tary Bryan
At Washing

Washington, June 4. Chinda, the ambassador, yesterday called on Bryan with for Japan had accepted the universal peace. Signatories of Mr. Bryan's plan from last year at least nine million claims are by any international treaty. In the case of ten other nations the proposal of response applies principle involved in the case of the United States. The results of the may be many more. In the case of the Bryan submitted basis and legal firm which will be approved.

No Bear. The statement of the ambassador that prepared to give consideration to the has no bearing on negotiations. The two countries have been in his call upon the ambassador from various sources but without any. The Japanese yet called the instructions regarding its reconsideration and it is known the matter.
