PROCLAMATION BY THE GREEK COMMANDER

A dispatch from Athens says that Greek troops have landed at the Bay of Kolymbari. Col. Vassos, the com-mander of the Greek forces in Crete, has issued the following proclamation:
"Cretans—You are suffering from the present state of anarchy, and are exposed to the excesses of a fanatical populace—excesses which have awakened the national sentiment, and have eeply stirred the Hellenic people. lamentable situation of a peopl the same race and the same on having common destinies with ourselves, could not any longer be al-lowed to exist. The King of the Hellenes has resolved to end this state of things by proclaiming a Greek oc-cupation of the island. In making this proclamation, I promise, in the name of King George, to protect the habitants without distinction of religion or nationality, to respect religious convictions of the inhabitants while oringing to them peace and law."

THE GREEK VICTORY. When the first definite news of a creek victory in Crete was received the wildest enthusiasm followed. The Greeks, it is said, attacked and cap-tured Fort Aghia, taking 400 Mussulmans prisoners. Among the number are 100 Turkish troops, the remainder of the prisoners being Moslems who hau taken refuge in the fort. Details of the engagement are lacking. One report states that no fighting occurred the garrison surrendering upon the de mand of the Greek commander. As no mention of any losses is made in any of the dispatches, it is surmised that SHOP GIRLS. The National Council of Women is taking hold of the matter of the overworking of shop girls and boys. A representative deputation asked the Ontario Government yesterday to en-act legislation that would amend the Shops Act to protect shop girls in a similar mamner as the factory girls are protected by the Factory Act. They desire that the act should limit the time of work in shops of boys under 14 and of girls under 16 to 60 hours per week. The lunch hour at noon and 45 minutes for supper, as well as a proper lunch room in the larger establishments, are among their other requests. Opening Testimony for the Prosecution -Did Prisoner Poison His Wife?

Bracebridge, Ont., Feb. 17.-At 9:30 a.m. yesterday court was reopened, and the trial of the Hammond murder case was resumed before Justice Mac-Mahon The address of Mr. B. B. Osler, crown counsel, outlined in minute details the nature of the evidence which the crown would submit. The first witness called was Wm. Galbraith, P. L. S., Bracebridge, who certified that the plan of that portion of the town of Gravenhurst, showing where the body was found, and pro-duced in court, was correct.

Ida Campbell followed. She knew Katle Tough. In company with Miss

Bailey, witness was going down Brown street, when she saw an object on the snow ond heard a groan. She went to Mr. Bailey's house, and in com-pany with Alex. Bailey returned to the oody. The body was a few feet off the regular track, in the soft snow. The body was not recognized by witness until Mr. Barton came with a lantern. John Bowles, Bailey, Dr. Campbell and prisoner carried the body to the house. Prisoner was not present when witness first left the body to go for her fa-ther. Mining Investments.

Two well-known mining men, Messrs. Howard C. Walters, president, and J. C. Drewry, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Gold Fields Syndicate, Ltd., arrived in London from Rossland last evening and registered at the Tebumseh. Mr. Walters has the reputation of being one of the best practation of being one of the best practical mine operators in the west. Mr. Drewry has spent the last six months at Rossland as the representative of the Toronto Globe. He quickly became interested in mines and mining stocks, and with such good success. stocks, and with such good success that he is now known both in land and Toronto as "Lucky" Drewry. Messrs. Walters and Drewry will will be pleased to meet intending in vestors or parties already interested in the mines of British Columbia. LIFE SAVED,-Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, sating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on the medicine this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me: certainly believed it saved It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
