The Renown will take with her for receptions several thousand cups and saucers, plates, knives, forks and spoons. The provisions include 112,000 pounds of fiour, 15,000 pounds of "bully" beef, 6,000 pounds of salmon and 2,000 pounds of pounds of salmon and 2,000 pounds of ships' biscuits. For the use of the ships' biscuits. For the use of the officers there will be a stock of 195,000 cigarettes, 2,000 dozen bottles of wine and 9,000 cigars, the latter in addittion to 5,000 cigars taken by the Prince of Wales himself. Throughout his Australian tour the Prince preferred, during the day, to smoke a pipe of tobacco but after dinner he invariably had a Havana. Apart from the monthly issue of loose and leaf tobacco the men's smoking needs will be met by the canteen on board, and for them there will also be 6,860 gallons of neat rum and 4,000 gallons of lime juice.

Rarefeet and Hatless.

The people live very simply, mostly, on fruit and Indian corn and arrowoot, all of which they grow themelves. There are wild goats on the sland, but no other animals, save their pet dogs and cats, and they keep iltry: tiny little birds they are. For clothes they are entirely depen-dent on the outside world. The men ostly wear just shirt and trousers, nd the women a long straight cotton Evidently a large bale of Turkey red twill had found its way to the island, as the children were mostely clad in it! They nearly all, grownclad in it! They nearly all, grownups and children, went barefoot, but church. They were mostly bareheaded, too, and apparently only the magistrate and his immediate belongings possess such a thing as a hat. The women showed very little curiosity as to the outside world, but the men seemed full of interest and asked most intelligent questions.
