Which is Your Choice?

Sloppy, leaky wooden troughs, or clean, durable Concrete?

Wooden drinking troughs are about as reliable as the weather.

They are short-lived and require replacing every few years—not to mention continual patching to keep them in repair.

The best of wood cannot withstand, for long, constant dampness and soaking.
Its tendency to rapid decay soon shows itself in leaks and stagnant pools of water around trough.

Contrast with this the durability, cleanliness, and well-ordered appearance of Concrete.

The dampness which destroys lumber only intensifies the strength and hardness of Concrete.

You can impair a wooden trough with comparatively little use; but it takes a powerful explosive to put a Concrete water tank out of business.

is your choice—expense-producing Wood, or money-saving Concrete?

We'd be glad to send a copy of our book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete,"—Free—if you'll ask for it.
It tells the many uses of Concrete in plain, simple language—tells how to make it.

FEAR DIGBY MAN WAS MURDERED

Search for Missing Edward McGregor Without Result.

John Tebo, Jr., Taken Into Custody
Charged With Theft of Money From Much-Sought Man.

Digby, N. S., Oct. 31.—John Tebo, Jr., was arrested in Digby by Chief of Police Cowles this afternoon on suspicion of stealing money from Edward McGregor, the missing man. His preliminary examination will commence tomorrow morning before Stipendiary Magistrate Harvey.

The mysterious disappearance of McGregor, a story of which appeared in Friday's Telegraph, is now the talk of the town. Your correspondent accompanied the chief of police on a thorough search of the missing man's premises late Saturday afternoon. It was learned that McGregor left in his working clothes, that he had evidently had no intention of being gone for any length of time. It was also learned that he had saved up considerable money while living alone, which he continually carried on him, the supposed amount ranging, according to various stories, from $250 to $600.

A large searching party again went through the woods yesterday and today, but no signs of the body could be discovered. That he met with foul play is now the opinion of almost everybody in that vicinity as well as the people of this town.

All sorts of stories, of course, are being told, but only a regular investigation by the proper authorities will bring out the facts. St.
John Telegraph.

SAVED CHILDREN BUT LOST HIS LIFE

Beverly Railway Employee Ran Down Track to Scare Little Ones off the track and was Killed.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 31.—To save three small children, who had wandered on to the railroad tracks in front of an express train, Stephen Jones, a Boston & Maine carpenter, gave up his life today.
The children were crossing the tracks near the Chatham street grade, when Jones spied them.
Shouting, he ran toward the spot and succeeded in scaring the children so that they ran out of danger, but in his excitement and anxiety the man failed to notice how close the train was upon himself and the engine struck him. He was almost instantly killed. Jones was fifty-five years of age, married, and lived at Rialside, Beverly.

ONTARIO BAPTISTS ASSIST CAMPBELLTON

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The afternoon and evening sessions of the Baptist convention on Friday were marked to enthusiastic demonstrations of missionary enthusiasm. This enthusiasm took the form of dollars and cents.

In something like two hours, in the latter part of the afternoon and in the evening, a sum exceeding $40,000 was contributed chiefly toward defraying expenses of the foreign and home mission work of the church. Nearly thirty thousand dollars was raised in the afternoon.

The contributions began coming in immediately after the reading of the annual report of the foreign missions.
The report itself was somewhat lengthy, and the reading occupied a large part of the afternoon. It dealt especially with the work being carried on in the Telugu at Cocanada in India. The Vizagapatam mission had been taken over from the London Mission Society, thus bringing together the Baptist missions in India.

At 8 p. m. the meetings were continued, when Bloor street church was crowded. The proceedings opened with a song service, under the direction of Rev. W. E. Boyer, B. A.

The Rev. Dr. Stobo, vice-president of the convention, presided, and introduced the Rev. Mr. Schurman of Campbellton, N. B. Mr. Schurman gave a brief outline of the devastation caused by fire in Campbellton, and made a strong appeal for funds to rebuild the church and other buildings.

The appeal was not in vain may be gathered from the fact that from the collection alone he received $337, while other donations during the evening were granted to the pastor and congregation amounting to $750 or in all $1,087.

Mr. Schurman, in thanking the assembly for their generosity, remarked that the first cheques he received after the great fire in Campbellton were from Baptists of the city of Toronto, and now they had come to the front with an even greater proof of their generosity.

HARRY J. BAIG, A SUICIDE AT MONCTON

Arrested for Strange Conduct on Train. Hanged Himself in Lock-Up.

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 1.—Harry J. Baig a Jewish junk dealer of St.
John, hanged himself in the Moncton police lockup this morning between five and half-past five o'clock.
Baig had been taken off No. 9 train on its arrival here from Amherst and was locked up, charged with cutting and destroying seats in the car. Shortly after 5 o'clock when Thomas Donnelly, night call man, had occasion to visit the cells, a shocking sight met his gaze. As he flashed a light into the steel lattice cell occupied by Baig he was horrified to see the prisoner suspended by a rope from the top of the cell apparently lifeless. The man who had been placed in the cell about an hour and a half before was cold in death. Constable Donnelly notified Coroner Purdy of the occurrence a few minutes after his discovery.

When the night express from Halifax arrived at Moncton at three o'clock this morning, the conductor reported Baig for creating a disturbance on the train and cutting the seats. Officer Dryden at once took the man into custody and found him apparently suffering from some mental trouble. The I. C. R. officer telephoned for the city police patrol and had the man sent to the lockup. Upon arrival at the police station, Baig was searched and $97.67 and a flask of whiskey were found on him. He told the police he was going to St.
John. The unfortunate man was about 35 years of age. A piece of rope was used by Baig to end his existence, but where he got it the police say they are unable to understand. An inquest will be held by Coroner Purdy.

St. John friends of the unfortunate man were greatly shocked to hear of his suicide. It is said he was a temperate man, but that he had been acting strangely for a month or more. He leaves a wife and six children, living on Pond street.

DEATH AT CHATHAM OF MRS. CATHERINE O'SHEA

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 1.—After an evening spent in Halloween games with her grandchildren, Mrs.
Catherine O'Shea, aged 72, widow of William O'Shea, retired to bed and was found by her daughter, Mrs. James McLaughlin, a few minutes later with her hands crossed upon her breast and sleeping her last long sleep. Dr. Duffy was at once notified, but nothing could be done. Mrs. O'Shea and her husband were natives of Ireland, and emigrated first to the States and then to Prince Edward Island.
Eleven years ago they settled in Chatham, and about seven years ago Mr. O'Shea died. Mrs. O'Shea leaves a daughter, Mrs. James McLaughlin, with whom she lived, and two sons, John and Patrick, in the States. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning.
