THE ELECTION

The result of the polling Saturday and in Gloucester Monday proved conclusively that the people of New Brunswick were disgusted with the actions of the Murray government and decided by their ballots to have a thorough housecleaning and not one of the kind promised by Mr. Murray.
The new government will have a majority of six in the new legislature and an opposition sufficiently strong to keep things running in perfect order.

The new government will be composed of men who will look to the future for their record. They have been elected upon a clean, honest, business like administration platform and we hope they will live up to their platform.

TO DO HIS "BIT."

Hon. Col. Richard O'Leary of Kent appeared on the Conservative platform last Friday night and said that in 1912 he had come up to Restigouche to do his "bit" for his friends Messrs.
Stewart and Culligan, and he was here again for the same purpose. We all know what that "bit" was in 1912 when the green car traversed the road to Balmoral, but he had a different proposition in 1917.

Friday afternoon the Hon. Col. and a prominent Campbellton Nationalist Conservative, who had received word from Quebec headquarters to "have Restigouche at any cost" proceeded by horse and sleigh for the old stamping ground at Balmoral, via Tobique and their resources of civilization were scattered along the roadside. It was late when they reached the prosperous settlement of Balmoral, and refined for rest and refreshment at the home of a friend. Early Saturday morning (Election Day) the two brave political bosses appeared at the poll and began their work. Now the Balmoral people take a hand. A communicative interview the Hon. Col. and his friend made it perfectly clear that times had changed since 1912 and that their absence would be appreciated more than their presence. There was no mistake the meaning of the honest electors, so our brave Chief Recruiting Officer meekly packed his gear and started for Campbellton via Tobique. A telephone call for him Saturday night elicited the reply that Mr. O'Leary had left Balmoral for Campbellton that morning but had not yet arrived! He was doubtless snowed out under the votes of the honest electors of Balmoral.

And the best of the whole story is that while the Hon. Col. was away from his own constituency (Kent) the wicked Grits snowed under his political friends and not one of them was elected. How have the mighty fallen!

NEW LOCAL MEMBERS WARMLY WELCOMED

The members elect went down to Gloucester Monday to see the fun at Bathurst, returning by the local in the evening. All along the line large delegations met the train and Messrs.
Currie and LeBlanc were given a great reception. At Charlottetown a delegation of husky electors seized the two members and carried them out to a vacant lot when an immense bonfire was burning in celebration of the Liberal victory.

At Campbellton teams met the train and the new members were brought to the Opposition committee rooms where a large crowd had gathered.
The citizens band was also present and played a number of selections.
Speeches were delivered by the members and other workers. Then headed by the band, a procession was formed and marched to the homes of Messrs.
Currie and LeBlanc where there was more music and much cheering.

When he arrived there Friday evening he found the government electors betting upon the size of the government candidates' majorities, but their tune changed Saturday morning shortly after the poll opened.
Restigouche has made a record for himself. She has turned with the government.

The crowd at the Opera House Saturday night was very quiet. Not even a cheer when the candidates' pictures were thrown upon the canvas.

A local paper says the soldiers were drenched for taking "apples" from a burning store. Surely our uptown friend has not tasted the stolen fruit, too. An eye witness says he never saw apples done up in long bottles. Perhaps it was cider our contemporary meant. Cider with a "stick" in it.

Dear Sir:

We wish to correct a false impresnection with the Ladies Aid Society of others. The Red Cross work that we are doing is pure and unadorned.

speedy exit. They resisted somewhat tried to explain that their presence here was not to influence any one. But they had just come to see their friends etc., but we have had enough of O'- Leary's foul play on our sacred soil.
They sought refuge in a neighbouring house, but that was too close to the poll, so Simon LeBlanc chased them out of there and dogged them till they were out of sight. We offered no assistance whatever to Simon, for we knew he could handle the two conservative bullies. Right has that advan-age over wrong, that it requires less physical strength to conquer. The unfortunate plotters loitered the rest of the day with conservative sympathizers awaiting the favor of darkness to make their way back to Campbellton. They had undoubtedly reckoned without any uprising on our part.
Did they not know that Balmoral had reneged to the light, of truth? Since the conservatives have been in power, we have carefully studied their politics, have waited in vain for those promised good roads. Although Balmoral is somewhat remote from large centres, we are not as remote in our ideas as some people seem to think.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immedandruff. You can not have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots furnish food and die; then the hair falls out

BALMORAL'S FAIR ELECTION

The parish of Balmoral has just recorded on the pages of its history a deed worthy of its genuine, loyal inhabitants. Since the last federal and local elections the parish had lost its reputation of being the "Key-of the County of Restigouche," and this through the contemptibly mean and most dishonest methods of some imported pot-bellied politicians who corrupted the electors with money. Then they boasted of having bought them like sheep at a barn door. What a sift, ignorant, narrow-minded bunch the people of Balmoral were, they thought. Why, one could induce them to sacrifice their homes for an accursed dollar.

Since then, things have become darker for our prosperous friends. They began to fear of losing the once loyal little parish of Balmoral. Oh! but there was Richard O'Leary, the king of Richibucto!!! Had he not bled the parish at the last election and injected poison to its very heart? Only a few good old liberals had overcome the terrible calamity. Then he was just the man! So thought some Campbellton friends and a great many others. A wire to "good old Dick" brought him up immediately, although not with his "big car" this time.
He called a Working Party of the Red Cross Society. The only share that David Champoux with him, and full of confidence (and of themselves) the Ladies Aid has had in the work of the donation of $5.00 part of the they boldly pulled reins in front of the proceeds of a supper in Mrs. Pollock's hall very early in the morning. Dick store. All denominations, Protestants and Roman Catholic alike have helped us generously and our collections, and are all working together in the common cause. We wish this made clear because of a misunderstanding Recruiting Officer meekly packed which may keep people, especially outsiders from helping. This work is not connected in any way with any church.

Any donations of money may be sent or handed to Mrs. Mary Pollock, who is Treasurer. We expect to have a supply of yarn soon, and this, along with the Society's directions, may be had from me.

The progress which intellectual development has wrought among us is more and more perceptible; we feel our needs more keenly, and with one accord, we are firmly working for a better administration. What has kept us back in the past, was electoral corruption we have long fought in vain for a clean election. This year, through the pluck of Simon LeBlanc, or exerts have been fruitful. We have enough food, reliable men in the parish to carry out our own election without importing any from Richibucto or any other place. We know too well what those fellows come here for. They are well paid for their valuable service. That is where our money goes. If any party has not enough self-reliance, personality and sterling qualities to defend its own cause alone, it loses our confidence and bears the consequences. Honey-tongued strangers will influence the weak-willed ones, rum and money will buy the low class, those who have no principles, who care naught what party is in power and how the country is administered. Such men are the bane of the country, and a government built with bribery cannot possibly carry out an honest administration.
In future, our poll shall be free from intruders who betide Dick O'- Leary or any other corrupter who ventures on our grounds again on polling day. We advise those curs to stay home and mind their own affairs.
An Elector.

The Halifax Chronicle says: "The Liberal Party, and above all, the people of New Brunswick, are to be congratulated upon the magnificent victory which they have won for honest Government and clean politics."

Saturday's vote is an indication as to what is likely to happen in the next Federal election. All the provinces except Ontario and P. E. Island will now be ruled by governments opposed to Sir Robert Borden. In Ontario the opposition is known to be gaining ground rapidly. In P. E. Island the government just squeezed through on his last occasion. Looking at the country province by province—
