SIDELIGHTS ON NOTABLE PEOPLE

BY THE MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

destined to remain on record, in being in urgent need of ready money, life while fighting on the staff of Lord England at any rate, for the number for the settlement, it is understood, of Roberts in the last South African of broken engagements among the debts of honor, which have to be paid, aristocracy. To the half dozen that I whereas ordinary creditors can wait, already have recorded in these columns must now be added the aband- of documents, which included bills of the one who is popularly known orment of the projected marriage besteen Miss Egerton Castle and Viscount Campden, who must not be dence in London and in Leicester-guish him from an exceedingly plous count Campden, who must not be confounded with the Marquis of Camden. For whereas the latter is a peer of the realm, head of the House of Pratt, master of Bayham Abbey, and rich, Viscount Campden is a relatively penniless young diplomat, the eldest son and heir of Lord and Lady Gainsborough. Lord Campden is at present acting as secretary of legation at dense of London and in Leicester-shire, with all their contents, the horses, carriage, furniture, the bric-a-brac, pictures, in fact, everything. Lady de Trafford, who has been and still remains a famous beauty, claims that she signed these bills of sale at may be loved by his men, is famed for the character of his language and of his expletives, which only can be described as extremely acting as secretary of legation at May, he gave them as security for only can be described as extremely loans obtained from professional usur-picturesque. who married Miss Helen Gammell, of Providence, R. I. Miss Egerton Cas- the loan mongers have availed themtle is the daughter of Egerton Castle, selves of the bills of sale to seize ily which originally came from County the novelist and champion fencer, who the property. has found in his Irish wife a collaborateur in his romances. He is rich, is the owner with his father, of the Liverpool Post, Mercury and Echo, Campden married Miss Castle he fit from them, that she was unaware warm a place in every true Irish thrifty, and one of the ancestors of erry, are not registered under the Lord Campden—namely. Sir Andrew moneylenders' act, as required by stallouis XVI. Another uncle of Sir James and of the liberator served as a volun-Noel-figures in history as having tute. ruined nimself by his extravagance for the sake of Queen Elizabeth, who, instead of being appreciative of his defer the sake of being appreciative of his defer the sake of th votion and of his sacrifice of his patrimony to satisfy her caprice, dropped ingenuity for evading his obligations him with the following distich upon but is also much blamed for thus sachis name-"Noel"-and at his ex- rificing all his wife's property.

the Chestnuts, at Great Bowden, in Leicestershire—that is to say, in the heart of the hunting country. This was owing to the fact that these two owned by Lady de Trafford, and have thus escaped from her husband's creditors.

The liberator, but from the latter's honor, and of his lack of consideration towards his debtors when fortune favors him in the making of a betting book. The entire squabble was, according to the proceedings in the police owner that these two owned by Lady de Trafford, and have thus escaped from her husband's creditors.

The liberator, but from the latter's honor, and of his lack of consideration towards his debtors when fortune favors him in the making of a betting book. The entire squabble was, according to the proceedings in the police court, a sordid one indeed, and how that Lord Alfred has been fortunate that Lord Alfred has been fortunate address meetings of churchmen and that another member of the enough as to find a singularly charming wife in the daughter of Colonel F.

O'Connell family, Daniel John O'Con- ing wife in the daughter of Colonel F.

sale, on the ground that she received by the way, was the home of the libno consideration and derived no bene- erator whose name still occupies so would undoubtedly have wedded charming heiress.

The breeking of their purport, and that, unless she shall obtain this redress from the courts she will be left not only pendern creation, and was conferred upon Sir James O'Con-The breaking off of the engagement is all the more to be regretted, as it is indispensable that Lord Campden should marry money, in order to regild the escutcheon of the Noel family. The latter never has been too well off; perhaps, because it was not signed, and who have seized her proposition. off; perhaps, because it was not signed, and who have seized her prop- with the rank of colonel. He was known thrifty, and one of the ancestors of erty, are not registered under the as Count O'Connell, owing his title to displayed an altogether remarkable Head.

Sir Humphrey is the chief of one of able character. the oldest families in England, and is championship of the gifted but mis The word of denial and the letter for the twenty-ninth in uninterrupted line guided author of "Lady Windermere's of male descent from the founder of Fan" that led his father, the late Lord Is that gentleman's name who will his family, Pandulphus of Trafford, Queensberry whose name figures in ancient records ing off the intimacy, to embark upor still extant as having flourished in those legal proceedings which Lord Campden, whose title is one of the reign of King Canute the Dane, the individual in question in jail, from courtesy, takes it from one of his and as having died about twenty years which he only emerged in order to go on a spur of the Cotswold hills, near- His son, Robert, figured at the court as soon as his identity was ascertained ly a thousand feet above the sea — a of King Edward the Confessor, and, the clubs to which he had obtained according to tradition, hid all his cess here intimated to him that he and oriels, dating from the time of money, jewels, and other valuables presence was unwelcome. Charles I., and occupying the site of under the floor of a barn at Trafford filled him with an intense hatred of a grange once belonging to the great when the Norman conquerors invaded everything American, and since he be Abbey of Bordesley, in Lancashire. In order to divert sus- came editor of the London literary having been the eldest daughter of were hidden. The ruse proved suc-

A Case Which Is Exceiting Deep Interest in England-Carson

Henson Disobeys Episcopal Injunction—The Matter to Go to Court.

AGAINST DECREE OF HIS BISHOP

and Canon Henson replied that he be-lieved the bishop to be acting ultra virse and containly with unwisdom vires, and certainly with unwisdom. .

Digbeth Institute was fulfilled, and in pastor. The institute is in the parish of St. Gabriel's to interfere with the men's gatherings, and the incumbent I have not intended to do; and I hope of St. Gabriel's, and when Canon Henson's acceptance became known the Rev. W. H. Cariss, vicar of the parish, formally protested to the bishop and to Canon Henson against the latter's proposed action. To the Vicar Canon Henson wrote that he was at a loss to understand what authority he posessed to control the preaching within the walls of Carr's Lane Church. The vicar, in reply, said that life while fighting on the staff of Lord

The O'Connells are an ancient fam-Limerick but which has been settled for centuries in County Kerry, where Lady de Trafford is now appealing Its members used to be known as the to the courts to set aside the bills of O'Connells of Darrinine Abbey, which,

While a good deal of sympathy is teer under Paul Jones on board the on retaining notoriety of an unenvitather's two country seats, Campden before the Norman conquest—that is into the exile in which he died. Lord House, in Gloucestershire. It is built to say, nine centuries ago.

Alfred afterwards visited America, but Warwickshire. Lord Campden has picion from the aiding place he set his weekly entitled The Academy he has royal blood, in his veins, his greatmen to thrashing corn on the floor of never lost an opportunity of attacking grandmother, the Countess of Erroll, the barn beneath which his valuables not merely American literature, but religious acts which are legally prescribed and regulated.

In further correspondence Canon Henson declared his intention of disimbilition from the bishop followed, and Canon Henson replied that he besides the correspondence of the Church of England cannot claim to preach, under whatever auspices or in whatever kind of building, in another man's parish against his control of the carried out with due regard to the sessions judge at Chota Nagpur accepted his plea that human sacrifice was part of his religion, and reduced the charge of murder to one of homicide. In the end the bunia was sentenced to transport the control of the Church of England cannot claim to preach, under whatever auspices or in whatever kind of building, in another man's parish against his control of the Church of England cannot claim to preach, under whatever auspices or in whatever kind of building, in another the control of the Church of England cannot claim to preach, under whatever auspices or in whatever kind of building, in another the control of the church of England cannot claim to preach under whatever auspices or in whatever have been control of the church of England cannot claim to preach under whatever auspices or in whatever have been control of the church of England cannot claim to preach under whatever auspices or in whatever have been control of the church of England cannot claim to preach under whatever auspices or in whatever have been control of the church of England cannot claim the church of England cannot claim the control of the church of England cannot claim the church of sage in Phillimore is irrelevant, for by of England to preach at Noncomform-Letters between Bishop Gore and "church or chapel," he held, is clearly ist gatherings or in Nonconformist and we will show you full value for the amount you pay-and you'll be better pleased than before you beganto deal with us. Send us a trial order to day.

The Bishop's Statement.

CATALOGUE Point Out Any Price You Wish

Then, if you are not fully satisfied, we will exchange the goods or refund the amount of your purchase and pay transportation

Would you not be better satisfied to do all your trading here?

King William IV. by the actress, Mrs. Jordan.

Week ladden in the second Although Sir Humphrey de Trafford, has been for several years past involved in financial troubles that have engaged the attention of the ribunals capterally of the bankruptey court, yet he has nevertheless managed to live quite comfortably, with a handsomely appointed flat in London and a charming country place known as the Chestnuts, at Great Bowden, in London and the liberator, but from the latter's younger brother. Sir Morgan is in-latestars by the consent of the latter day Lord Alfred again of clergymea to speak like other men at public meetings in halls or institutes, on whatever subject, with or without the consent of the lacumbent in whose the limelight in connection with a fistic encounter with a bookmaker, which culminated in the police court. There the bookmaker, which elimelight in connection with a fistic encounter with a bookmaker, which culminated in the police court. There the bookmaker parish the building is situated. But I do maintain the principle that a gave some strange evidence with regard to Lord Alfred's glaring lack of punctuality in the payment of obligations that are considered debts of honor, and of his lack of consideration towards his debtors when fortune broken as the liberator of clergymea to speak like other men at public meetings in halls or institutes, on whatever subject, with or without the consent of the lacumbent in whose I do maintain the principle that a gave some strange evidence with regard to Lord Alfred's glaring lack of punctuality in the payment of obligations that are considered debts of boundary properties.

Within the last few days a case of human sacrifice is growing increasingly on whatever subject, with or without the consent of the building is situated. But I do maintain the principle that a gave some strange evidence with regard to Lord Alfred's glaring lack of punctuality in the payment of obligations court at Chota Nagpur. A bunia of building in another clergyman's parish the pulliding in another clergyman's properties.

The other day Lord Alfred again

PREACHED IN NONCONFORMIST HALL meant those consecrated or licensed buildings which are under the legal control of the incumbent; and by "officiating" is to be understood those religious acts which are legally prescribed and regulated.

AGAINST DECREF OF HIS RISHOD regulated.

O'Connell family, Daniel John O'Con- ing wife in the daughter of Colonel F. mon platforms, and I should do so again where the circumstances seem to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action should be contemplated by clergymen of the Church of England only where they can be carried out with due regard to the legitimate office and authority of the legitimate office and authority of accepted his plea that have accepted his pleasance and himself made the circumstances seem to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate to me to make such action legitimate. But I feel that all such action legitimate substantiate this position. If not, it Greeks, and Armenians from Turkey The engagement to preach at the would appear that there is nothing to who go to him for passports. The hinder any clergyman from using any Turkish ambassador has been peti-Great interest has been aroused in Canon Henson followed. The bishop consequence Bishop Gore published informal worship and preaching in States to investigate. Great interest has been aroused in England by the controversy that has broken out between Bishop Gore, of Birmingham, and Canon Hensley Henson, of the famous St. Margaret's Great interest has been aroused in England by the controversy that has broken out between Bishop Gore, of Henson, of the famous St. Margaret's Great interest has been aroused in Canon Henslop Gore published intormal worship and preacting in another man's parish, defying alike incumbent and bishop. Several circumstances have recently led me to believe that this question had better in order to "preach," under whatever believe that this question had better on her birthday, she reproached him for wastefulness and tore it lines. conditions, into the parish of another niversary at an institute in Digbeth, and Canon Henson having, as I am inshreds. The ticket has won £1,000, but Church, London.

Canon Henson accepted an invitation to preach at the Digbeth Institute Birmingham, which is an offshoot of Carr's Lane Congregational Church, of which the Rev. J. H. Jowett is off which the Rev. J. H. Jowett is and added: "You do not suppose that off which the Rev. J. H. Jowett is and added: "You do not suppose that the parish of another parish of another parish of another clergyman or the diocese of a bishop, in this city, which was opened some time ago under the auspices of Carr's Lane Church, and which is situated in St. Gabriel's parish. Addresses have been given in this institute, I understood by more than one clergyman at the parish of another present case, it is obvious that the parish of the parish of another clergyman or the diocese of a bishop, in this city, which was opened some time ago under the auspices of Carr's Lane Church, and which is situated in St. Gabriel's parish. Addresses have been given in this institute, I understood by more than one clergyman at an institute in Digbeth, in this city, which was opened some time ago under the auspices of Carr's Lane Church, and which is situated in St. Gabriel's parish. Addresses have been given in this institute, I understood by more than one clergyman at an institute in Digbeth, in this city, which was opened some time ago under the auspices of Carr's Lane Church, and which is situated in St. Gabriel's parish. Addresses have been given in this institute, I understood as evactly as possible and also what Church. The vicar, in reply, said that without the consent of the incumbent." terference I formally inhibited him not with him, but with the bishop. he had no such authority, or he should He added: "It is a great bore, but I from preaching in another man's parprevent Canon Henson so degrading feel sure I must vindicate the prinhis orders and position in the church;

ciple of the ineumbent's rights."

The affair had passed into the legal ish against his expressed protest. I do not wish to raise the question of the right of clergymen of the Church op's legal advisers. Asked whether the question would be likely to come before a consistory court, Canon Henthink so. It would be more likely to go into the court of arches. He proposed to leave England after Easter for a visit extending over a few nonths in America.

Interviewed yesterday by a repreentative of the Westminster Gazette, Canon Henson said: "No one is more pposed to law-breaking than I, but I ake the line that the conduct of a Noncomformist service in a Nonconformist church is beyond the interference of either bishop or local incum-bent. It is this consideration, indeed, that makes this question one of great nportance to the Free Churches, for heir freedom cannot be of much worth if the permission of the local incument has to be secured before any wellknown Anglican churchman can be invited into the district to take part in any of their services."

The well-known German actor, Oscar Salm, while playing a leading role in the comedy, "Worried Husbands" at Konigshutte, fell dead on the stage during the first act, in full view of thousands of spectators. It was a benefit performance for Salm.

The French Government is considering a scheme for postoffice checks. The proposal would turn every postof-ace into a bank where current accounts could be opened. It is proposed to allow a small percentage of postoffice accounts.

New York, is charged with demanding "I am informed that the law will an excessive amount from Syrians tioned by 300,000 Turks living in the

Exquisite Designs silver, you naturally ask for 1847 ROGERS BROS. Knives, forks, spoons, etc., so stamped have a permanent beauty and durability. MERIDEN BRITA CO

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. No opium, chloral or other narcotic or dangerous ingredient is contained in Radway's Ready Relief. Guaranteed under E. S. Pure Food and Drugs Law (Scrial No. 537)

Let Me Tell You About My Sister And of how her life was saved by us ing Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

With her nervous system so completely exhausted that her doctor was expecting appoplexy and paralysis this lady's life was despaired of until Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food was given a chance to prove its marvelous control over diseases can

You can have confidence in a treatment that brings about such a remarkable cure. You can be sure that when you are nervous, sleepless, irritable and suffering from nervous headache, indigestion, weakness and lassitude that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will give you health and vigor and save you from nervous prostration, paralysis and other forms of helplessness.

Mrs. D. M. Ferry, Three Rivers, Mich., writes:—"A thousand thanks for your kindness in sending us Dr. A. W. Chase's Almanac. It has proven a blessing to us, for we believe our dear sister owes her life to the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. She had such excruciating pains in her head that she could not sit up or even see, and if she did attempt to rise everything would turn black and she would fall. Her eyelids would swell to twice their size and she was so nervous no one would dare to move in the room for fear of driving her insane. The doctor said she was likely to have appoplexy at any time. Four boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food effected a cure, and she has had no return of her trouble.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food

Cures nervous prostration and prevents paralysis because it positively does increase fine nerve force in the body. It does this in a perfectly natural way by making the blood rich, red and nourishing. You are encouraged to persist in this treatment because you can feel that each day you are gaining in health and strength. The nerve cells are rebuilt and revitalized and weakness and discouragement are replaced with new hope, new vigor and new health. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ontario. The genline bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author.