good demand for hides, the receipts are light, and the market is firm. There is talk at Washington of a duty per cent being imposed on hides. If that is done, the tendency will be to check exports from Canada, make the offerings for the home market larger, and bring about lower prices. Local dealers quote 8c for green cows, 8½c for Steers, and 8½c for cured. Lambskins—The receipts are fair, and the market is steady at 35c to 40c; shearlings are quoted at 25c. being young people, who, judging from appearances, were enjoying themselves immensely. Then there were redcoats and stalwart guardians of the peace in different parts of the grounds, whose services were not called into play, and last, but not least was a detachment of the Salvation Army, generaled by Adjutant Cass, with his limelight show of Bible pictures. The object mainly is to advertise the coming of Eva Booth and other big Salvation Army guns, to hold a series of meetings, commencing Saturday night next. The theater was well attended in the afternoon and evening, and the merry-go-round was kept busy up till 9:30. The steamboat has done the largest business of the season, ending up with a start for the city on its sixth trip at ten minutes past 11 last night. The street car company fills the bill in every respect. They can and do handle immense crowds of people with ease and safety. It is understood that the Salvation Army Band will make regular trips to the park by boat in the near future.
