A CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE—

Parma's Vegetable Pills are compounded for use in any climate, and they will be found to preserve their powers in any latitude. In fever and ague they act upon the secretions and neutralize the poison which has found its way into the blood. They correct the impurities which find entrance into the system through drinking water or food, and if used as a preventive fevers are avoided.

"KERRY GOW" AT THE GRAND.

A splendid audience gathered last evening in the Grand Opera House and enjoyed the presentation of "Kerry Gow" by the veteran Irish comedian, Joseph Murphy, and his clever company. For the best part of half a century this play has been a perennial source of pleasure to those who love to witness a charming picture of Irish life and character in the old times, without the accessories of bludgeon, knife and gunpowder, so common to this class of plays. Father Time has dealt gently with Joe, and his portrayal of the ardent but bashful lover, Dan O'Hara, would have done credit to a youth just out of his teens. Mr. Murphy has surrounded himself with a well-balanced company that give him excellent support. One member, Mr. Frank McLaughlin (who has adopted "Frank McLean" as his stage name) was recognized as a London old boy and accorded a hearty welcome. He took

PINEY WOODS

Healthful But Not Always Curative

To go to the pine woods is a help, but if one carries along the bad habits of the city, the pine woods will not produce a recovery.

—Coffee drinking caused blindness in a Virginia gentleman, and his remarkable experience in his recovery.

"I have been a coffee drinker since my earliest remembrance. If I missed coffee at a meal it brought me heart ache, and I have shown me that I was a victim to a drug habit. Finally, wakeful, restless nights came on. After dinner I was always drowsy and after sleeping would wake up stupid and morbid, and felt as though I had been drugged, and when this feeling would set in until I drugged myself with coffee again.

—"At last my eyesight began to fail.

Some of the best optical specialists agreed that I had an affection of the optic nerve, and after two or three years treatment my eyes slowly lost their power and I became almost sightless.

—"I was advised to go to a pine woods near the sea in a most isolated place.

This I did, and lived there for two years without any visible benefit. I gave up all hope of recovery until last spring a friend expressed the belief that the coffee I drank was the cause of my trouble. It was then a slave to it, and had been unable to find relief until he quit and took up Postum Food Coffee.

—"His experience startled me, and I decided to try the change although I had but little faith in its merits.

My first cup of Postum proved delicious and was a great surprise. It was gentle well made, I had not the slightest trouble in leaving off coffee for the Postum filled its place perfectly.

—"During the past six months I have gained in flesh, my yellow complexion has become clear, and my eyesight gradually improved, until now I am able to read and write. My mind is once more clear and active, and I no longer suffer from sleepless, nervous spells. You can imagine I feel grateful for my restoration."

W. Harold Fenton, Brighton, Va.

Consumptive League asked the council to co-operate with the county council in erecting a consumption sanitarium by voting for this purpose $7,000.

Ald. Campbell had intended to move that this bylaw be prepared, and submitted to the people, but as the time was too short, the communication was referred to No. 1 committee.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

A deputation of ratepayers on Talbot street appeared to protest against the construction of the tar macadam roadway on that street. Mr. Henry Macklin was their spokesman. He said that they knew the roadway was in a deplorable state and should be improved. The proposed work would cost $20,000, of which $15,000 must be paid by the property owners. This they considered was too large a percentage, and that the larger share should be borne by the city, as the thoroughfare was used for the most part by farmers whose visits to the city benefited the whole community.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Mr. Macklin was followed by Mr. John Taylor, who spoke along similar lines. The council was told that fifty out of 73 ratepayers were opposed to it. The deputation was assured that the work would not be done this year.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

No. 2 committee recommended that no street scrapers be bought for the use of snow clearing.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Crony asked if this meant the abandonment of all attempts at improving the present situation and suggested that information be obtained regarding the frontage system, as followed in Ottawa.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Parnell said that the board had asked the engineer to report upon this plan and he had reported that according to the municipal act it was not feasible.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Jolly said that he was not surprised when he read the report. He stated had opposed it, to see that his proposal regarding the scrapers, had been filed.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

This annoyed Ald. Olmsted, who said that if he had a wagon shop and a machine shop in his back yard, as Ald. Jolly had, he would probably have voted for the snow plow for $25.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Jolly—I didn't say anything of the kind. Don't lie.

Ald. Olmsted—I said he did.

Ald. Jolly—It is he.

The Mayor—Order, gentlemen.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Olmsted—If I wanted to furnish a job to some of my people I might as well do it.

Ald. Jolly—He said he was prepared to build a snow plow for $25.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Olmsted—I'll leave it to the chairman.

Ald. Wrennet—What Ald. Jolly said was he could get it built for $25.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Jolly—Yes, that is what I said.

Ald. Olmsted—Gleason Bros. have Ald. Jolly's shop and they offered to build the plow for $15, and he guaranteed the price. I think I have a reputation for telling the truth just as well as my worthy brother, Alderman Jolly.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Jolly—You did not tell it tonight.

"Your must drop these personalities," said the mayor.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Olmsted—Well, I have no sons to appoint in the city hall. I'm not working for myself. I don't like to be accused of running anything, because I don't.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

The plumbing bylaw was given its second reading, upon motion of Dr. Campbell, who said that the objection of the R. E. O. P. A. was based upon a misconception. It was not class legislation, and he could imagine opposition from no one except perhaps a dishonest plumber.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Parnell said that he had ideas upon the subject that were not in accord with the bylaw, and wished to express them at another time.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.

Ald. Campbell has never shown any disposition to hurry the matter, and was content to leave it over.

DO NOT WANT TO PAY.
