HAS TURNED UP

A German Captures the $5,000 Offer of N. Y. Physician.

CECELIA BLUM DISAPPOINTED in that manner, but the body proceeded

Way to Give as Present to

New York, Nov. 13.—Search by a local physician and surgeon for a human right ear of certain shape and size, the owner of which was willing to part with the organ in return for $5,000 has been concluded. Hundreds of persons applied in answer to the doctor's advertisement, Each was examined and the right man was found in the person of restaurant keeper, whose turn of ill fortune recently had made him ready to sacrifice both ears, if necessary. The man to whom the ear will be transferred is a wealthy western mine

The German will present himself at the physician's house today to sign an agreement formally relinquishing his right and title to the ear on receipt of the money, and the doctor will begin a course of training to fit the patient for the operation on Tuesday. Among those who offered an ear

Miss Cecilia Blum. "I need the money so badly," said Miss Blum. "I have been trying so hard to save up money enough so I would have a lot to take to my sweetheart, for I am to be married as soon as we can afford it. I have away from him now for more than three years. "We were children together in Switzerland. He went to Paris and worked in one of the grand cafes there. He is now a famous chef.'

SURTAX HITS GERMANY

Bit Will Increase Canadian Trade

third applied to all imports from Germany this month, and will undoubtedly result in a decrease in our purchases firms did in sugar and cement with this country, and in woolens, too. He stead from other countries.

The Minister of Customs goes west this evening to his home in Brantford. The trade and commerce department has had no intimation from the contractors for the South African steamship service of their intention to discontinue the sailings and the report which emanated with a Toronto paper is apparently entirely untrue.

LABBY'S GIRL MARRIED

She Becomes the Bride of Marqui Carle Di Rudini.

Florence, Italy, Nov. 13. - Marquis Carlo Di Rudini, son of the former Italian Premier, and Miss Dora Labouchere, daughter of Henry Labouchere, proprietor and editor of the London Truth, were married here yesterday. Mr. Labouchere and the former were present. Gabriel D'Annunzio and Prince Pigatelli were the witnesses to the cerewhich was entirely private. Gabriel D'Annunzio presented to the bride a magnificent copy of his book, "Franeisca Da Rimini," inclosed in an an-

DEFRAUDED RAILROADS

Two Clever Chicago Ticket Forgers CROWD KNEELS Run to Earth.

Chicago, Nov. 13. - H. L. Kaines, alias C. H. Miller, and H. L. Scott, said by the police to be two of the cleverest railway ticket forgers in the country, were arrested last night. Stamps, chemicals for altering tickets and blank order slips, were found in their room by the police. As a result of the arrests a number of ticket scalpers' offices will be searched today. The men, it is alleged, secured thousands of dollars' worth of transportation from railroads by presenting a forged let-ter purporting to be issued by the superintendent of the Mexican Central Railroad. The letter stated that Kaines was a railroad employe on a furlough. It was addressed to the passenger agents of the railways, requesting them to furnish the bearer with transporta-

According to the police the prisoners have operated all over the country. The who lay dying from a fall from a Western Passenger Association will prosecute the cases against the prison- employed at the archbishop's residence. ers. It is alleged also that they were making a business of furnishing clearance cards and letters of recommendation for employes of the various lines throughout the country as a means of defrauding the railroads of transporta-

A JOHNSTOWN ATROCITY

Well-Known Citizen Kills Son A:ter an Altercation.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 13. - Peter Malze, sen., one of the oldest citizens of Johnstown, is a prisoner here, charged with the murder of his son Peter Malzi, jun. From what can be Three Hundred Men and Five Guns learned the son was intoxicated at the time he was killed. The senior Malzi and the younger man became entangled in an altercation. The older man struck the son on the head with a heavy cane. of his son, who was 44 years old, to the

4 DAYS WITHOUT A HEAD

Turtle.

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 13.-C. R. Smith has a curiosity. It is a turtle, whose head was cut off four days ago, and is still alive. Mr. Smith secured it and prepared to fatten it for meat, as is was a variety good for that purpose. He cut its head off, intending to kill it to crawl away. It was left on the ground just to see how long life would remain She Wanted the Money in the Worst and yesterday, when poked with a stick, it drew its headless neck in and extended its claws as if to prepare for battle, the same as it had done when it had a head.

KAISER TALKS TOO LOUD

His Physicians Can't Keep Him to a Whisper.

Berlin, Nov. 13 .- His Majesty's physicians are experiencing difficulty in pre-venting him from talking. They allow him to whisper, but once he starts his eager transcribing. His impatience of restric-tions grows as his throat heals. It is stated unofficially that the physicians have seriously warned the Emperor to husband his strength in the future, he being physically weakened by his perto try to accomplish more work.

RUSSIA BALKED

Official Circles Admit Inability to with the law of equity. Get Foothold On the Pacific.

London, Nov. 13. - A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says it is admitted in official circles that the pol icy which led to the occupation of Port Ottawa, Nov. 13.-The surtax of one- the expenditure of money and blood it has entailed, and that the attempt to secure an ice-free port on the Pacific from that country. The commissioner has so far proved a failure. The con- italists who secretly introduced gangs chill contracted at the unveiling of of customs seems to think that it will struction of a huge breakwater at hit especially the trade which German Dalny as a protection against high seas only resulted in making the haris satisfied that a large share of the bor ice-bound in winter, the lack of this imports in these lines will come in- protection heretofore having evidently prevented the accumulation of ice. Finally, the correspondent says, the opposition of Japan has thwarted the plan to secure an ice-free port at Masam-

NEW DIET FOR CRESCEUS

Famous Trotter Dines Oif Society Lady's Hat.

Kansas City, Nov. 13.—While Cresceus 400 CITIZENS was being rubbed down in his stable after his drive Wednesday, he was visited by an admiring crowd, among whom were many women. Mrs. "Jack" Cudahy accompanied Mr. Ketcham, Cresceus's owner, into the stall. Cresceus was docile rub his nose. Then he laid back his ears.

Mrs. Cudahy wore a stylish hat, the seemed especially to annoy Cresceus, and he took the brim between his teeth and gave it a hard jerk. The hat came off and Mrs. Cudahy retreated. Mr. Ketcham apologized, but the packer's wife laughed and said it was all her fault. The hat was ruined.

WHILE MAN DIES

Hundreds Join in Priest's Prayers for the Dying On a Chicago Street.

Chicago, Nov. 13.-A crowd of almost 200 persons knelt in prayer on the sidewalk in front of Archbishop Farley's residence at Madison avenue and Fifty-first street yesterday afternoon, while Father Lavelle administered the last rites of the Catholic Church to the window is a stairway leading into the cellar. Kaveny's head struck the sidewalk and he tumbled down the stairway. He was carried to the sidewalk and Father Lavelle summoned. Father Lavelle knelt, and while a bystander gave his coat for a pillow the priest recited the Lord's Prayer. The crowd, which had increased to almost 200, repeated the prayer. Then the last rites of the church were administered, and Kaveny died. GERMANS ON THE MARCH

After Hottentots.

Berlin, Nov. 13. — A dispatch from Swakopmund, in German Southwest facturers of the United States, which and hemorrhage of the brain followed. Swakopmund, in German Southwest facturers of the United States, which Africa, says that three hundred men, convened today in this city, price of his son, who was 44 years old, to the front door of his house, throwing it into the yard. A wide streak of blood on the floor of the house tells the manshoop, Repoboth and Windhoek, to schedules were ratified and approved. No further cuts will be made and it was agreed to maintain prices. It was also decided by officials of

HAGUE TRIBUNAL HAS ADJOURNED

Venezuelan Arbitration Now in Hands of the Court.

Declaring Blockaders Abandoned Claim Hoover's sole plea was insanity, but to Privileged Treatment by Protocol of February.

The Hague, Nov. 13.—The Venezuelan arbitration tribunal adjourned today, sine die, the arguments having been concluded. The court will now consider its decision and will notify those interested of the date of its delivery, The closing proceedings were brief Replying for the United States Judge Penfield, solicitor of the state department at Washington, maintained that the blockading powers, in the protocol of Feb. 13, abandoned all claims for privileged treatment. The United States, he declared, would remain even though the decision rendered is unfavorable to America. Counsel was confident the tribunal's verdict would prove satisfactory to the conscience of the civilized world. The tribunal announced that complete statements of claims might be deposited with the secretary up to Dec. 15 inclusive. Solicitor-General Finlay, of Great Britain thanked the court in behalf of all his colleagues, and the president, M. Muravieff, expressed his thanks to counsel for their assistance. He said they could depend on the court's best efforts to find a verdict in accordance

ITALIANS AT THE RAND

Their Entrance Arouses a Storm of Protest.

Arthur and Manchuria was not worth dignation has been caused among the miners of some of the leading proper- covery. ties here at the action of a firm of capof Italian workers.

> These men were distributed among the Robinson City and Suburban, Ferriera, Village Main, and other mines. Their presence was unknown to the other miners until they attempted to

The British resented the introduction of the cheaper foreigners, and declined to work with them. A strike, with Firemen Hurl Panicstricken Feviolence was threatened. The opposition to the foreigner has been successful in two properties. It is expected the Italians will be sent out of the coun-enough until Mrs. Cudahy attempted to With Axes Smash Drinking Places of Gainesville.

RAID SALOONS

AND SERVE NOTICE ON OWNERS

To Leave County Within Ten Days -Party Was Led by a Militant Clergyman.

New York, Nov. 13. - The Times has the following from Gainesville, as the women landed in safety Ga.: On the ringing of the fire bell yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, 400 citizens, armed with axes, gathered at the city hall, as previously arranged, and proceeded to smash the "blind tigers," and other notorious resorts of the city. After completing their work of demolition the members of the mob, through their leaders, served notice on the proprietors that they must leave the country in ten days, and that no attempt to reopen their places will be tolerated. The committee of citizens was composed of the best people of the city, and was leter for his kind attention. headed by the Rev. J. W. Wynne, pastor of the First Baptist Church. A mass meeting was held after the uileged violators of the law had been visited, Patrick Kaveny, a window cleaner, used in the prosecution of any person at which a large sum was raised to be who shall attempt to reopen one of the window. Kaveny was 35 years old and closed resorts. There has been a great closed resorts. There has been a great Sun rises. 7:08 a.m. Moon rises. 12:44 a.m. deal of trouble here recently, in which Sun sets. . 4:56 p.m. Moon sets. . . 2:01 p.m. He had finished his work on a win-dow on the second floor, when, losing this county is dry, the illegal sale was this county is dry, the illegal sale was regarded as the chief of the evils. A few weeks ago the Rev. C. F. Petty had a duel with C. C. Lipscomb as a result of an article charging Lipsco:nb with running a "blind tiger.

WAGES CUT $15,000,000

Steel Trust Begins System of Retrenchment.

New York, Nov. 13.-In the work of retrenchment which the officials of the Saturday-Fresh to strong west to United States Steel corporation have northwest winds; fair and cooler; a few ordered and planned it is proposed to local snowfalls. reduce the annual pay roll of the giant corporation about $15,000,000 or slightly colors than 10 per cent of the wages Calgary Calgary le Had Abused His Wife and Killed His Father-in-Law.

HOOVER WAS HANGED

Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 13. - Edward Hoover was hanged here early Picked Force Accompany Cars lay, Frank Sutton, in Indianapolis, last summer. Sutton and Hoover quarreled and Hoover frequently threatened U. S. PLEADS AGAINST POWERS Sutton. Hoover's wife left him because of his quarrelsome disposition, and in a fight with Sutton over this fact the latter was shot and killed.

> drinking when the crime was committed. He was originally sentenced to be hanged Oct. 2, but the supreme court granted a stay of execution. A GOOD SEAL CATCH the state showed that he had been

Canadian Fleet Returns The Victoria.

sealing fleet have returned to the Canadian home port of Victoria. The catch on the average was higher than that of faithful to the cause of arbitration last year. Up to the last reports there was an increase of 3,542 skins. The highest catch of the Bering Sea fleet was that of the Libbie, which took 942 skins.

"BOBS" IS LAID UP WITH PNEUMONIA

Commander-in-Chief Contracted on the cars, evidently with the appro Chill at Unveiling of a Memorial.

morning said that the condition of sergeant and twelve policemen, Lord Roberts, the commander in chief, Johannesburg, Nov. 13.-Immense in- was quite satisfactory, that there were no complications and that he was making favorable progress towards re-

Lord Roberts is suffering from pneumonia, which developed from a the memorial to Prince Christian males From Windows of Blazing Building.

THREW THE WOMEN INTO LIFE NETS

New York Nov. 13. - Policemen and firemen made spectacular and exciting rescues of ten women and a man from BIG INCREASE IN rescues of ten women and a man from the building at No. 158-160 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street yesterday afternoon.

Fire forced the women and the man out upon the cornices under the second story windows, and one woman on the In Four Last Months $22,000, sill of a window in the third story. The firemen stretched a life-net, but the women had become so panic-stricken that they paid no heed to the cries for them to jump.

They huddled on the cornices while flames darting out of the windows almost enveloped them. So the policemen who had climbed to Free Goods Were One Half, Indicatthe cornices were obliged to seize the women, and, despite their cries and desperate resistance, throw them down into the firemen's net. While the firemen were at work with the life-net a crowd of a thousand or more persons surrounded them, and the crowd cheered.

Rumor About Kaiser.

Berlin, Nov. 13. — The report that the Villa Cirio, at San Remo, formerly occupied by the late Emperor Frederick, $179,254,645. For the four months endhad been engaged for Emperor William, is absolutely denied at the for-$157,230.992. The total imports were eign office here.

Peter to Edward. casion of the anniversary of his birth

WEATHER BULLETIN

Tomorrow-Fair and Cooler.

London, Friday, Nov. 13. Toronto, Nov. 12-8 p.m. Rain has fallen today throughout the Maritime Provinces and light local snowfalls have occurred in the Lake Superior district, and in Manitoba and the Territories the weather continues somewha stormy. In the lake region high winds are reported again tonight from many Minimum and maximum temperatures:

Minimum and maximum temperatures. Victoria, 36–42; Calgary, 4–14; Qu'Appelle, 12–18; Minnedosa, 14–22; Parry Sound, 34–48; Toronto, 36–48; Ottawa, 36–44; Montreal, 40–46; Quebec, 36–48; Halifax, 46–56. Friday, Nov. 13-8 a.m. FORECASTS. Today-Fresh to strong southwest to west winds: fine and cooler

8 a.m. Min. Weather. Montreal Point Father

CHICAGO POLICE COW STRIKERS

and Prevent Attack. DETERMINED TO STOP RIOTING

> Cat Calls and Hoots, But No Stones-Convention at Boston Sends Strikers Good Wishes.

Chicago, Nov. 13. - More rioting was expected in the street car strike today when the news was spread abroad to that cars would be started with increased police protection.

It was expected that a picked force Ottawa, Nov. 13.-The Department of started, and that a heavy detail of paof police would be aboard each car Fisheries has been advised that practrolmen on foot would guard the street tically all the vessels of the Canadian railway lines, while at points a few squares apart patrol wagons would be in waiting. Several hundred policemen and dozen patrol wagons were massed at the southern terminus of one of the main electric lines. Early in the morning the wagons started toward the business district, leaving squads at intervals along the line where trouble was feared. Lines of union pickets were thrown about the barns and the preparations for starting the cars were attended with no excitement. Precautionary measures by the police were apparently much more complete than during the teamsters' strike some months ago. No stones were thrown, but jeers and catcalls were hurled at the police and the trainmen. The presence of the police val of Mayor Harrison, appeared to greatly excite the anger of the crowds. Ten cars in all started on the trip toward the center of the city within half an hour, all on the Wentworth avenue line. Non-union crews man-London, Nov. 13.—Lady Roberts this first was in charge of a lieutenant or

SOAPED HIMSELF; SLID

Daring and Successful Ruse of Pennsylvania Convict.

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 13.-James Wilson, convicted of burglary, escaped from nothing of the Hubbard expedition, the county jail Tuesday night by removing the iron frame of his cell window, and one of a row of spikes on the outside and an iron ventilator. This gave him an opening not over eight by eighteen inches. He soaped himself thoroughly and after getting through the opening reached the roof by aid of a light-ning rod, and the top of the wall by climbing up the rain spout. He used an improvised rope to lower himself to

Wilson was a dangerous prisoner and was recently captured in a cave near Chickles Rock, with a large amount of

FOREIGN TRADE

000 in Excess of 1902. THE TOTAL IMPORTS $85,652,255

ing Great Manufacturing Prosperity.

$85,652,255, showing an increase of $15,918,713. Of this sum imports of Of this sum imports of free goods amounted to nearly onehalf. As these consist of raw materials for factories, it indicates a prisk condition of manufacturing. Exports and received a reply thanking King 284,191, being a gain of $2,150,845, as compared with exports for the same four months of last year. The increases were: Products of the mine, $1,-126,762; animals and their produce, $1,-592,614; agricultural products, $1,640,-There was a falling off of $1,519,860 in products of the forest, $995,710 in products of the fisheries, and $34,649 miscellaneous products. The following is a comparative statement of the imports and exports for the four months. in detail: Imports, four months-

Dutiable goods......$44,700,502 Free goods...... 25,033,040 .$69,733,542 Domestic exports, four months: The mine. . $13,792,126 $14,918,888 30,288,812 Agriculture 9,959,181 Manufactures 6,580,344 45,009 10,360 Totals$81,133,346 $83,284,191

New Spanish Armada.

THE DUCAL HONEYMOON

The Roxburghes Automobile and Dine Friends.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 13. - The Duke and Duchess of Roxburghe Thursday took a long ride in an automobile, the Belonged to "Chinese Honeyduchess guiding the heavy machine. They dashed about the ocean drive and later went out to Portsmouth. During the morning the duke and duchess were busy receiving numerous telegrams and cablegrams, which came for them in almost a steady stream. Later they went for a stroll about the grounds and terraces of Ochre Court. In the evening they had a few intimate triends in for dinner

MINISTER APPROVES SITE

Steps to Have Camp in Gatineau Ready for Next Year.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.-The Minister of Militia and Gen. Lord Dundonald had a con-Gatineau country. The minister approved the proposed site, and active steps will be taken this winter to have it ready for use next year. A branch line of railway of three miles will have to be built westerly from Kazubaza Station to enable the troops and supplies to get to the camp headquarters. Col. Biggar, assistant adjutant-general, with an engineer, will locate the line of railway next week.

THINK HUBBARD PARTY PERISHED

Settlers and Indians of Labrador Saw Nothing of the Party.

St. Johns, Nfid., Nov. 13.—The mail steamer which has just returned here proach her. from Labrador brings no news of the the woman screamed. expedition to explore the interior of Her apartments have windows facing Labrador, headed by Leonidas Hubon the street. Her screams and her bard, jun., of New York, assistant editor of Outing, which started from in the doorway sounded above the din Rigolet, Labrador, Aug. 1. All the settlers believe the party perished. A tribe of Montagnsis Indians, which has been trapping in the interior, saw though the Indians went 150 miles in-THE TURK TO THE POWERS to a couch.

Says That Reply to Reform Note Will Be Satisfactory.

Pasha, the foreign minister, called on What made you?" the Austrian and Russian ambassadors yesterday and notified them that the that he had said this or that the ac-Porte's reply to the latest note of the tress was any more than a friend two powers on the subject of reforms whom he had known for some in Macedonia would speedily be presented, and that it would be satisfactory. This is in accordance with the views of the grand vizier, who opposed the previous rejection of the office. His position now is secure.

A BABY ON HIS HANDS

He Got Into a Fine Stew When Nobody Claimed It.

Norfolk, Va., and thence to Panama, member of "The Chinese Honeymoon" Lieut. David Van Alen arrived in this company, and has been in the cast city with a three-year-old child he of other comic operas and musical had never seen until a couple of comedies. hours before. When he alighted from It is usual to inquire on admitting the train and found no one waiting to patients to the hospital regarding the claim the little one he hastened to the persons to be notified in case of neconductor to hand it over to him. "Not cessity. Miss Courtenay or Conteau or content to the hospital regarding the persons to be notified in case of neconductor to hand it over to him." Ottawa, Nov. 13. — An increase of over $22,000,000 in aggregate foreign trade for the four months, ending Oct. 31, as compared with the same period of last year, is the splendid showing which Canada makes. The aggregate for the four months was Norfolk in time to join his sinp he had to with it. Whose business is it, anv-to go with it. Lieut. Van Alen left the way. If I wanted to shuffle off the train at Nazareth, thirty miles south of boards?' I was just despondent. That's Louisville this morning to take a turn all I'll say about the matter." down the platform. An old man and his hospital strong hopes exists for her wife approached and asked Van Alen if recovery. he would take charge of the child and turn it over to someone who would meet it in Louisville. When he reached here no one appeared to claim it and he was in despair until he finally got rid

A CLASH IN MANCHURIA

714; manufactured products, $340,974. Chinese and Russian Troops Have a Fight.

> Tien Tsin, Nov. 13. — It is reported force of Imperial Chinese troops, and will follow the advice of the that fighting ensued, the Russians, it $52,323,911 is asserted, pretending that the imperial force was a band of Chinese robBritish manufacturers, so as to make Altogether over ten thousand imper-

HARD ON THE CHINESE

ial troops have crossed the frontier into Manchuria.

Mongol Merchants Can't Work in to Their Own Places.

San Francisco, Nov. 13. - The Unit-Ferrol, Spain, Nov. 13. — Two Brit-ish steamers arrived here yesterday in handed down a decision in the case of ish steamers arrived here yesterday in a damaged condition and told a strange story of being attacked by 25 Spanish vessels, the crews of which threw stones and fired at them, and then took to flight.

handed down a decision in the case of Lin Lun Wong, a Chinese merchant, who acted as foreman in his own fruit-packing establishment to the effect that a Chinese manufacturer who engaged in any kind of manual labor about his factory, even for the purpose of in the case of Lin Lun Wong, a Chinese merchant, who acted as foreman in his own fruit-packing establishment to the effect that a Chinese manufacturer who engaged in any kind of manual labor about his factory, even for the purpose of in the case of Lin Lun Wong, a Chinese merchant, who acted as foreman in his own fruit-packing establishment to the effect that a Chinese manufacturer who engaged in any kind of manual labor about his factory.

No Troops for Panama. The Lieutenant Appeals.

Berlin, Nov. 13. — Both the attorney under the meaning of the exclusion

The Lieutenant Appeals.

Washington, Nov. 13. — The United Structing his employes, is a laborer, where the meaning of the exclusion reached the determination that the sit-Into the yard. A wide streak of blood on the floor of the house tells the story.

After a time the other man aroused the neighbors, telling them that his some was dead. The coroner's jury lays some for the blame for the jumior Malzi's death the lake for the jumior Malzi's death on the father. The parties are all very well known throughout this section.

Sol. Fiedler, on the march from Keetman and the attorney of the was agreed to maintain prices.

WEATHER NOTES.

Sol. Fiedler, on the march from Keetman aroused in the lake region, attended during the night by showers in moderate gale in the lake region, attended during the night by showers in the state have appealed against yes tended during the night by showers in the Territories and Manitoba, with and to six months' imprisonment, and to six months' imprisonment and to dismissal from the army, for the pany into one organization. It is expected that the consolidation will be state the determination that the sit was also decided by officials of the United States steel corporation to moderate gale in the lake region, at the during the military version of the willoud the attorney of the was also decided by officials of the United States steel corporation to medical the state have appealed against yes tended during the military court and the attorney of the was also decided by officials of the United States steel corporation to medical the state have appealed against yes tended during the military court at the state have appealed against yes tended during the military court at the state have appealed against yes tended during the military court at the state have appealed against yes to the United States steel Company as a serion of the willoud the determination that the sit was also decided to enter the willing that the state have appealed against yes tended to the determ

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ACTRESS TRIES TO KILL HERSELF

moon" Company.

FRENCH-CANADIAN GIRL

At Conclusion of Supper With Friends Stabs Herself With Jeweled Dagger.

New York, Nov. 13.—Half an hour after she left a supper party in a fashionable restaurant where she had seemed, with her sparkling black eyes, her laughter and the brightness of her talk, the most light-hearted of them all, Isabella Courtenay, an actress, ference this afternoon with reference to nesday night in her rooms in the Lincoln Hotel at Fiftieth street and Broad-

Using a jeweled Oriental dagger, a memento of her travels, she stabbed herself three times, each time the point of the blade narrowly missing her heart.

It was a wild scene in which the young, slender woman involved the attaches of the Lincoln Hotel, who attracted by her screams, went running to her apartments on the fourth floor. With them was W. W. Hunt, who af. terward told the police that he was connected with H. B. Clailin & Co.. and who had been Miss Courtenay's escort at the supper party. They found her standing with her black hair in wild disorder about her houlders. Her dinner gown she had torn open at the neck. Red stains were upon her throat. Her eyes were on fire with the passion of grief that had nerved her hard to use the dagger. She facea the group in the doorway. One hand neld to the back of a chair for support. In the other she had a dagger raised. "Don't dare to touch me," she cried,

"I want to die. Go away. Let my alone." One of the hallboys attempted to ap-"If you come near me, I'll kill you."

Policeman Lynch made his way to the room. The wounds in the woman's breast were weakening ner. As the poceman entered she was swaying. The hand holding the dagger nan fallen to her side. He disengaged the jewel-1 weapon from her hand and carried her Young Mr. Hunt approached. He is a tall, light-haired young Englishman, and dresses fashfonably. He said to the woman, so others in the room de "This is a nice thing you've done, Isn't it, just the second day after our Constantinople, Nov. 13. — Tewfik marriage—during our very noncymoon. Subsequently young Mr. Hunt denied The Englishman refused to say where opposed the previous rejection of the reform scheme, and, consequently was threatened with the deprivation of his research with the deprivation of his restaurant, at Fiftyeighth street and Eighth avenue. man, whose name he refused to tell, Mr. Huni said, made the third and last member of the supper party. They had escorted her to the Lincoln and were only in the lobby a few minutes

when they heard her screams.

In an ambulance Miss Courtenay was taken to Bellevue Hospital. There she gave her name as Miss Fessie Con-teau. She is a French-Canadian. Con Louisville, Nov. 13. — Under orders to proceed with all possible haste to Courtenay she has been known as a

WEST INDIAN COTTON

of it, It was placed in a children's British Experts Urge Its Cultivation at Jamaica.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 13. — Sir Daniel Morris, the imperial agricultur-al commissioner to the West Indies, addressed a large gathering of planters yesterday, strongly urging the importance of establishing the cotton industry on an extensive scale in Jamaica. here that Russian troops marching to-and it is believed that many planters commissioner. There is a general movethem less dependent upon foreign sources.

Shot Baby Sister.

Stephenson, Mich., Nov. 13.-Andrew Regner, aged 13, shot his 6-year-old sister and then hunted for a cartridge to kill himself. Not finding one he fled to the woods, where he is in hiding. The little girl was frightfully mutilated about the head and is not expected

Appointed to Panama. Washington, Nov. 13. - M. Philippe