"FOOLS AND OAFS."

London, Thursday, Jan. 9 .- The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail has interviewed Rudyard Kipling, who has just arrived there. Mr. Kipling declared that the "fools" and "oafs' of his poem did not refer to the athletes serving at the front, for whom to the stay-at-homes. He declined to further rebut the criticisms of his

Only $100, on easy terms of payment. Heintzman & Co., 217 Dundas street, corner Clarence. of the German army in the war with France, 1870-71, has markedly increased he bitterness of the Anglo-German discord. The St. James Gazette, which calls Count Von Bustow a "swaggering Pharisee," says: "His offensive speech has brought the growing irritation between the two countries into a danger ous sphere. Even if Vou Buelow had been the head of a Republican ministry, dependent for its life on a fickle popular opinion, there would have been little excuse for his gross perversion of facts and breach of international

The St James Gazette concludes with expressing the belief that the 'Pharisaical impertinenece of the German press is profoundly distasteful to the Kaiser, who is manfully striving to stem the torrent which is bearing his empire towards the Niagara of disaster," and warns Germany that "both eastward and westward of her there is a menace which holds her armed to the teeth in sleepless viglance and when the expected catastrophe in Southeastern Europe her alone between the upper and nether millstone, she may bitterly regret the loss of the goodwill of this country which she is now flinging away with both hands."

"Von Buelow's words cannot fail to be hailed throughout Europe as a snub to Great Britain," says the Pall Mall Gazette, in an editorial headed "The Retort Discourteous.' The Globe accuses Von Buelow of 'deliberately pandering to the lowest and most ill-informed elements of public opinion in Germany." The Globe then lectures Emperor William for not checking the stream of foul lies and obscene caricatures in the German press.

The Westminster Gazette alone deprecates regarding Count Von Buelow's speech as a cause for further disturbing the relations between Great Britain and Germany.

ANOTHER SNUB. Such comments as those quoted above are bound to further inflame the public, already angered in consequence of the snub administered by Emperor William a few days ago, in the North German Gazette, the chief mouthpiece of the government, in which a note appeared saying that the statement in the English press to the effect that the German emperor had pressed the Prince of Wales to attend his birthday celebration, was untrue, and explaining that King Edward had suggested the visit and that Emperor William had sent an invitation.

VON BUELOW'S WORDS. In the Reichstag yesterday, after Count Von Stolberg-Wernigerode had denounced recent references to British colonial secretary to the German army, Count Von Buelow made a speech. He said:

"The last speaker alluded to a refrence an English minister recently made to the German army's conduct in the Franco-German war. Should he, however, wish to adduce examples from abroad, it is advisable that he should proceed with caution, as otherwise he may incur the risk of not only being misunderstood, but also of hurting foreign feelings, even though, as I am ready to assume, there was in the case of the present instance no intention of so doing.

"It is quite comprehensible that a people which has become so thoroughy part and parcel of its glorious army, as in Germany, should revolt at any appearance of the history of our glor-lous struggle for national unity being

UNITED IRISH LEAGUE. Dublin, Jan. 8 .- The national convention of the United Irish League, which opened here this morning under the presidency of John Redmond, was so largely attended that the spacious rotunda was overflowed. Most of the Nationalist members of parliament were present, and all sections of the party were fully represented by delemortal fame, as Andrew Carnegie had gates. Mr. Redmond's opening speech was largely statistical, and devoted to refuting the assertion of the chief secretary of Ireland, George Wyndham, that there were only 40 branches of the league. Mr. Redmond pledged his word that there were 1,230 live and paying branches. He declared that if the league movement was made dangerous by their enemies more help would be forthcoming from the United States Resolutions were adopted, denouncing the war and farm burning in South Africa, and condemning the land laws of Ireland. Mr. Redmond declared that whatever crime existed in Ireiand was deliberately promoted by the police and agents of the crown.

THE EMPRESS RULES. Pekin, Jan. 9 .- All the evidences indicate that the Emperor of China is now more completely under the domination of the dowager empress than he was before the Chinese court went into exile. Several high officials were granted audiences today, during which the emperor filled the roll of figurehead. The dowager empress sat on his majesty's left and conducted the conversations. According to the accounts of two of the officials who were received today, the dowager empress ignored the emperor, and the latter did not attempt to take any part in the affair. These officials say his majesty appeared melancholy and list-The principal tonic of conversation during these audiences was the presence in Pekin of the foreign garisons. The dowager empress seemed mpressed with the necessity of a conciliatory policy. CABLE NOTES. Emperor William is expected to attend the coronation of King Edward. The trial has been started in Vienna behind closed doors of Capt. Carina, of the Austrian cavalry, on the charge of having divulged military se-crets to the French Government in payment for which he is alleged to have received $10,000. The captain pleaded not guilty. The Paris correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the French Government is sounding Washington s to the attitude of the United States in the event of France's coercing Venezuela into paying the French claims against the republic.

FARMERS BLIND TO THEIR OWN INTERESTS

Killing the Pork Trade in Their Eager Haste to Sell Inferior Animals. Toronto, Jan. 9 .- F. W. Hodson, Dominion live stock commissioner, who is in the city, is of the opinion that the Ontario farmers are slapping themselves in the face these days and do not know it. Mr. Hodson says that owing to the high prices of pork, farmers are selling their hogs long before they are in fit condition for the market. If kept longer the animals complained of would meet all requirements, but the dying and material succor to those out as dentist to the corps.

coming short of these, they are break-ing down the pork industry. As an instance of this, it may be stated that recently out of 805 hogs sold to a local firm for export, only 16 were first-class. The same state of affairs, it is stated, reigns in all parts of the country. Mr. Hodson believes that fully 70 per cent of the hogs marketed now are inferior. The serious aspect of the situation is that the Canadian pork trade on the British market is threatened with disaster, and an immediate change is necessary or the foothold obtained by

Canadians in that market will be lost

COLLISION

Responsibility.

The Engineer of the White Plains Train Blamed-Names of the Victims.

New York, Jan. 9.-Responsibility for the collision in the New York Central Railway tunnel yesterday, in which 15 persons were killed and 40 injured, is unfixed, but Superintendent been able to discover, J. M. Wisker, to blame. It is declared that when the South Norwalk train stopped, a and when the rescuers returned Mrs. flagman ran back into the tunnel, and, Howard was dead. beside placing a torpedo on the track, endeavored to flag the on-coming train. The tunnel was beclouded with steam and smoke, while the snow, which fell through the air shafts, tended to obscure the view. Engineer Wisker and Fireman Christopher Flynn were arrested. A signal man was also detained for a time, but was

Superintendent Franklin has issued a statement as to the accident, in which he declares that the block signals at 59th street, were obeyed by the New Haven train, while the engineer of the White Plains train dicregarded

"The torpedo on the track went off," said the superintendent, "but he did not stop, even though the fireman called to him to do so. The system of block signals is such that it is a physical impossibility for a signal man to make his light declare the track free is another train is on the block." PROMINENT MEN KILLED.

Residents of New Rochelle contributed the largest number to the casualty list, because the rear of the South Norwalk local was reserved for them and was kept locked until the train reached that place. William Leys, one of the dead, was general manager of the drygoods firm of B. Altman & Co., of this city, and was prominent in commercial circles here. A. M. Perrin was second vice-president of the Union Bag and Paper Company, and was equally well-known. Perrin came here recently from Chicago. H. G. Diamond, who was killed, was assistant general manager of the American Bridge Company. Oscar W. Meyrowitz was an optician and secretary of the New Rochelle Yacht Club, and E. F. Walton was a well-known broker of New York. Late in the day the coroner questioned the trainmen, holding court at a police station. The inquiry was behind closed doors, and as a result of it, Signalman Flynn was released, while Fireman Fyler was held in bail of $5,000, and Engineer Wisker without bail.
