J. J. Dixon & Co. received the following to day over their private wire from Counselman & Day of Chicago: Trading in wheat to-day only moderate, with early cables weak. Later cables quoted further declines. Weather simply perfect and winter wheat districts reporting an expected heavy yield of good quality of wheat and a prompt movement from farmers' hands. Commission houses and local operators conflied their trading almost entirely to new crop futures and the market closed at 1½c decline, after a rally of barely ½c from low point. Charters 78,000 bushels. Corn started weak on liberal receipts, favorable weather and cables quoting ½c decline. Local bears added to lines sold short yesterday and country holders let go reluctantly but surely, closing ic decline. Oats started out gamy and ½c to ½c higher, owing to receipts being 40 cars under estimates, but lioders were urgent sellers and with other grain market flattened out and closed at low point. Provisions were dull-but steady.

ALEXANDER & FERGUSSON Bank of Commerce Building,

Robert Cochran received the following despatch from Henry Allen & Co. of New York today: More gold for Europe, more liquidation by tired holders of stocks, a weak market throughtout. This was the stock exchange history today. Call money continues abundant and cheap; time money is just as scarce as ever. News from the other side suggests an increase of confidence in American securities, but it is a confidence not supported by action. L. & N. and other American stocks largely held abroad have lately been marketed here heavily on the quiet. Indications point to large sales of Reading by the Vanderbilts. There is increasing disgust on every side of the market. Transactions amount to nothing
