Our Bargain Day is now an assured success. That we were wise in selecting Saturday, the people's shopping day, has been fully demonstrated to us—our trade in—the length shead of Pickpocket, who beat profession seed of 20 minutes, but the field finally got way in good order.

Chicot was first to show in front, but corn cob soon took the lead, which he was forced to give up as soon as they were attraightened for home to Glad, who has never afterwards headed.

To a good start in the fourth race Hart ford went off in the lead, but Judge Morrow second, Gallop in passed him and showed the way to the home stretch, where he gave up to George Bett Doublands.

At Binghamton, Erie and Wilkesbarre rain.

At Booklyn, And Book and odd sizes, but a complete bour and a separate drive place.

In the sixth race St. Vincent got a light and fresh; not a faded color, but the latest and nattiest shoes the clubhouse turn, but here Potash rushed up a hope in the place.

A Scorcher in Men's Wear.

GIVING UP MEN'S FURNISHINGS ALTOGETHER.

(After this Great Sale is over nothing but Ladies' Goods will be kept.)

$8,960.00 WORTH OF MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, comprising everything needful for a plain man, a neat man, a fashionable man or a don't-care man is to be sacrificed by

MONDAY MORNING NEXT.

Wives who have been in the habit of buying for their husbands, mothers who have been in the habit of buying for their sons, daughters who have been in the habit of buying for their father, all will find this sale a money-saver in every sense of the word.

Three Important Points Compel Us to Clear Out Men's Furnishings.

1st——Our fast increasing trade in ladies' goods has reached the point where we require more room in order to give it proper attention, consequently we were compelled to empty one hundred fixtures on our ground floor, and move men's goods down to the basement.

2nd——We recognize the fact that men's wear requires more attention than we can at present give to that department, and unless we can do justice to a department we prefer to be without it; besides, we have no room for men's furnishings.

3rd——Our ladies' underwear and Corset Departments have grown to such an extent that double the former space is required to conduct it properly. It now occupies the whole side next to our entrance, which formerly held the men's goods.

These three points, when condensed, mean simply this: We want to clear every dollar's worth of Men's Furnishings in our store--and at once. One hundred fixtures must be emptied, no mat-

This sale of Men's Goods will be a shelf-sweeper--reckless prices will move the goods at a lightning rate. In order to handle with ease the crowd that will attend this sale we moved our whole stock of Gents' Furnishings down to the basement, where there is lots of room, plenty of light, handsome mirrors and obliging clerks to show you the bargains, whether you purchase or not.
