You have frequently noticed in newspapers, very favorable mention of the portrait painting of the Mesers Martin of this city who are known to the business world as H. C. Martin & Co. Of course their are artists and true artists who alone could exhibit such finished work as is seen in their windows on King street. Many persons, in fact all who please, chated with him. Mr. Sawyer also at present on the Telegraph, and with two such bright newspaper men at its head the new venture will doubtless prove a success.

The cupilog match between four rinks each, get the Batham and Fredericton clube, was sommenced here this morning, and is being consisted this afternoon. Fredericton in the foreness play, had ten points, W. K. Allen for Prederictas, defeating Johnston 21 to 8, and Cheeman for Newcastle, beating Rutter L4 to 11. E. H. Allen is playing D. G. Smith this afternoon, and Loggie is faging Hutchison. The ice is in a wretched condition.

The carnival at Marysville Friday evening was an unqualified excess. There were over two handred shaters in costume and the promandes were crowded with spectators. The following were the prize winners.
