JUNE WEDDINGS NOW ORDER OF DAY

Many Young Couples Joined in Life's Journey—Campbellton Events

HANDSOME GOWNS.

At nine o'clock yesterday morning at the Church of Our Lady of Snows a very pretty wedding was performed by the Rev. E. P. Wallace, when Miss Edith M. McIntyre, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre of Campbellton, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas H. Barry of the U. S. Railway Mail Service and a native of Boston, Mass. The bride wore an elegant gown of white satin and Irish point lace with a veil of embroidered net and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Annette Thibierge the bride entered the beautifully decorated church on the arm of her father who gave her away, while the groom was attended by Mr. Henry McIntyre of Campbellton. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The bride's travelling gown is a quite garment of catwalk ladies gown with hat to match. Saturday the couple will leave for Boston, Mass., and will reside in Dorchester, Mass. The bride was the recipient of a large number of elegant presents, which included a Steinway piano, the gift of the groom.

FERGUSON—FRASER

A very interesting event took place at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, B. D., on June 23rd, when Mr. William E. Ferguson of Flatlands was united in marriage to Miss Sadie B. Fraser, daughter of Mr. David Fraser of Moore Settlement, P. Q. The bride who was unattended, looked very charming in a gown of white tulle with hat to match. After the ceremony the couple drove to Moore Settlement, where a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Many friends will wish congratulation to the newly married couple.

ENGLISH—FRASER

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Wm. Fraser, Prince William St., on Wednesday evening, when his oldest daughter Mary Elsie was married to Mr. Alfred Henry English of Lunenburg, N. S., but now of the W. E. Forbes Co. of this town. Rev. Dr. Carr was the officiating clergyman. The bride was charmingly attired in white silk, on Princess, with trimmings of Valenciennes lace. Miss Margaret Harper of Sackville, played the wedding march. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain. Owing to the recent death of the groom's mother, the wedding was very quiet, only the immediate friends being present.

Mr. and Mrs. King left this morning for the Maritime Provinces, and other Nova Scotia towns. The bride travelled in a suit of dark blue broadcloth, with hat to match. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

KERMIT GETS THE BIGGEST LION

SAVUSHA, British East Africa, June 22—After comparative silence for over a fortnight, the first news of the Roosevelt expedition came into this city. The expedition, which is now in the hands of the British, has been reported to have killed a very large lion on the 10th inst. in the South district.

ANOTHER QUEBEC EDITOR IN TROUBLE

QUEBEC, June 24—Another writ for contempt of court will be issued shortly from the Quebec Court House against a newspaper man, Mr. James P. Leves, chief editor of the Quotidien. Leves, wrote a humorous article on Four-nier's sentence, and the article was published with a cartoon in the Poth Quebec, a local humorous weekly.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

Money is the most efficient substitute for brains. Most women are the victims of their own sensitiveness. He is a wise fool who knows enough to keep it to himself. Some people never pay anything but visits to their relatives. Much of the so-called milk of human kindness is buttermilk. The dentist often shows his teeth without opening his mouth. The man who can't button his coat hasn't clothes enough to go round.

DOMINION DAY.

Let me give you a price to brighten up your house for Dominion Day, perhaps one coat will do it, over thirty years' experience enables me to tell.

Estimates cheerfully given on all kinds of House decorations.
