

On Saturday night last in St. Catharines, Mr. Fred. Vine left his place of business and started for home on foot. His residence is near the G. W. R. Station. When in sight of his own house he was set upon by four ruffians, seized the skirts of his overcoat and threw him over his head, thus rendering him helpless. He was held in this manner, while two of the gang made a search of his person, taking some thirty-six dollars from his pockets. He was then knocked down and kicked once or twice; and as he cried for help, the ruffians made off. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this outrage will be discovered and punished. The next of villains infesting that portion of the town should be broken up at whatever cost.
