Admiral Attractions and Beautiful Weather Features of Fourth Day

(From Saturday's Daily) Another bumper crowd, unexception-Ram, lan al weather, and a series of admirable Chilliwack. attractions marked the fourth day of Victoria's annual exhibition. While admission at the main gates which brings the total number having visited the grounds since the opening day up to the creditable figure of 38,000. at its height.

The judging of the stock was brought to a conclusion in an appropriate manner yesterday morning when some of the comparatively inexperienced fanciers were given an opportunity to test their skill in picking the winners. There were two distinct contests, one for men over twenty-one years of age, and another for the younger enthusiasts. In the first there were a large number of entries and R. W. Hedgson, provincial live stock commissioner, who officiated, had some difficulty in deciding which displayed the keenest insight into the requisites of the blue ribbon animal. After each at its height. the keenest insight into the requisites of the blue ribbon animal. After each had been given a trial, Mr. Hodgson thus placed those who entered the competition for men above twenty-one years: 1st, D. T. Evans; 2nd, J. Morrison; 3rd, James Turner; 4th, H.
