It was decided to adhere to the tripartite agreement, but also that if clubs are transferred from one city to another, the existing agreements shall be null and void.

Six thousand people, the largest audience of the season, witnessed the closing game on Saturday of the Chicago Cleveland series, attracted by the close race now making for the championship and the sharp rivalry which has marked the contests of these two clubs. Chicago beat Cleveland by 21 to 7. Detroit and Buffalo played at the former city. Nine maings were played, when owing to darkness the game was called, and will be renewed to-day. Each club scored 12 runs, and there was much excitement on the ground, Saturday's games were as follows:

The ball was faced at 2.30. The first game lasted 10 minutes, when Stowe, knocking up White Eagle's stick, got hold of the ball and put it through for the Torontos. The second game was closely contested. After 23 minutes hard fighting the Indians put it through the Torontos flags. The Indians also won the third game in 5 minutes. The Torontos, however, won the last two games in short order, taking only about 3 and 6 minutes to caol. Just after the third game Hayes of the Torontos became disabled and J. Logan was put on as his substitute. A. M. Stowe, inside home of the Torontos, made some good play. White Eagle, Becuvais, Lefevre and the two Hammooks played a strong game for the Can, howays.
