ALL DEPARTMENTS NOW IN THE NEW STORE. NEW ELEVATORS COMPLETED. OLD STORE CLOSED.

ELEVATORS

Our two elevators, having been completely rebuilt by the Roelefson Elevator Company of Canada, Limited, are now completed. Our Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Department is now opened out in the Third Floor, and the Millinery Department and Ladies' Dressmaking and Tailoring Departments occupy the Fourth Floor.

On the 1st of March, 1900, Gray & Parker first opened their store in London. In 1910 Mr. Gray purchased Mr. Parker's interest in the business, the firm having in ten years built up a splendid business, giving the best service and the lowest of prices to all their customers. In March, 1913, the business was changed into a Limited Liability Company, under the name of Gray's, Limited, with Mr. James Gray as president. The firm, under its new name expanded and occupied their present new five-story building.

Gray's, Limited, stand today for all that is best in service and qualities, and the lowest prices. "Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money."

No! He actually drew up one limb!

This evidence that the Sergeant still lived gave her fresh strength and renewed determination. She struggled to move her own feet; the left was free, but the right was caught firmly under the pony. She struggled desperately, forgetful of pain, in the faith that she might save Hamlin. Little by little she worked the imprisoned limb free, only to find it numb and helpless. She lay there breathless, conscious that she ached from head to foot. Beyond here ached from head to foot. Beyond here it is she ached from head to foot. Beyond the find it numb and helpless. She lay there breathless, conscious that she ached from head to foot. Beyond here in silence, moving his limbs about, confident of the gradual return of strength.
