displayed. A great reception was given to the Bishop at Ferrolle. Flags flew from every dwelling, and arches decorated with flowers were erected at several points; salvo after salvo rang out welcome as the motor boat bearing His Lordship reached the wharf and continued till he had passed through the arches on his way to the house of Mr. Rumbolt, who entertained the Episcopal party.

The following morning the Bishop celebrated Mass for the people of Ferrolle and administered Confirmation to several children. Immediately after Mass His Lordship left by motor boat for Bird Cove, where again an enthusiastic reception was given him, evidenced by a display of flags and bunting and continual pealing of musketry. He left after confirmation and went by motor boat across St. John's Bay to Port aux Choix. Port aux Choix was "on fete." Flags and bunting were liberally displayed, and the road was beautifully lined with fresh green trees. During their stay the Episcopal party were entertained by M. Breton. Sunday morning began with the celebration of three Masses. Confirmation was held after the last Mass. In the afternoon His Lordship visited Point Riche, and on his return the party was driven by M. Breton to Port Saunders. The reception given by the people of Port Saunders was again whole-hearted and enthusiastic. On Monday morning a large number of children received the Holy Ghost at His Lordship's hands after Mass. At noon the S.S. Home reached Port Saunders on the return journey from the Labrador coast. The Episcopal party again boarded her, and the tour of Bonne Bay Parish was concluded by Confirmation on the same evening at Parson's Pond.

Confirmation at Innismara.

On Tuesday morning His Lordship reached Innismara. He was met on the back by the pastor, Father Callan, and many of the parishioners. Innismara, in spite of the heavy rain, lacked nothing in the earnestness and enthusiasm of the reception given to His Lordship. Confirmation was held in the evening and many children, some of whom came from outlying districts of the parish, were recipients of the sacrament. The Bishop celebrated Mass on the following morning, and soon after took leave of Innismara by the mail boat George I.

None Better Than Local Men.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—There is no doubt that the public will agree with the stand taken by several members of the Opposition relative to the letter written by Mr. McIntosh, an imported manager for one of our principal industries. On the contents of the letter referred to, probably enough, Mr. Walsh is going to let us have a little more, but the most important point at issue, taken from the speeches of the members, is the fact that the public is just about fed up with those importations from other countries, whether alien or British, to fill positions over which the natives have practically spent their life at the business, and understand more about local requirements and conditions than those imported managers ever expect to learn.

If the truth were known to the directors and shareholders of several of these large corporations who do the work, and who draw the large salaries, the importation of those managers would become a thing of the past, and the sooner the better. If it were possible, Mr. Editor, the young man, a list of responsible positions held by Newfoundlanders, throughout Canada and the United States, positions that those boys and men have worked to get by sheer intellect, ability and hard work, you would easily convince some of those big concerns referred to, that both their business and their profits would be as safe in the hands of a good local man, who understand our people better in the way of handling help than anyone they could send across the water.

The only trouble with us is we do too much of "hiding our light under a bushel," instead of letting loose that energy within us, and convincing those people what can be done by local help, and thus demonstrate to the world that there is no job in Newfoundland too big for a Newfoundlanders.

Yours truly,
NATIVE.

Cuticura Healed.

"Eczema started on my face around my chin. It came out in blisters and the itching and burning were very disagreeable. Sleep was out of the question and my face was disfigured so I was a well-to-do man. I tried everything but nothing would do any good. I procured a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which soon healed me." (Signed) Miss Carrie H. Bristol, Gray, Dry Mills, Me.

Northcliffe Has Idea of Prohibition.

New York, July 26.—Lord Northcliffe, who is enjoying the lure of the metropolis for a short while, before resuming his trip toward the Far East, has joined the list of visiting personages who exhibit a sense of humor in discussing matters appertaining to the eighteenth amendment and its enforcement. Asked what he thought of prohibition, he said:

"Take me to a place where there is prohibition and I'll tell you what I think about it."

Which recalls that a Rumanian prince on a recent visit to New York asked:

"When does prohibition begin?"

Are You A Grocery Salesman?

A salesman sells goods, he doesn't fall asleep on the job. He doesn't have to be driven. He works with his head.

Salesmen in grocery stores are pushing Lantic Sugar in packages because Lantic packages save the trouble of weighing, eliminate waste, save bags and twine.

A 2 pound and a 5 pound package of Lantic fills an order for 7 pounds of sugar. 2 2's and 2 5's make a stone of sugar, saving time and trouble.

Now you have an opportunity to show your boss whether you are a salesman or merely a clerk. It's up to you to push Lantic in packages.

The profit on sugar is only a little over 1 cent per lb., and on such a small margin no grocery store can afford to waste time, bags, twine and risk a loss in weight.

Lantic Package Sugar is guaranteed to be full weight of the best granulated white sugar. Tell your customers about it. They'll like Lantic.
