EGGS WERE PLENTIFUL ON MARKET TODAY

Twenty Cents a Dozen the Ruling Price—Apples Continue Very Scarce.

This morning's market was again a small one with few features. Business was fairly brisk in most lines, githough oats came down a notch, selling from $1 32 to $1 42. One load sold yesterday afternoon at $1 30 per

A load of wheat brought $1 05 per bushel, while a small quantity of seed peas sold for 90 cents a bushel. Hay quotations were practically unchanged, Eggs were plentiful at 20 cents a dozen on the open square. The shed was practically desterted at 11 o'clock however. Butter in rolls sold at 27 cents a pound.

The prices for live hogs for Monday have not as yet been stated, but will probably be $6.75 per cwt. Apples continue very scarce, a barrel of Baldwins selling at $4 this Maple syrup was quoted at $1 25 a

The Junior Working Boys of the Y. M. C. A. held a parlor field day in the rooms last evening, and the affair proved a big success. The events were keenly contested, and proved most amusing to the spectators. The first event was a soda biscuit contest, and the prize was won by George Gillson. This was followed by a candle race, in which A. Gillson was the winner. The third event caused great merriment. The contestants had to stand on a two-inch plank in front of a tub of water, and, bending over, were required to make a mark on a stick. The boy who made the highest mark without falling in the water was awarded the prize. The prize was won by Harold Mason.
